ARABIC TRAGEDY CREATES GRAVE SITUATION; RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT MAY FLEE TO MOSCOW

BREAK WITH GERMANY IS AGAIN NEAR

Washington Gravely Ponders
the Arabic Affair, But Awaits Official Details.

President and Advisers Await Decisive Proof That Lives of Americans Were Lost.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The official details upon which President Wilson will decide whether the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic was an act deliberately unfriendly to the United States, were still lacking today and meanwhile the president and all other administration officials were realizing fully the gravity of the new situation between the United States and Germany, were keeping their minds open.

Situation is Critical.
There is no attempt in official quarters to minimize the situation confronting the president if investigation develops a violation of American rights in defiance of the last note to Germany which gave notice in final terms that another sinking like that of the Lusitania would be considered an act "deliberately unfriendly."

The prospect of severance of diplomatic relations with Germany again came forward, but it was understood that if such a course should be decided upon, it would not be immediately announced. Certain arrangements to transfer to some other neutral the humanitarian trusts in the war zone which the United States has undertaken for the world would first be necessary.

Developments Are Awaited.
Officials awaited developments hourly without a trace of agitation but with evidences of sober earnestness which portrayed the concern for a situation which admittedly never has been more grave.

President Wilson left the white house early to motor to Philadelphia to visit his oculist and motor back to the capital this evening. When he has a deep problem in his mind, it is the president's habit to seek seclusion, often riding through the countryside.

No officials here doubted that he was giving hours of thought to the Arabic case. Only two of the dispatches had been received and they gave the fruits of no independent investigation merely transmitting the reports of the White Star line.

The United States will decide its course upon the reports of its own officials.

Ambassador Page forwarded a White Star report that the ship was torpedoed without warning and Vice Consul Thompson, at Queenstown, made a similar report. Neither accounted for Mrs. Josephine S. Bruguiere nor Dr. Edmund Wood, the two Americans still missing.

Some Salient Points.

While officials here are keeping their minds open during the hours which will be required for assembling the official

German Submarines In Fierce Campaign In British Waters

New York, Aug. 20.—Advisers received here today bring the report that the White Star liner Bovic had been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine.

The Bovic has been employed in the Australian service. She was a vessel of 5,600 tons.

The local offices of the White Star line were without direct news of the sinking of the Bovic, although they had heard the report, which came, it was said, from London.

The Bovic, it was said by the officials, was a freighter and on her last trip sailed on August 8 from New York for Manchester, England. The Bovic is a slow boat, having a speed of about ten knots an hour and according to the official report, about to be in the war zone.

DEATH LIST IS GROWING

But List of Missing in the Gulf Storm is Much Decreased.

THE KNOWN DEAD
NOW NUMBER 116

Food Supplies Are Going Into Galveston and Other Places.

Houston, Texas, Aug. 20.—The death list from the Texas coast storm increased slightly today and the missing list decreased considerably. The known death list was 116 today, including 13 known dead in Galveston.

Some other bodies were found about Galveston but they were supposed to be mostly from the mainland.

The dead probably will be increased by a dozen or more when the Virginia Point hotel collapse is cleared up.

Twenty persons are listed as missing in this collapse and up to today no trace of them has been reported here.

Reports indicated that the thirty persons yesterday listed as missing at Bolivar, had been found. Outside of these thirty the only other single large missing list was fifty hands on the dredge Houston.

The fact that nearly all hands on a dozen other dredges working in the same vicinity near Galveston had turned up alive after two or three days' search for them, relieved worry over the Houston crew.

A conservative estimate of the missing today was less than 100. Reports from Galveston were optimistic for rapid recovery of the city's routes for food supplies and for early establishment of wire connections.

GETTING INTO SOME ORDER.

LYNCHING TREE IS TO BE PRESERVED

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 20.—Watchmen today were guarding the big oak tree, two miles from here, on which the lifeless body of Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, was found dangling last Tuesday morning, to prevent souvenir hunters or others from molesting it. The tree soon is to be surrounded with a concrete wall, it is announced, and thus preserved by the owner, W. J. Frey, to mark the death place of the alleged slayer of the Phagan girl. Meanwhile the tree is being guarded night and day. It was said that Mr. Frey had declined an offer of $200 for the tree and in doing so the plan to build a wall about the tree became known.

DIDN'T WANT FATHER TO KNOW HE JOINED

F. M. Howard, 19 years old, a well known young man residing in Decatur, was accepted for enlistment in Uncle Sam's navy Thursday at Indianapolis. He made application at the Fort Wayne recruiting station and having passed the examination here was sent to Indianapolis for a final test. Before leaving Fort Wayne Howard was very anxious that nothing be said of his enlistment until after he had passed the final examination for the reason that he did not want his father to know until after he had been accepted. He was afraid that his father might object, and after he had been accepted he knew it would then be too late.

SISTERS MAKE GHASTLY FIND

A TRAGIC DEATH
IN VACANT HOUSE

Lay All Night Unconscious

Following Plunge Down
Dark Stairway.

Following an all-night search for their sister, Mrs. Ella Mulford, 336 Madison street, who disappeared Thursday evening, Mrs. Ida Thomas and Mrs.

Mrs. Ella Mulford, who was found dead in cellar of vacant house.

Alla Hammond, went into a vacant house at 824 Lafayette street, at eight thirty Friday morning, and by the light of a match held at the top of a steep cellar stairway, discovered the blood-spattered body of the missing woman huddled on the stone floor at the bottom. The body was still warm, and death had occurred but a short time before the horrible discovery.

Mrs. Mulford had contemplated moving into a new house, and had left home at four o'clock Thursday afternoon to look over prospective rental properties. She applied at the door of Mrs. A. Quince, who occupies the other half of the double dwelling, for a key to No. 824. That was the last that was seen of her. Mrs. Quince sent her son into the house at dusk to see why the key had not been returned, but he reported that he could find no trace of the woman.

Occupants of the other half of the building heard no scream, no thud and no sound in the night, and it was not until the sisters of the dead woman came upon her body that the neighbors realized that a tragedy had occurred under their roof.

That the woman had been dead but a short time was evident from the condition of the body when it was found, and she probably lay in an unconscious condition through the entire night. The

FALLS FROM TRAIN AND PAINFULLY HURT

Miss Clara Werkman, of 2337 South Hanna street, who had been with her parents at Rome City, sustained painful cuts and bruises on her face at 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon by falling when she attempted to alight from a train. Miss Werkman intended to come to Fort Wayne on train No. 8, but by mistake got aboard train No. 3, northbound, which was also at the Rome City station. She did not notice the mistake until the train started. Then she sprang from her seat, rushed to the door and sprang out, falling when she struck the ground. She was given surgical attention and later placed on another train and brought to the city. She is not seriously injured.

MARSHALL'S PLAN OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

Kansas City, Aug. 20.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall declared himself in favor of military training in schools in a statement here today. "I do not believe in forced military training," Mr. Marshall said. "It seems un-American, but young men could be trained in high schools and colleges without loss of time. In case of war, the United States would need many officers to train volunteers. I can think of no better place to train officers than in the schools of our country." Mr. Marshall said, however, he saw no possibility of the United States being

BUT TWO AMERICANS IN LIST OF MISSING

These Are Believed to be Among Those Whose Lives Were Lost When the Arabic Was Torpedoed.

London, Aug. 20.—(1:23 p. m.)—It has now been definitely established, the White Star line announced this afternoon, that only two Americans on the Arabic are unaccounted for.

These are Dr. Edmund F. Wood and either Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere or Louis Bruguiere. The name of Louis Bruguiere appears on the American embassy's list of the saved.

It is understood that the Arabic carried between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 worth of American securities for New York. These all were insured but the underwriters Lloyd's and the various financial institutions were busy this morning looking up the details and arranging claims. One firm alone had $1,250,000 worth of securities on the sunken vessel. It is understood that some stocks are being purchased in America to cover these.

BUT EIGHT PASSENGERS MISSED.

White Star Company Says All Others Are Accounted For.

London, Aug. 20.—The best information now available indicates that a score or more persons lost their lives in the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic by a German submarine yesterday morning off the south coast of Ireland. Thus far it has not been determined definitely whether any Americans are among the dead. Dr. Edmund F. Wood, of Janesville, Wis., and Mrs. Josephine L. Bruguiere, an American who had lived in Europe for some years, are missing.

Eight Passengers Missing.

The White Star line announced this morning that all but eight of the passengers had been landed at Queenstown. Four of these were said to be Americans. According to information cabled to Washington by Lewis C. Thompson, American consul at Queenstown, however, Dr. Wood and Mrs. Bruguiere are the only missing Americans. The other two—James Houlihan of Philadelphia, and Thomas Elmore, of New York—were reported by Mr. Thompson to have been saved. In all, about 400 of the 423 persons on board the Arabic have been accounted for. The fate of the others is still in doubt, but as the hours lengthen since the Arabic met with swift destruction, hopes that the others may have been saved are fading.

Most of Dead Are Sailors.

The announcement that all but eight of the passengers were saved bore out earlier reports that the great majority of the missing were members of the crew. Captain William Finch, of the Arabic, gave testimony to the heroism of his engineers and firemen, several of

NEW YORK IS SAVED FROM FLOATING MINE

Fort Totten Squad Rowed Out and Captured the Bomb.

New York, Aug. 20.—There was much excitement the other day at Fort Totten. For two days the rumor had been circulating that an escaped mine was floating through the sound trying to sneak past the fort, and—who knows?—eventually reach the battery and blow the whole city. It was finally decided the mine must be captured at all costs.

It was a dangerous mission, so the sergeant who was given the task of capture called for volunteers. Three men responded. For two hours they rowed around in hot sun.

"There she is," finally yelled the sergeant, who can sing, "Tipperary" better than anyone else at the fort because he hails from there. Sure enough, she was, bobbing up and down in the water—up and down. Cautiously they closed in.

"I knew it," yelled the sergeant. "They even had the nerve to label it."

Across the face of the bobbing thing was a green stamp, which read: "Ein halbes Fass."

The excitement was intense as the sergeant gently pushed it over on its side with an oar.

The whole plot was unearched. The "bomb" was a beer keg, and—empty.

WILL WRITE WAR OPERA.

Venice, Aug. 20.—Giacomo Puccini, the Italian composer, arrived in Venice today from a visit to the front. During his trip he met Gabriele d'Annunzio, the Italian poet, who is serving as a lieutenant in the army. D'Annunzio has agreed to write the libretto of an opera dealing with the Italian war in an Italian style. Puccini will compose the score.

REPORT SHOWS 13,414 STUDENTS ENROLLED

According to the statistical report of D. O. McComb, county superintendent, Allen county had 13,414 pupils enrolled during the school year of 1914-15 a total of 13,414 pupils, including the city schools.

The average daily attendance in the grade schools of the county for the year was 8,890, and for the high school pupils 976. The number of pupils in each grade of the common and high schools was as follows: First year, 2,584; second year, 1,537; third year, 1,490; fourth year, 1,523; fifth year, 1,543; sixth year, 1,348; seventh year, 1,103; eighth year, 887. High school—First year, 487; second year, 301; third year, 264, and fourth year, 288.

There was a total of 6,010 pupils enrolled in the private and parochial schools of the county, 3,233 males and 2,777 females. During the year there were 378 teachers of elementary subjects, 51 teachers of regular high school subjects, 17 principals of elementary schools, 6 high school principals, 13 supervisors and special teachers and 1 superintendent, making a total of 466.

WAR GIVES ZIONIST MOVEMENT IMPETUS

New York, Aug. 20.—Advocates of the plan to hold a Jewish congress to unite those who favor the abolition of Jewish disabilities in Russia and the establishment of a Zionist state in Palestine at the close of the war, were encouraged today by the approval of some Jews of this city expressed at a mass meeting held in Cooper Union. Practically everybody who attended the meeting last night voted in favor of holding the congress. The hall was crowded and hundreds were unable to gain admission. Speakers suggested that the American delegates to the proposed congress should be chosen by vote and delegates to the Zionist states being

MAY REMOVE GOVERNMENT TO MOSCOW

Russians Alarmed by Advance
grad Looks to Old Capital.

and Immense Stores.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Twenty or more persons are believed to have lost their lives when the liner Arabic was sunk by a German submarine yesterday. Among the eight passengers missing are two Americans. The other missing are members of the crew. The government in Washington is withholding comment until definite official information is received as to whether American lives were lost.

Novogeorgievsk, the strong Russian fortress northwest of Warsaw, which the Russians continued to hold after they abandoned the Polish capital, has been taken by the Germans. More than 20,000 men were captured with the fortress and an enormous stock of war material, Berlin announces. Emperor William has left for Novogeorgievsk personally to thank Gen. von Beseler and his troops who took the stronghold.

The Teutonic armies pursuing the Russians eastward, are closing in fast on the fortress of Brest-Litovsk and making progress in nearly all other sectors of the front according to German army headquarters. In the vicinity of Augustowo and Grodno, however, the Russians stopped their retreat and gave battle to the Germans.

A Norwegian mail ship, the Irma, was stopped by a German submarine in Norwegian territorial waters but was driven off by a Norwegian torpedo boat, a dispatch from Christiansia states.

Further progress by the British left wing on the Gallipoli peninsula is reported through the French war office.

Paris declares the German losses in the recent fighting in the Vosges were very heavy. Berlin concedes the loss to the French of a small section of German first line positions at Schartzmannelle and announces the recapture of the trenches taken by the French between Angres and Souchez.

German submarines have sunk the Spanish steamer Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg. London also has received a report that the British steamer New York City, of 2,790 tons, has been sunk.

London, Aug. 20.—As the Austrians and Germans press on to the last of the outlying fortresses standing between the Russian capital and the invaders, Petrograd is discussing the advisability of removing the government to its ancient seat at Moscow, always considered the heart of the nation. Kovno is now definitely in the hands of the Germans. The flanking movement of Field Marshal von Mackensen grows more threatening hourly, and it would not be surprising if Grand Duke Nicholas should abandon all efforts to form a new line with Brest-Litovsk as the pivot.

From Brest-Litovsk to Ossowetz, which seems to be withstanding the assaults of the heavy German guns better than any other fortress, fierce fighting continues with the advantage in favor of the invaders. Petrograd states that the Russian warships protecting the gulf of Riga were compelled to draw in closer, owing to the superiority of the German squadron.

The landing of British troops at Surva bay, Gallipoli peninsula, is regarded here as a partial disappointment. The Turks had concentrated their forces in the Anzac zone, a little to the south, but were able to send troops north in time to prevent any important advance by the landing forces. It is believed here that no formal movement of consequence is likely unless the English are reinforced considerably.

Italy and Turkey appear to be on the brink of a severe rupture. The Italian

til After Burial and She Then Collapses.

New York, Aug. 20.—The body of Leo M. Frank, who was lynched at Marietta, Ga., was buried today in Mount Carmel cemetery, Brooklyn.

The automobile hearse and the car carrying the immediate relatives of the dead man traveled at a high rate of speed over the six-mile route from the home of Frank's parents to the cemetery in a vain attempt to elude newspaper men and photographers.

Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Frank, the widow and Frank's sister, Mrs. Otto Stern, and her husband occupied the automobile that followed the hearse.

A dozen other relatives and friends occupied three additional automobiles. About forty curious persons were in the cemetery when Frank's body arrived and they crowded close to the grave during the service. Perfect order was maintained both at the Frank home and at the cemetery and the police on hand at both places found nothing to do.

Mrs. Lucille Frank, the widow, appeared calm and restrained until the burial service had concluded. Then she collapsed and was carried to an automobile. The services were conducted by Rabbi Alexander Lyons, of Brooklyn, and Rabbi David Marx, of Atlanta.

FORT WAYNE OFFICER ON COURT MARTIAL

Major Clyde Dreisbach to
Be on Board to Try Member of Guard.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—The fifteen officers who are to form the military court to try Edwin C. Ball, a member of the Indiana National Guard who shot Walter Dowell, another guardman, in July, 1914, were named yesterday. The trial was set for September 7 and will be held in the state house.

Ball was doing provost duty in the national guard camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison when the shooting occurred. He arrested Dowell because it was alleged Dowell tried to smuggle liquor into camp. Dowell tried to escape while being taken to camp and Ball shot and fatally wounded him. Ball was arrested and indicted for murder, but it was decided that the civil authorities had no jurisdiction in the case.

The names of the fourteen men to comprise the military court were contained in an order convening a general court-martial issued by Adjutant General Frank L. Bridges upon order of Governor Ralston. The officers who are to form the court are as follows: Col. Henry T. Conde, of Indianapolis, commander of the Second regiment; Lieut.-Col. Thomas B. Coulton, Vincennes; Maj. Spurgeon N. Markley, Columbus City; Maj. Emmett F. Branch, Martinsville; Maj. Clyde F. Dreisbach, Fort Wayne; Maj. George H. Healey, Kennesaw; Capt. Edward P. Otto, Crawfordsville; Capt. William P. Carpenter, Indianapolis; Capt. Albert C. In, Terre Haute; Capt. Ernest E. Chenoweth, Winchester; Capt. John C. Loughner, Auburn; Capt. Laurant A. Dougless, Jeffersonville; Capt. Alexander W. Osborn, Evansville; Maj. Gideon W. Blain, Indianapolis, judge-advocate.

44TH INDIANA TO MEET AT ORLAND

Regiment Reside in
Allen County.

Great preparations are being made for the annual reunion of the Forty-fourth Indiana voluntary infantry of the civil war, to be held at Orland, Ind., on the St. Joe valley line between Lagrange and Angola, on Thursday, August 26.

Several survivors of the regiment reside in this city and vicinity, among them being: Lieutenant Colonel Philip Grund, John N. Kress, Company C; Alexander Ormison, Company C; Jasper Edsall, Company C; Charles Thomas, Company K; W. A. Kelsey, Company E, and Alfred Daugherty. The last named lost his leg at Shiloh.

The Forty-fourth Indiana volunteers were organized in September, 1861, the date of muster into the United States service following shortly after in Fort Wayne. The regiment represented the counties of Whitley, Kosciusko, Allen, Steuben, Elkhart and Lagrange. Colonel Hugh B. Reed was the first commanding officer.

TROPICAL STORM IS SWEEPING THIS WAY

Washington, Aug. 20.—The tropical storm has taken a new lease of life after recurring over east Texas, the weather bureau today reported. "It is central this morning over southeast Missouri, with increased intensity attended by heavy rains and by local high winds."

"The storm will move northeastward, attended by rain from the lake region and Ohio valley eastward tonight and Saturday. There will be also high winds in the Ohio valley and the lake region and storm warnings have been ordered for the lower lakes, Lake Huron and south Lake Michigan."

RABBIT'S FOOT BAD LUCK FOR WILLIE

Old Saying Was Topped
When Johnson is Placed
Under Arrest.

Charleston, S. C. Aug. 20.—The old saying that a rabbit's foot is lucky was torpedoed by the night office force at the police station and one Willie Johnson suffered when a rabbit's foot was heaved into the waste basket. Johnson was arrested on a charge of larceny from a trunk and a suit case and when searched a rabbit's foot was found in his possession.

When Officer Tumbleton brought the rabbit's foot from Johnson's pocket the prisoner's face lit up, and in a tone that could be heard throughout the lobby he said: "Throw dat ting away; dat's what got me in yah now." The police, also, are not much on the luck stuff, and, taking instructions from the prisoner, threw the rabbit's foot into the basket.

Johnson admitted the charge made against him and will go before Recorder Jervey minus the rabbit foot and take his chance with the recorder. He is held for having entered a trunk and a suit case and taking a pistol, a razor, a stickpin and several other articles belonging to E. O'Brien. He was engaged in moving Mr. O'Brien's belongings from Hanover street to Bertha street, when the theft was made.

PICKETT WILL BE HERE.

Poultry Judge at San Francisco Exposition Engaged for Local Show.

The announcement from San Francisco that H. A. Pickett, of Mattoon, Ill., has been chosen to act as judge of the American class of poultry at the Panama-Pacific exposition is especially pleasing to the fanciers of northeastern Indiana and the adjacent portions of Ohio and Michigan because of the fact that Mr. Pickett is coming to Fort Wayne in January to assist in making the local show the biggest thing yet known in poultry circles hereabouts. BIG ENTRY LIST EXPECTED.

Arrangements for Show Being Planned by South Side Poultry Men.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—The Indianapolis South Side Poultry association is making arrangements for 2,000 entries in the poultry show, which will be held on the south side the week of December 13.

The association has increased its membership by taking in all the territory south of Washington street, in Marion county, and any one in the poultry business in Indianapolis or Marion county is eligible for membership in the association, although only those living on the south side can hold office.

C. E. Vawter is secretary of the association. Two meetings are held each month at Morris and Shelby streets when a class is instructed regarding the raising of poultry.

Experiments are being conducted in America with a method for producing disease-free eggs from sewage-contaminated eggs.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED FOR TEACHERS' MEET

Dr. Geisel and Dr. Hollis Will Be the Principal Speakers.

D. O. McComb, superintendent of the schools of Allen county, has announced the program for the county teachers' institute meeting to be held at the High and Manual Training school building from August 30 to September 3. The program is as follows:

New C. Schiefer Shoe Co. Brings Buster Brown Here

Buster Brown and his dog Tige will appear at the Majestic theater Saturday morning, September 4, at 10 a. m., when he will give a free exhibition and distribute souvenirs to the children attending. Also each child will be given one chance on twenty-four prizes which Buster will award.

The children of Fort Wayne will remember him as an old friend who has appeared here on several occasions for their amusement and as a demonstrator of the wonderful Buster Brown shoe, which is sold exclusively by the New C. Schiefer shoe store, 233 West Berry street, Gauntt building.

Buster Brown shoes are without exception the most universally known child's shoe in the United States, and have always given unrivaled wear at a reasonable price. They also have style plus being made over the Buster Brown shaping lasts, which fit the foot along scientific lines and will prove effective against foot trouble in later years. This foot trouble is caused by wearing shoes that are not made to fit the child during the forming period.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Mark 7:24-37.

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

A Ready Lesson for Us

With a property loss of not more than $12,000,000 or $15,000,000, with only a score or so dead and only temporary interruption of business, but with their city to a fair degree intact, the people of Galveston are exhibiting a rather chipper state of mind while they point with praise and thanksgiving to their seawall, that has saved the city from destruction. It cost them a deal of money, but it held fast against the united stress of wind and water. It is the opinion that but for the wall the devastation in Galveston would have been more complete in the recent hurricane than that caused by the prodigious gale of 1900 when the city was laid low and eight thousand of its people destroyed. Fifteen years ago they looked upon their ruined city and realized that they must either rebuild and protect it or abandon its site. They chose the alternative that was wise and heroic. They have just survived an assault of the elements worse than that which once destroyed them. They have now dead to bury and heavy losses to recoup, but their city is safe after coming through stresses as terrible as can be imagined. That this is so is due to their energy and foresight following their first great disaster. Fort Wayne may read herself an immediate and very pressing lesson in Galveston's present experience. A sum less than Fort Wayne's losses in the flood of two years ago will establish boundaries to future floods in this city. A project is at this time afoot to establish those boundaries and prevent a recurrence of the disaster of 1913. There is a modicum of real hostility and a surprising degree of indifference among the body of the people who should be highly interested in the success of the measures now sought to ward this city from devastation by floods in its three rivers. No owner of property in this community ought to hesitate or wait to be solicited to give signature to the petitions now in circulation that the steps may be taken according to law for the establishment of flood-prevention works. Much less should any owner of property be hostile to this project. So surely as neglect to protect the city persists so surely shall payment be required for the stupidity and folly of it.

Sinking of the Arabic

The White Star liner Arabic was torpedoed by a German submarine. So far has been no dispute of the statement that she was sunk without warning. There were Americans aboard the vessel. At least two of them are believed to have been lost.

No answer has as yet been received from Germany to President Wilson's last note, transmitted July 21, in which he declared in these plain terms "that repetition by the commanders of German naval vessels of acts in contravention of those rights of American citizens taking their ship and traveling wherever their legitimate business calls them upon the high seas must be regarded by the government of the United States, when they affect American citizens, as deliberately unfriendly."

As stated, no response has as yet been vouchsafed in words by the government of Germany to the president's note.

Is the sinking of the Arabic the answer?

It is much to be hoped on all accounts that it is not.

The old garbage crematory on Clinton street, about the first of its type to be constructed, will do its work well if it is fed plenty of coal. One of the great objections to it all along has been its enormous consumption of fuel, which greatly increases the cost of garbage destruction. The old incinerator's voracious greed for fuel has long been concealed in guessed at reports on the tonnage of waste destroyed. The people of Fort Wayne not only want no more like it, but they want as soon as possible to get rid of it. That was one of the notions underlying the creation of the garbage plant fund.

That the loss of life in the sinking of the Arabic was not appalling appears to have been due to complete preparation for submarine attack and hurried departure from the vessel and to perfect discipline and heroic work of officers and crew. All accounts agree that the behavior of those in charge of the ship was perfect. Undersea warfare may at least teach marines how to save their passengers under all sorts of meretricious stresses. The Arabic went down eleven minutes after she had been struck.

FIELD CARE OF WHEAT.

(Indianapolis News.)

Frequent rains during the last three or four weeks have caused thousands of dollars of loss to the grain crop in various sections of Indiana. Farmers have been unable to thrash. Wheat has sprouted in the shock. The oats crop, in many places, has been ruined. Even in some localities where the weather has permitted thrashing, wheat has graded low, with most of the trouble traceable to damage after binding. In the case of the wheat crop, at least, these conditions all point to one conclusion—that the shock, at best, is an unreliable means for taking care of the grain during the interim between cutting and thrashing.

Experts have long pointed out this fact. They have gone so far, as a matter of fact, as to prove that the shock not only is unsatisfactory, but expensive as well. Stacking has been urged as a secure and economical substitute, and better in every respect. And they are saying now, as might be expected, that had the stack method of field handling been as commonly employed in Indiana as the shock method the damage this year would have been inconsequential.

Rains that damage grain in shock cause little damage to grain in stack. The farmer feels, of course, that the shock affords the quickest, easiest and most convenient means of handling the grain as it leaves the reaper. In a sense this is true. But in such a season as the one through which we have just passed, the loss in shock may be serious enough to offset all the advantages it seemingly affords, and not for one season only, but for many seasons. In not a few instances, entire neighborhoods have lost all their wheat—a loss sufficient to absorb the profits accruing from the crops of several seasons.

With this year's sorry lesson before him, it will pay the farmer to give some thought and study to the field care of his grain. Even if it requires more time and labor to stack the wheat than to shock it—and the experts contend that it does not—the saving in a single rainy summer would more than make up for the additional expense incurred in half a dozen favorable summers. This, surely, is worth considering. Neither the farmer nor the consumer can afford to support a loss that can be readily avoided by a means as simple as substituting one method of field handling for another.

WAR TAKES WELL FED MEN.

(London World.)

When we come to make up the profit and loss account on the war it is to be hoped that people will not forget to include the very valuable social lessons that we have learned, lessons which, if we can profit from them in peace time, will be of incalculable benefit. There is one which may be overlooked, and which even now is only partially appreciated, so it is perhaps desirable to lay stress on it—it is the proper feeding of the working classes.

This is no recommendation of socialism. It is merely the obvious truth that it pays the manufacturer to see that his workmen are well fed, since thereby even in peace times he gets regularity of attendance and effective discharge of duties. When the best men of the country went to the war there were many people who were surprised at the inefficiency of much of the labor which was left. They denounced its irregularity, its drinking habits, and its indifferent output. They forgot that you cannot take an underfed individual and think that he is going to be ready to take the place of a well fed workman. Both his physical condition and his habits stand in the way. The fact is being slowly brought home to us, with the result that cantine-teens are now springing up in all parts of the country, mostly under government auspices.

PARK SINGING.

(Kansas City Star.)

That "singing in the parks" suggestion, made by some thoughtful women to the park board, ought to catch on at once. It will if the park board gives it a chance.

Vocal soloists and spontaneous choruses along with the band concerts would be something fine. It would have the effect of old time congregational singing in the churches.

For some reason, most of America's public musical expression is done by proxy. But look how choral festivals and popular choruses "take." Suppose there were gathered together all the voices that here and there and everywhere sing everything, from "Chinatown, My Chinatown," to "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and suppose all those voices were let loose in a bunch, with an extra good singer giving the start, wouldn't that be great?

Americans are naturally a musical people, and if Americans who "just growed" here weren't, still there have come here enough Italians and Germans and Russians and sweet singers in Israel to make us so. Anything that gets the people together on a more self-forgetful plane than talking jobs or hired girls or baseball or dresses is fine. These art stunts like singing and dancing folk dances and so on are common with all the European "folks," and it all lends color and zest and a sort of communal and neighborly and national feeling among them that counts a lot in their lives.

Let's have the park band. But let's have the park singing, too, "to beat the band."

GERMAN SCRIPT EASIER TO READ.

Scientist Demonstrates Its Superiority Over the Roman.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Although one of the trump cards of the advocates of the Roman script and print as against the German script and German (Gothic) letters, the reason is that the sharp, legibility of the first named, a German scientist, after a long series of experiments, now announces that the Gothic letter is less tiring to the eye than the Roman.

According to his experiments, an ordinary line of 60-called German letters required on the average 8.17 movements of the eye, against 10.11 for Roman letters. The reason is that "the sharp characteristics" of the former make it possible for a single glance to comprehend more. It is true that it requires 12.6 per cent. less time to read a Roman line, but the Gothic line regularly contains at least 10 per cent. more than the former. The eye, however, making less movements for the Gothic, has more rest and also moves more smoothly, whereas in reading Roman characters "it moves trippingly along."

Christening of "First Baby Zebra" to Be Great Event for Boys and Girls.

MA ZEBRA AND HER BABY.

The largest crowd ever assembled at Central park, New York, is expected on the day "baby zebra" is christened. Elaborate preparations are being made by Bill Snyder, the boss of the big zoo, who is going about as proud as can be. The youngster, who is a finely marked specimen of his race, is as frisky as any young, naughty colt, and "mother" has to keep a watchful eye over him every minute. They are always seen together and even Bill has to be particular how he talks to baby and handles him.

The young zebra doesn't understand why folks are all making a great fuss over him—but the mother knows he is.

FOUND FORTUNE ON RACE TRACK.

Late Henry Steel of England, Began as Bookmaker, Died as Manufacturer.

Sheffield, England, Aug. 20.—Henry Steel, head of the great English steel firm of Steel, Peach and Tozer, who has just died at his home here, was perhaps best known outside trade circles as the man who laid King Edward, then Prince of Wales, $5,000 to a cart against a horse at the Epsom races. The prince lost and paid with a carrot formed of coral mounted in gold. Mr. Steel and his partner, Mr. Peach, formed the greatest firm of bookmakers on the English turf fifty years ago. The fortune which they made on the race track enabled them to enter the iron and steel industry as pioneers in 1875. Mr. Steel died at the age of 83.

WANTS WAR TALES OVER GRAVE.

French Veteran of War of 1870 Leaves Estate to Newer Veteran.

Paris, Aug. 20.—A French soldier fighting in the Argonne has just inherited an estate valued at $40,000 from an eccentric retired army officer who lived in the soldier's native village. The only condition attached to the legacy is that the soldier must from time to time visit the grave of his benefactor and relate there some of his war experiences. The will says: "Being without family, I leave the whole of my fortune to Paul Cambou, former. I desire thus to show my gratitude to him for having for many years listened patiently and with every air of interest to the stories I used to tell of the war of 1870. I trust that he will be spared to return to the village after the present war, and my only request to him is that he come occasionally to my tomb and there relate some of his own war experiences."

PLAN TO HONOR POET RILEY.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20. This city is planning to honor James Whitcomb Riley on October 7, the anniversary of the Hoosier poet's birth. Many of the foremost men and women in American literary and public life will be invited to be present at a banquet which is to be a feature of the day. Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice-president, is chairman of the committee which is arranging the program.

Society

Miss Lois Thom, of Appleton, Wis., who is visiting Miss Pauline Saylor, is receiving considerable social attention and has been honored at a number of pretty parties of which the latest was given by Misses Mildred and Marian Cutting, of West Wayne street, on Friday afternoon. There were but sixteen young girls present and they chatted over their sewing and later enjoyed the lunch with as much zest as if it had been the first entertainment in a month.

Misses Edith and Pearl Banta, of 113 West DeWald street, entertained on Thursday afternoon for their guests, Miss Louise Inks and Miss Mary Longe-decker, of Ligonier, in a delightful manner. A color plan in the flowers, place cards and refreshments was carried out in pink and white in the diningroom and in the livingroom the decoration was red. Covers were laid for fourteen at the luncheon.

Machines displace hand-work, and do the work cleaner and better than human hands could possibly do it.

One machine mixes the dough.

Another cuts out the cakes, three dozens at each stroke of the cutter, and a stroke with every tick of the clock.

A third finishes the cake as it comes from the oven by putting on a layer of creamy marshmallow, a covering of chocolate and a whole walnut meat—and it does it all with one operation.

An indoor picnic was the way Miss Carrie Stiefel characterized an informal but none the less agreeable social affair on Thursday for Mrs. Edward Ginsberg and Miss Lois Thom, both visitors in the city. Miss Ruth Levy assisted the hostess in serving refreshing things to eat and drink.

The B. O. B. girls gave a "weenie" roast at Foster park Monday evening. Those who enjoyed the good time were the Misses Ruth Foster, Luella Jahn, Helen Wilkens, Adeline Agne, Emily Pennington, Mrs. Ralph Cassidy, and the Messrs. George Dornte, William Jahn, Elmer Grieser and Howard Orr. Ralph Cassidy and Harry Briscoe, of Louisville, Ky., were guests of the party.

Mrs. Emil Vorweire Williams entertained a few friends in a most agreeable manner, on Thursday afternoon, the guests being friends of Miss Maude Sites, a librarian in Washington, D. C., who is visiting her parents in West Creighton avenue. Miss Lucille Cumming, of Oklahoma, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. B. Stall, of Washington boulevard west, was another honor guest.

Miss Clara Ross gave a shower party on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Noll who is a prospective bride. Many pretty gifts were bestowed upon Miss Noll and the evening was spent pleasantly in visiting, with music and games. The guests were Flora Weigman, Margaret Ramp, Anna Stewart, Louise Johann, Laura Misner, Ruth, Esther and Marie Noll, Carrie Schroeder, Louise Brown, Lillian Huntine, Edith Miller, Ella Westerman, Elizabeth Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. William Staub.

A merry party that consisted of Misses Gladys Allway, Lillian Lankenau, Anna Huebner, Luella, Gertrude and Irma Lankenau, who were chaperoned by Mrs. C. Lankenau, have just returned from an outing at Sylvan lake. The young women also entertained friends from Kendallville, South Milford and South Bend at house parties. Mrs. D. Lindemann, Miss Dora Brackeford and Ora and Louis Snyder were guests the time of the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne entertained the members of a Sunday school class at their home at 1802 Hale avenue, on Thursday evening, in honor of their son, Doyle Payne, who was celebrating his fourteenth birthday anniversary. A merry evening was spent and the guests had a fine time. They were E. E. Englehart, Herbert Black, Ralph Englehart, Victor Micho, Charles and Molvin Wiebke, Edward Wasson, Ralph Hobbs, John Vetter and Eva Payne. Mrs. John Spoltman invited a number of friends into their new home Thursday evening as a surprise on Mr. Spoltman and in honor of his birthday anniversary. Cards and music furnished the entertainment for the evening. The guests were Mrs. Frank Spoltman, Mrs. Fred Geiser, Mrs. A. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Klotz, Mrs. Edward Rauner, Miss Nora Ahern, Miss Vivian Dutcher, John Christen, Charles Hoosier, H. Telle, R. H. McClellan, O. Wolkovich and W. E. Tierney.

The San Francisco papers gave the following complimentary notices of the singing of Miss Florence I. Lang, of this city, for her programs in the Indiana building at the Panama-Pacific exposition during the month of July. The Examiner says: "Miss Lang has a dramatic soprano voice of unusual range and clarity, and gave each number an artistic interpretation which added a special charm to the music." The Chronicle gave a similar notice and the San Francisco Bulletin commented in this wise: "Miss Lang has a clear soprano voice of unusual range and volume, is artistic in her interpretation and has a charming personality."

Children to Exhibit Work.
The work done by boys and girls who attended the industrial school conducted at the James H. Smart school playground this summer under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher club of that school, is to be exhibited soon at the public library. The work was financed by the parent-teacher club and the children were taught by Miss Sniveley, Mrs. Mary Edson and Miss Ola Marks. The exhibit will consist mainly of basketry, though the girls were also taught crocheting. The exhibit will open on August 30 and will be in the library for two weeks. Some of the mothers of the children grew so interested in the work that they went to the home of Mrs. Edson to take individual lessons.

A Country Party.
A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, two miles north of New Haven, by their daughter, Miss Alma Miller, to honor two birth anniversaries in the family. Mrs. Miller and son George were the ones whose birthday anniversaries were noted by the surprise. The entire company spent a pleasant time with games of various kinds. A fine dinner had been prepared by Miss Miller and everything passed off splendidly. Those present were Mrs. A. Haezel, of New Haven; Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald and granddaughters, Ellen Wolfe and Alice Luley, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haezel and children, of Leland; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Heath and daughter Erma and granddaughter, of Thurman; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Miller and daughter Virginia, of Chamberlain; Mr. and Mrs. Max Vanderaue and daughter Alma, of Goeglein; Messrs. AT THE MAJESTIC.

"The Charming Widows" Starting Tonight.

The big production, "The Charming Widows," which is a merry mixture of musical comedy, burlesque, extravaganza and vaudeville, and which is presented by some of the best known players in these fields of dramatic endeavor, will come to the Majestic theater on Friday. The engagement is for two nights, with matinee Saturday. The show is resplendent in new scenery, costumes and electrical effects and the company numbers thirty-five people, twenty of them being in the chorus. Eddie Dale, the popular German comedian; Sam Carlton, Hebrew comedian; Pauline Palmer, Helen Stanley, Jimmy Cooper, Ada Lum, Harry Peterson and Hugh Skelly have the leading roles. Enjoyable singing and dancing numbers and vaudeville acts will be introduced. "Sita," a Hindu dramatic divertissement, in which Mile. Simone De Boryl is featured in a thrilling, sensational dance, is an added attraction.

AT THE EMPRESS

Charley Chaplin and Speedway Pictures at the Empress Today and Saturday.

Starting today the attraction at the Empress theater will be the Chaplin carnival of movies and as an extra added attraction we will get our first view of the new Chicago speedway, with the sensations which marked the great race over the new course on July 5th.

All of the pictures in the "Chaplin carnival" was produced by the popular comedian for the purpose of being presented in all of the leading theaters in the country in the same manner as the traveling shows. They were first offered at the LaSalle theater, in Chicago, on July 5th, and were reviewed by the press of that city as the best laughing show of the season. In every city where they have been offered the theaters have been tested to their actual capacity and it might be well to remind Empress patrons to come early and avoid the rush as the bookings of the Chaplin carnival is limited to two days only for this city.

CHOOCEETA WITH CABARET GIRLS AT EMPRESS.

Chooceeta, the greatest of all oriental dancers, will positively appear at every performance at the Empress theater next week, when Kelly and Damsel's Cabaret Girls start a four days' engagement, and if past performances count, why you can't go wrong by attending a performance of this well-known attraction. Kelly and Damsel, who for a number of seasons have been leading lights both as performers and producers in this particular line of amusement, are responsible for the burlesques entitled, "The Mayor's Vacation" and the "Cabaret Girls at Home," and from the rise of the curtain on the first part to the closing number of the burlesque a thoroughly delightful and amusing entertainment is given. The cast is made up of a number of well-known performers, including Mike Kelly, Frank Damsel, Joe Rose, Frances Farr, Mina Schall, Jason and Dawson, and the Three Livingstons. A chorus of twenty handsome and shapely girls look after the musical interpolations.

Four Days of Burlesque at the Empress Next Week.

There is always one best in everything, so if you are anxious to see burlesque's one best bet, the show that sets the pace for first honors, don't fail to attend a performance of Kelly and Damsel's "Cabaret Girls" at the Empress theater next week for the first four days.

The "Cabaret Girls" make a distinct advance in the ideas of present day burlesque and from a scenic and costume point of view stands alone as a real production of merit. Headed by Mike Kelly, Frank Damsel and Joe Rose, three performers who have gained renown from coast to coast as entertainers of exceptional ability. The cast also includes such well known burlesque celebrities as Francis Farr, the dainty and petit soubrette; Mina Schall, the ever fascinating and sharply prima donna; Dawson and Dawson, vaudeville's greatest exponents of dancing, and the Livingston family, world's greatest acrobats. A chorus of thirty of the handsomest girls in the show business will look after the different musical numbers.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

THE SINOUS THEDA BARA

Creates Compelling Leading Role in "Lady Audley's Secret," Powerful Drama Seen at Jefferson.

Theda Bara, the Parisian emotional artist, who formerly awayed and thrilled patrons of the Theater Antoine in the French capital with her bizarre, sensational style of acting, makes her fifth appearance in a "made in America" photoplay at the Jefferson today, creating the unconventional leading role in a Fox Film Corporation picture of the celebrated novel, "Lady Audley's Secret." Mme. Bara, whose depictions of the "savage types" in screen plays have been startlingly unique, and have aroused a furor of discussion among patrons of the vaudeville drama in this country, is positively given her greatest acting opportunities in this compelling drama, and she acts in a way that fairly sweeps her audiences off their seats, as the saying goes.

In addition to "Lady Audley's Secret," the customary allotment of Paramount Travel views will be shown, and on the morrow a four-part Mutual masterpiece, "The Mating," will be given in collaboration with "The Romance of Elaine" and a Keystone comedy.

AT THE NEW PALACE

A MAGNIFICENT DRAMA.

Mrs. Leslie Carter in "Du Barry" at Palace—Chaplin Tomorrow.

The film adaptation of "Du Barry" with Mrs. Leslie Carter in the principal role is a screen drama of the same magnificent proportions that established the reputation of its producer, George Kleine, which he earned with his "Quo Vadis" and "Julius Caesar." Mrs. Carter, who created the role of Jeannette

Du Barry in the original American stage production of this drama, wears some of the most exquisite gowns that ever brought the green to the eyes of the women folks. The creation in which she appears in the famous court scene is a Worth, costing $1,500, the most elaborate costume ever seen in moving pictures. "Du Barry" will be at the New Palace today only.

Chaplin Tomorrow.
Charlie Chaplin, whose name has come to be synonymous with fun in the American mind, will be one of the New Palace's week-end offerings. This famous farceur will be enjoyed in five reels of laughs, including his comedies, "The Knockout," "His Prehistoric Past" and "The Gentleman of Nerve." But Chaplin isn't all for Saturday. Miss Emily Stevens in the title role of the unusual drama, "Cora," will also be on the bill. The story of "Cora" deals with the struggle of a young girl against poverty in her rise to prominence in the operatic world. Miss Stevens last was seen as the star in the sensational play, "Today."

The New Palace will be closed for two weeks to give the management time to prepare the great theater for the opening of the big time Keith vaudeville season on Labor day.

SIX MONTHS ALIVE AND NOTHING DOING

Federal Trade Commission
Merely a Listening and Dining Body.

(By Gilson Gardner.)

Washington, Aug. 29.—The federal trade commission has been in existence six months without having entered a single order for the correction of any unfair business practice. Which indicates one of two things. Either business is much more virtuous than it used to be, or the federal trade commission is doing something different from what was expected by its promoters.

The trade commission's purpose, according to law, is to inquire into price discriminations, monopolistic combinations, tying contracts, interlocking directorates, spying, or any form of economic bludgeoning by one firm or individual against another. When such practices are discovered the commission has the power under the law to order them discontinued, and if the order is not obeyed at once to institute a suit in the circuit court to compel obedience. The commission is theoretically an instrument to make effective all the provisions of the anti-trust law and its amendment, the Clayton bill—which amendment, by the way, has added a valuable set of teeth to the old Sherman act.

Hundreds of Complaints.

The mails have brought the trade commission hundreds of complaints, but so far the commission has done nothing with them but to file and sort them. Many are put aside as communications from cranks; others are discarded as showing difficulties in business inherent in bad business practices, and others are regarded as complaints which have no legal remedy under any act, while others are filed for future reference. The headquarters of the commission here in Washington have been left to a small clerical force, while the commission itself is junketing over the country accepting the hospitality of many chambers of commerce in many cities. Beginning many weeks ago, the commission started on a see-America tour, including the following cities: Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Spokane, North Yakima, Seattle, Tacoma, San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles.

Holds Many Hearings.

At various places the commission has conducted what it termed "hearings." At these certain invited business men representing large interests, present arguments and pleas for permission to do certain things. Generally these things are what in the past have been regarded as bordering closely on violations of the Sherman law. They want, for instance, to combine and maintain prices on the plea that such combination will assist them in securing foreign trade. The lumber men of Chicago presented pleas of this sort and some arguments to the effect that they are not a trust, as has been intimated by the bureau of corporations in the three-volume report of that body.

Listening and Dining.

Up to date the commission has been merely a listening and a dining body. It has not acted on the pleas of these prominent business men, neither refusing nor permitting them to do what they want to do. Under the law it is

Thin Folks Who Would Increase Weight

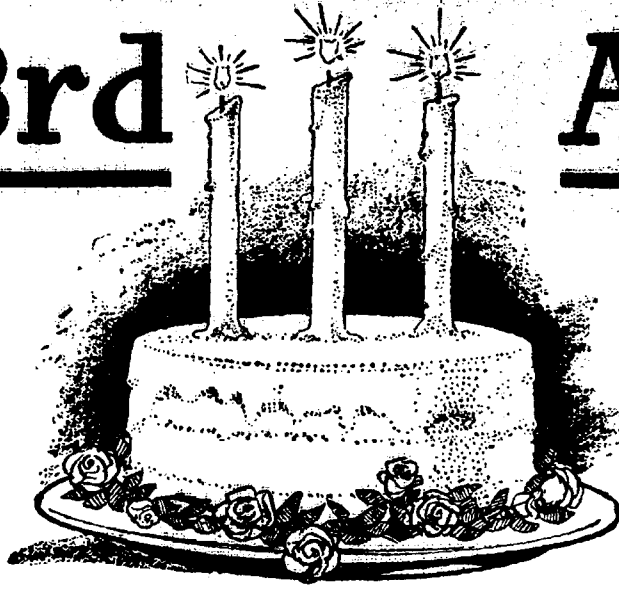

SIMPLE DIRECTIONS EASY TO FOLLOW.

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What because of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. This material was there, but your food doesn't work and etic, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

If every day you've tried to put on weight has failed try these simple directions. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating and eat with every one of these a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note your weight. Sargol does not of itself make fat but mixing with your food its purpose is to help the digestive organs turn the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe, producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepare it in an easily assimilated form, which the blood can readily accept. A great deal of this nourishment now passes from thin people's bodies as waste. Sargol is designed to stop the waste and make the fat-producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is non-injurious, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Myers Bros. Drug Co., Drexler Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, Family Drug Store and other leading druggists are authorized to sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Tomorrow 3rd Anniversary

In accordance with my annual custom I make ANNIVERSARY DAY the occasion for my OPENING DISPLAY of FALL APPAREL.

EVERY MAN In Fort Wayne is invited TOMORROW to my formal FALL OPENING of MEN'S and YOUNG MEN'S "JUST RIGHT" SUITS and OVERCOATS at $10, $15 and $20.

When I opened this store three years ago I knew I had a hard fight ahead of me. Fort Wayne wasn't waiting for me. This city had plenty of clothing stores. So to establish a following and win the confidence of the buying public I decided to sell the BEST CLOTHES ever offered at $10, $15 and $20. I nailed these three prices to my standard and season in and season out, whether the whole town is filled with Sales you'll find the BEST CLOTHES IN FORT WAYNE at THEODORE J. ISRAEL'S for $10, $15 and $20. You pay the SAME PRICE as your Neighbor because your money is just as good to me as his, and he pays NOT A CENT MORE than you do because I like his money just as well as yours.

I have the SINGLE STANDARD of MORAL DEALING—I don't juggle prices—I hold no sales—I make it my business to offer UNUSUAL VALUES at ALL TIMES and what you get at an occasional "SALE" elsewhere you can get here AT ANY TIME.

I believe Fort Wayne wants this kind of a clothing store. And if you want to spend your money with a merchant who won't take it unless he can give you your money's worth, give me a chance to make you my customer.

Blessings on thee, Mary Ann.

BY CHARLES B. DRISCOLL.

—Summer Girl with cheeks of tan! Gobs of powder on thy nose, flaming stripes around thy nose, and thy hair all out of curl, blessings on thee, Summer Girl! Still, thy skirts have shorter grown, more and more thy grace is shown, shorter grow thy sleeves each year, lower still thy neck, I fear. Summer furs and rakish lid, shoes that make thee slide and skid, neckband loose and waistband tight, thou art still a daisy girl! Though thy clothes eccentric be, Summer Girl, we fall for thee! Take thy walk upon the strand, tiny suitcase in thy hand, all thy native beauty shows, spite of those outlandish clothes, and the idlers on the beach cannot help but sigh, "The peach!"

WHERE GERMANY STOOD STRONG.

Chinese Took Notion from Name That Deutschland Means Virtue.

Peking, Aug. 20.—Britishers in China, whose interests have been seriously affected by the publicity campaign of their German adversaries here, are endeavoring to counteract the effect. The Rev. W. E. Soothill, formerly the head of the Tai Yuen Fu university, has written a paper in the Chinese language (in which he has a reputation as a scholar) explaining the war from the British point of view.

In the document, which is being circulated throughout China, he says that hitherto Germany has possessed a distinct advantage here because of the Chinese name for that country—Ta Te

Kuo' or Great Virtue Nation. The name conveys the idea to the ordinary man, the writer states, that Germany is distinguished above all other nations for its Te (virtue). The names applying to England and France are respectively Ta Ying Kuo (Great Brave Nation) and Ta Fa Kuo (Great Law Nation); and it is interesting to note that applying to America is Ta Mei Kuo (Great Beautiful Nation).

BANK CLERKS HAVE SPORT FIELD IN AIR

Oakland, Cal., Bank Has a Roof Garden for Benefit of Its Men.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 20.—To add figures properly, a man must act properly. The ideal bank clerk must mix recreation with his statistics.

Baseball, in moderation, is first aid to calculation of interest.

An hour on a roof garden makes several hours of more efficient service.

These are facts discovered by officers of the Oakland Bank of Savings. They constitute the reason for Oakland's aerial playground.

Oakland has a roof garden and athletic field several hundred feet in the air and right in the heart of the city. It can't be seen from below—the battlements of a high back building hide it—and one can't even hear, from the rumbling streets, the sounds of merriment that accompany baseball games or target practice high in the air.

Only a few bank clerks know of the aerial playground—for it's theirs, and no outsiders are allowed to participate in their sports on the roof. They dine there, a little cafe being situated at one of the corners of the playground, and a long shooting gallery is another attraction. Overhead baseball is another feature of the place.

The novel aerial playground is situated in the top of the Oakland Bank of Savings building. It is owned and supported by a bank clerks' club.

When the noon hour comes the clerks and officers take the elevator, rise nine floors and climb a short flight of stairs—and Oakland has disappeared. They are no longer in the city. All they can see is the blue sky. Dimly they can hear the crash of the streets—but all they see is four walls like garden walls, their rustic wifs, and the galleries and baseball diamond.

They usually enjoy a ball game or a little target practice and when the noon hour is over return to their duties refreshed and with increased efficiency.

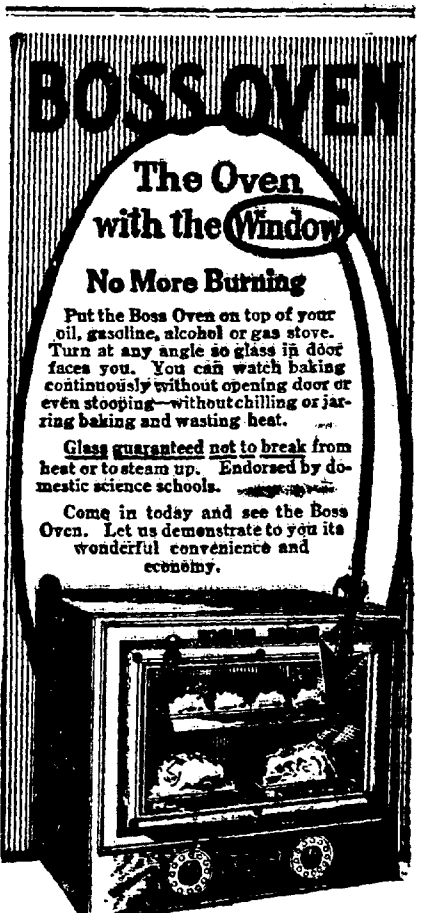

CUBA FEELS UNIVERSAL FEVER.

Island Republic Wants National Militia as Second Line of Defense.

Havana, Cuba, Aug. 20.—Tentative plans are in process of formation by Colonel Jose Marti, chief of the general staff of the Cuban army, for the creation of a national militia as a second line of defense in the event of war. All Cuban citizens of military age, of good repute and capable of passing the regular medical examination, are eligible for enlistment and the organization equipment and arming of the force will be uniform with the regular army. Officers and men will be required to attend drills twice a week and their arms will be kept in the barracks of the regulars to be issued only for drills or when the militia is called into active service. No estimate has been made as to the probable strength of the force that can be raised. No limitation is placed on the equipment and it is believed that the service will prove very popular in Havana and the other principal cities.

Lumber which is pickled a few days in a 1-to-100 solution of corrosive sublimate is greatly strengthened in resistance to decay. The process is known as kyanizing, the invention in 1832 of John Kyan, of England.

The department of agriculture recently announced that it had been demonstrated that fiber flax equal to the best European can be successfully grown in the United States.

THE SENTINEL'S LIVE SPORTS CRISP RELIABLE

CUBS AND TERRIERS IN EVEN BREAK

Second Has a Great Finish When Ostermeyer and Osborne Hit in Scores.

It's the funniest thing in the world that every time Red Hart gets into the box Fort Wayne's Cubs look like a gang of back yard beginners behind him. He gets absolutely no support, and is up against a proposition that will win for no one. It seems that our own hopefuls can't get together with Hart in the box, and the result is that he has to plug through the stuff alone. The same was the case in yesterday's first game, while in the second the boys got together and played clockwork ball behind reliable Red Ainsworth, and by winning yesterday's game the pink-haired peach establishes himself firmly as leading finger of the Central league.

The first game was more or less of a farce, for both Hart and Gilbert were hit hard and often, although the Terriers were under nearly everything that was lofted from Hart's delivery. The Cubs pulled down a greater number of hits than did their opponents, but the wallpops were not correctly grouped. In only one inning, the seventh, did the Terrier boss loosen up, and then the locals grabbed off three runs. Beyers doubled and came home when Hyatt and Osborne singled. Hart following with a single that loaded the bases. Hartle popped out and Brant and Sheehan singled in another pair.

In the second game Fort Wayne fans saw one of the best little exhibitions ever pulled off here, with a finish of a kind that rarely exists except on winter nights around the stove.

The game went hitless four innings, when the Terriers got one and the next one came in the sixth when Griesele doubled with two gone and was brought home on O'Day's double. In the final inning when it looked mighty blue, Bratchi drew a walk, and when Brubaker and Beyers went out easily the crowd began to move toward the exits. Ostermeyer went into pinch hit, and it was right here the chorus of bingles commenced. He slapped out a bird to the right field fence, it coming so close to the top that O'Day nearly gave it up. O'Day might have made it to third but he was wise and remained put on second, for the score had been tied when Bratchi came all the way home from first on his wallpop. Then Arch Osborne got in with the stick and singled Ostermeyer home.

Ostermeyer earned that game yesterday, and his little turn before the lights in that last inning should help him to big things next season. Score

LITTLE GIRL MAKES NEW TANK RECORD—SENTINEL READERS KNOW HER.

Mabel Donaldson, Who Has Splashed Into Champion Swimming Class. Evanston, Ill., Aug. 20.—The west has a new tank record.

Annette Kellerman has a new rival.

And it's Mabel Donaldson, the little girl who posed for swimming lessons last summer to girl and boy readers of The Sentinel, who has captured the record for the forty-yard dash with breast stroke.

Mabel, who is only 11, and not very big at that, made the 40 yards in 39 1-5, clipping four-fifths of a second from the best previous western woman's record.

The record breaking race was one of the events in the Northwestern university summer swimming class exhibition. One hundred boys and girls, all under 15, took part.

Mabel also won the diving and fancy stroke event, and she made a good showing in the girls' and boys' relay race, which was won by the girls.

The little water "champ" is said to be one of the best swimmers of her age in the country. She's expert in all the well known strokes. She's strong for so small a girl and she's fearless in the water.

The swimming lessons she posed for last summer taught hundreds of girls and boys to swim. Mabel is the daughter of James W. Donaldson, of Evanston, Ill., a former champion swimmer in Scotland.

FINIS.

Saturday ends the Central league baseball season here, and in addition to the field meet that will precede the game, it will be Bude Myers' special day. Get together, fellows, and show Bude you're with him; turn out, fans, and give the Central one last good kick-off in Fort Wayne.

FOUND GUILTY OF DASTARDLY CRIME

William Imel Bound Over to Circuit Court on Serious Charge.

William Imel, aged forty years, proprietor of a grocery store on Parnell avenue, was found guilty in the city court Friday morning on the evidence submitted on a charge of assault and battery on eleven-year-old Irene Shaver, daughter of Henry Shaver, 2509 Parnell avenue. Judge Herr bound him over to the Allen county circuit court under a $1,000 bond.

The assault is said to have been committed nearly a month ago when the little girl was sent to the store for a spoon of thread. Chief of Police Charles Lenz and Detective Sergeant Walter Immel testified that Imel had confessed the crime to them. According to his own story the girl asked him to weigh her, which he did. While she was standing on the scales he put one arm about her and kissed her. He then carried her back of the counter where he committed the felony act.

Other City Court Cases.

Lizzie Guebard, of South Barr street, who has been in police court before, was picked up Thursday afternoon drunk. She begged the judge to leave her, stating that she would never touch a drop of whiskey again. Her case was continued indefinitely.

John Steiner and Albert James, 10-locks, who could not speak or understand English, appeared in the court on charges of riding their bicycles without lights. Through the interpreter they were told to equip their wheels with lights and they were allowed to go.

A. P. Coffey, who has had everybody guessing around the police station and in the county jail as to whether he is deaf, dumb and blind, or whether he is only playing the game, was brought before the judge and his case was continued until September 9, the bond remaining at $1,000.

Abel Blouidoux was allowed to go, as were Harry J. Gore and Harry Reffelt.

THIEF ALS OA FORGER.

Harry Quick, who was arrested with John Ferguson for the theft of a 1900 automobile from Elwood avenue, was also wanted by the police of that city on a charge of check forgery. The two men were taken back to that city Wednesday evening. It is said that Quick's father is one of the prominent bankers in Indianapolis.

A horse hitched to a delivery wagon had a very narrow escape from serious injury Thursday afternoon when a lid on a man hole on Calhoun street, in front of the Old National bank, tipped up. All that saved the horse from falling in was the cork on his shoe. The horse's one leg was badly scratched. The police notified the board of works.

HAS HORSE STOLEN.

Clyde H. Kramer, a rural route carrier, of Geneva, called the police station Thursday evening and notified them that they should hold a horse which was stolen from him and which he was sure was in Fort Wayne. He gave a description of the animal and the police are on the lookout.

Rockefeller Aids Find Cancer Bar

They Declare It Will Insure Immunity Against Dread Disease.

New York, Aug. 20.—Announcement has just been made of another remarkable discovery by the Rockefeller Institute—a discovery whereby immunity from cancer, it is hoped, may be procured.

To Drs. James B. Murphy and John J. Morton, investigators of the Institute, belongs the credit of the discovery. For more than two years they have been working out their theories. Their results have just been announced through the Academy of Science at Washington.

Although at present no promise of cure is held out to victims of cancer as a result of the discovery, yet it is hoped in time further researches will lead to discoveries through which cures will be made.

Up to the present time the experiments have been confined to mice, and in every instance they have been amazingly successful.

whom remained at their posts to the last to insure the safety of the passengers and probably sacrificed their lives. Other survivors say that the torpedo which rent the Arabic's hull killed outright several men in the boiler room.

The torpedo struck on the starboard side, about one hundred feet from the stern, near the location of the boiler rooms.

England Deeply Stirred.

The torpedoing of the Arabic has stirred England from end to end, although on account of the comparatively small loss of life public feeling does not show signs of running as high as in the days following the sinking of the Lusitania. That such a large proportion of the passengers and crew should have been saved in the short time available for the work of rescue is regarded as better fortune than might have been expected under the circumstances. Apparently it was due to the coolness and courage of the officers and crew, from Captain Finch, who remained at his post until just before the Arabic's final plunge, down to the firemen, who faced certain death to perform their duty. Fine weather and a calm sea also contributed to the outcome.

Survivors Well Cared For.

In Queenstown everything possible was done today to assist the survivors, many of whom were without clothing or money. As in the case of the Lusitania disaster, the citizens of Queenstown came to the assistance of the sufferers and none went without clothing, food and shelter. A number of the survivors are suffering from minor injuries, but so far as known none is in a serious condition. With the main facts of the disaster established, the English public turned its attention to the possible effect upon relations between the United States and Germany. Definite word whether American lives had been lost was awaited with more eagerness than any other detail of the Arabic's story yet to be told.

DETAILS OF THE SINKING.Captain Finch of the Arabic Tells How His Ship Was Destroyed.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—Captain Finch of the Arabic gave the Associated Press a detailed account of the loss of the liner.

"We were forty-seven miles south of Galleyhead at 9:30 o'clock this morning," he said, "when I perceived the steamer Dunsley in difficulty. Going towards her I observed a torpedo coming for my ship, but could not discern a submarine. The torpedo struck one hundred feet from the stern, making terrible havoc of the hull. The vessel began to settle immediately and sank in about eight minutes."

"My order from the bridge about getting the boats launched was promptly obeyed. Two boats capsized. We had taken every precaution while in the danger zone. There were plenty of life-belts on deck and the boats were ready for immediate launching. The officers and crew all behaved excellently and did everything possible in the circumstances, getting people into the boats and picking up those in the sea."

"It was the task to leave making the plunge into the sea as the ship was going down. After being in the water some time I got aboard a raft to which I also assisted two men and women."

Captain Finch paid special tribute to the heroic conduct of several engineers and firemen who remained at their posts to the last and sacrificed their lives to execute orders from the bridge, thus insuring the safety of the passengers. Among those lost was the captain's nephew.

The Arabic's commander spoke appreciatively of the passengers and crew aboard the rescuing vessels and likewise of the arrangements made for their comfort at Queenstown. His chief regret was that he was not able to save the lives of everyone on board.

"I had been given a little more time by the submarine," he said regretfully, "I am satisfied I could have saved everybody."

SHOWS TWENTY MISSING.

List is Given Out by the White Star Officers in New York.

New York, Aug. 20.—The White Star line today gave out a list of twenty Arabic passengers who had not been accounted for in advices received at the line's local office. The list was made up from names received late last night, as no direct word from England had been received by the local office between 1:30 a. m. and noon today. The last press dispatches from London today, received several hours after the White Star advices, stated that all but eight of the Arabic's passengers had been landed at Queenstown. The list given out by the White Star line included the names of James Houlahan and Thomas Elmore, Americans, who, according to state department advices received at Washington, are among the saved.

The White Star list follows: Brugiere, Mrs. Josephine L. Houlahan, James. Wood, Edward L. Bollivant, Wm. English, Miss Mary. Fitzgerald, Patrick. Semmiller, L. Melia, Miss Ellen. Mills, Miss Maria. Neave, Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Tattersall, Miss Irene. Third class: Elmore, Thomas. Hermans, Mrs. L. Harrington, Mary. McMahon, Thomas. Radington, Mary. Sullivan, Cornelius. Sullivan, Florence.

It was reported at the White Star line office that relatives of Mrs. Josephine L. Brugiere had received a cablegram from her son, Louis Brugiere, saying his mother had been lost. Mr. Brugiere was accompanying his mother and all lists so far published report him saved. Officials at the office, however, said they had heard nothing definite regarding the reported message.

POSITIVELY MISSING.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Josephine Brugiere and Dr. Edmund F. Wood are the two American passengers on the Arabic definitely ascertained to be missing. Tugs are at the scene of the disaster searching for the bodies of victims.

public expects war, which would give their army and navy an opportunity to co-operate with the allies in the Dardanelles movement.

On the western front the French now hold the cross roads between Lenz and Arras, which, when in possession of the Germans, formed a wedge in the allied line.

GERMANS TAKE NOVOGEORGIEVSK.

Great Fortress Falls and 20,000 Prisoners Are Taken.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Official announcement was made here today of the capture of the important Russian fortress of Novogeorgievsk with more than 20,000 men.

The statement follows:

"The fortress of Novogeorgievsk, the enemy's last bulwark in Poland, has been captured after stubborn resistance. The entire garrison, including 20,000 men and an enormous amount of war material, fell into our hands."

"The emperor left for Novogeorgievsk in order to give the thanks of himself and the fatherland to the leader of the attack, Gen. von Beseler, and his troops."

Capture Is Foreseen.

The capture of Novogeorgievsk had been foreseen since the fall of Warsaw. When the general Russian retreat was made from the Warsaw salient Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, elected to leave a garrison in the fortress rather than evacuate this position, as it was recognized that the only question was how long the defenders would be able to hold out.

The grand duke's decision apparently was due to the strategic position of the fortress. So long as the Russians retained it they were able to stop communication on the Vistula river. Novogeorgievsk is nineteen miles northwest of Warsaw, and is situated at the junction of the Vistula, Narew and Wilza rivers. On account of its position it was described by an Associated Press representative, who visited it yesterday, as a second Vicksburg.

For nearly two weeks the fortress had been completely invested by the Germans, and several of the outlying forts were captured earlier this week. Novogeorgievsk was strongly defended and was said to have been equipped with sufficient ammunition and food supplies for a long period. Its speedy capture doubtless represents another triumph for the great German and Austrian siege guns. Pieces of the heaviest caliber were brought up for the attack. The usual daily statement from German army headquarters which was issued today several hours after the special bulletin announcing the fall of Novogeorgievsk says that the complete garrison at that fortress consisted of 25,000 men. Of course the statement adds, more than 20,000 were captured in yesterday's battle alone.

The earlier bulletin stated that the entire garrison was captured by the Germans. It is not clear however, whether a considerable part of the total of 25,000 escaped.

FRENCH REPORT OF OPERATIONS.

Paris, Aug. 20.—The French war office gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads:

"There has been continued activity on the part of our artillery along the banks of the Oise, to the north of the Aisne, in the Champagne district and along the front at La Seille."

"In the Argonne there has been fighting with mines in the region of Vienne-le-Chateau and fighting at close range with bombs and hand grenades in the sector of St. Hubert and near Marie Therese."

"On the heights of the Linge and of Schatzmannelle, the German losses have been very heavy. We found a large number of dead German soldiers in the trenches, 250 yards long, which we occupied."

"The French war office today gave out a report on the situation on the southern zone there is nothing to report, with the exception of engagements between patrols and artillery exchanges."

"In the northern zone, the British left wing has made some progress in the plain of Anafarta."

AWFUL MISERY IN POLAND.

Berlin, Aug. 19.—(Via London, Aug. 20.)—The continued advance of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops on the 18th in the movement to encircle Brest-Litovsk is described by the correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung at Austrian press headquarters. The desperate resistance of the Russians was broken at many points and they were forced to retire to prepared defenses in the immediate vicinity of the fortress.

The Russian retreat from Poland is reported to be attended by unprecedented and indescribable misery among the civil population. German officers are reviving to headquarters report thousands upon thousands of Poles returning in utter want to destroyed villages. Thousands of wagons and refugees block the roads from the Vistula to the Big, mothers with children vainly seeking food.

WHAT BULGARIA IS OFFERED.

Rome, Aug. 19.—(Via Paris, Aug. 20.)—The entente powers, according to a positive statement made by the Sofia correspondent of the Giornale d'Italia, have offered to Bulgaria that part of Macedonia given to her by the Serbo-Bulgarian treaty of 1912, with the right of immediate occupation. The controversy over the part of Macedonia contested by Serbia and the cause of the second Balkan war will be settled after the present war ends.

Proportionate compensation is to be given to Serbia including the city of Kavalas with the districts of Kavalas and Sereva, with the right of immediate occupation. Bulgaria on her side renounces forever pretensions to Saloniki, Videna and Uakub. She promises also to declare war immediately upon Turkey aided by funds of the four allies. Bulgaria, the correspondent declares, will receive further territorial concessions in Turkey.

It is believed that Serbia and Greece will give way under pressure by the entente powers, but negotiations will be lengthened by the reluctance of the king of Greece to consent to any cession of territory.

GHASTLY FIND

body lay as it had fallen, the skull fractured and the neck broken, the head jammed against the lower step and the feet extending into the collar.

Was An Accident.

The police responded to the call within a few minutes after the body was discovered, and found absolutely no evidence of foul play. Mrs. Mulford had been suffering from a slight paralytic affection for nearly a month, and it is probable that she was overcome at the top of the step. However, she may have stepped into the stair way in the dark, believing that she was in a pantry. The cellar is dark, and even in the light of morning the steps were not distinguishable without artificial light.

Had Sum of Money.

In a pocketbook beside the body the police discovered what at first appeared to be only about six dollars, but a further search of the little handbag disclosed a carefully concealed portion in which nearly one hundred dollars in bills were secreted.

The pocketbook had not been opened, and this with other circumstances connected with the finding indicate to the police that there was no foul play.

Coroner Kruse ordered the body removed to the Scheumann undertaking establishment and an inquest will be held Friday afternoon.

Was Long Search.

Shortly before midnight, when Mrs. Mulford had not returned to her home, relatives notified the police and said that she was looking for a house on Fairfield avenue and asked that they aid in a search. There are many vacant houses on the street and the police went through them hunting a trace of her until daylight. Mrs. Thomas, 129 East Washington street, and Mrs. Hammond, 3425 South Webster street, started at daylight to look for houses in other sections of the city. They found several places where the man had been early in the afternoon, but it was not until they asked at the Quince house that they received information that led to the finding.

Mrs. Quince in discussing the case said that Mrs. Mulford, whom she did not know, had asked her for the key to the house at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening, and that she thought no more of it until after 6 o'clock when the key was not returned. She then sent her son to see whether the prospective renter still was in the building, and he returned saying that he had not found her. The accident probably had occurred but a moment before he entered the house. Had the woman been coming to the young man undoubtedly would have heard her. A Syrian woman who lives but a short distance away says that she heard a scream a short time before the police arrived Friday morning, but it is thought that it probably was one of the sisters of the dead woman when she discovered the body.

Mrs. Mulford was 58 years old and resided in the Haller house at 336 Madison street. Three sons—Ray, of Duluth; Walter, of Tippecanoe, and Harold, of this city, and one daughter, Hazel, of Duluth, survive. The children from Duluth are here now on a visit.

IN FIERCE CAMPAIGN

The Hofarth Shipping company, of Glasgow. The Baron Erskine sailed from New Orleans July 28 for Avonmouth. The Swansea Leader reports that the British steamship, New York City, has been sunk. The crew of the vessel has been saved.

The Spanish steamer Perla Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg have been sunk by a submarine. Three members of the crew of the Perla Castillo were saved. The fate of the others on that craft and of those on the Sverresborg is unknown.

TWO MORE ARE SUNK.

London, Aug. 20.—The British steamships Samara, of Glasgow, and Gladia, of Liverpool, have been sunk.

CREW IS LANDED.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—The captain and crew of fifty-three of the steamship New York City were landed here today. The vessel was sunk by a torpedo yesterday.

CHASED U-BOAT AWAY.

Christiansburg, Norway, Aug. 20.—A German submarine stalked the Norwegian mail steamer Irma within Norwegian territory yesterday, but the timely appearance of a Norwegian torpedo boat on the scene prevented further interference with the mail ship.

The Irma was on her way from Newcastle, England, to Stavanger, Norway, when a little to the north of Jaetersund the submarine hailed her with shots across her bow. The Irma's skipper swung out his boats, but the Norwegian torpedo craft, attracted by the shots, steamed quickly to the spot, warned the submarine that she was in Norwegian waters and ordered her to leave. The submarine thereupon retired.

review, they are thinking about these points:

Whether any Americans have been lost and whether the Arabic actually was torpedoed without warning.

Whether the Arabic, by having been conveyed on the beginning of her voyage under international law, partakes of the character of her conveyance and waived her rights as a non-combatant.

Whether proceeding to the vicinity of the steamer Dunsley, which had just previously been torpedoed, the Arabic commander introduced any qualifying circumstances by violating the rule of the British admiralty, which forbids one ship to risk itself by attempting to assist another that has been torpedoed.

A view prevailed that an attempt by the Arabic to assist those on another torpedoed ship was justified and was not affected by the British admiralty rule, which was made a matter of policy for warships and was not a matter of international right. Whether the Arabic's movement toward the Dunsley might be interpreted as an attempt to ram the submarine is another point to be developed.

Secretary Lansing refused to discuss these or any other features of the case. Dependence will be placed particularly upon the evidence of Americans on the Arabic.

DEATH LIST

bread and other food supplies from neighboring cities reaching Galveston, and a promise that railroad communication with the city would soon be resumed, less anxiety early today weighed upon the state officials and people here interested in the distressed city than at any time since it was known Galveston had been in danger.

As late messages confirmed reports that little outside aid would be necessary in Galveston and that the deaths there would number less than a score, attention was turned to other spots, which felt the force of the hurricane. Reports from various cities outside of Galveston early today showed a list of 10,000 dead and 155 missing. Of those missing it is feared that more than half had perished.

Missing List Cut Down.

When the crews of the dredge boats Sam Houston and San Jacinto were reported safe, the missing list was cut down from its previous mark of 204. The dredges were found last night. It was announced that trains would be running into Texas City on regular schedule today.

A reassuring statement of conditions in the stormwreck area was issued here by Governor Ferguson, who has taken charge of the general relief work.

"My information is that the loss of life is not great and that the situation without outside assistance," the statement said. Work of clearing up the debris left in the wake of the storm and of repairing damage was under way in many places.

Many Injured or Sick.

Evidence of the unusual destructive force of Monday's hurricane was seen in Houston's hospitals today, which house between fifty and one hundred persons either injured in the storm or suffering from illness contracted in long exposure. Most of these patients are from towns along the coast. Many of those in the hospitals are suffering from "snake" bites.

A real danger in a coast hurricane, because the water drives snakes upon the few objects above water. Marvin Proctor, of Lynchburg, is a serious case on account of a snake bite.

PREFERS WHEEL IN PLACE OF A HORSE

Robert J. Smith is Arrested Here When He Tried to Dispose of Bicycle.

Robert John Smith, who tells the police that he resides in Danville, Ill., prefers to ride on a bicycle in place of a horse. He stole a horse from a mail carrier near Geneva, Ind., Adams county, Wednesday evening, and took the animal to Bluffton where he put it in a lively barn, and stole a bicycle and rode to Fort Wayne. He was arrested Friday morning by Detective Sergeant Lummel while he was trying to dispose of it at a second-hand store on East Main street.

He was taken to police headquarters where he was searched. He carried a .38-caliber revolver and shells besides shells for a .32 and .22-caliber gun. He also had a woman's "cat" which had been banded so that he could use it as a beard and sideburns. He is being held here on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Smith stole the wheel in Bluffton Thursday evening and started out to ride to this city. He was forced to walk several miles on account of the roads being bad and he spent part of the night sleeping in a fence corner. The young thief, who appears to be 19 years of age, acts suspiciously and seems to be slightly demented.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature. Those wishing further advice, free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Misery" writes: "I have been a worn out man for the past few months. My physical and mental forces are much impaired. I do not seem to be able to think clearly. I am much depressed all the time and my usual ambition and energy seem to have died. I have headache and pains in my back."

Answer: Your condition is identical to thousands of others brought to my attention. Yes, your physical and mental forces are, as you say, much impaired, but you need not be alarmed over your condition. The use of three grain caduene tablets should soon put you back in normal condition and fit to combat any troubles. Cultivate regular habits of living.

"Mite" asks: "I seem to be shrinking in size. I am very pale and thin. I do not feel sick, but I'm very weak. I want to increase my weight."

Answer: You are anemic and the food you eat does not properly nourish your system; three grain hypo-nuclease tablets cause proper food assimilation and increase weight and strength. Take them with your meals. Sold in sealed packages.

"Mrs. Ella M." writes: "Please prescribe for me again. This time for my kidneys. I have chills and fever, look bad, have puffs under my eyes and my urine is dark in color and of bad odor. Sometimes my back hurts."

Answer: You should get almost instant relief and permanent benefit from the use of balmwort tablets. I have prescribed these in numerous cases of kidney trouble and they have given excellent results. Most drug stores carry these tablets and they come in sealed tubes with proper directions.

BIG CONFERENCE ON NATIONAL DEFENSE

National Rifle Association
Will Take Part in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—Announcement today that the National Rifle Association of America will participate in the conference on national defense, which is to be held in Washington, October 4-7, immediately following the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, will be of great interest to the veterans who will attend the encampment and the conference.

In the union armies of the civil war were hundreds of thousands of good shots and thousands of expert marksmen and sharpshooters. Many of these "dead shots" will attend the Washington encampment and will pay particular attention to that section of the national defense conference which will consider the training of the citizenry of this country in the use of the military rifle.

Comments: Rifle Practice.
Col. John McElroy, past senior vice commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, says that training in the use of the rifle is one of the most important subjects to be considered at the conference.

"Good riflemen among the citizens are the best nucleus for our volunteer armies," declared Colonel McElroy today.

The National Rifle Association of America claims to be the oldest and most practical peace society in this country. It was organized in 1871 for the purpose of teaching the citizens of the country how to efficiently handle the army rifle, thus making its citizens capable of becoming efficient volunteers to defend their country in time of need. Officers of the association claim that if we had in this country a million citizens trained in the use of the service arm that it would be a more potent factor in the maintenance of peace than the orations of a million peace-at-any-price men.

Gets No Federal Support.
This national association receives no federal support and its work has been maintained by the donations of patriotic inclined citizens through the taking out of life memberships. Among such men may be mentioned ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, ex-Senator Root, former Secretary of State Robert Bacon, former Secretary of the Navy Meyer, former Secretaries of War Dickinson and Wright, Senators Wetmore and Warren and such prominent business leaders as Judge Gary, John W. Wainwright, H. C. Frick, George Westinghouse and hundreds of others. Ex-Senator Root says of the work of the N. R. A.:

"The purposes of the National Rifle Association of America are of the greatest importance and the methods by which it proposes to attain them are simple, direct and suited to American life and character."

The association is carrying on a campaign for one thousand life members, the income from the fund to be used for the promotion of rifle shooting as a recognized sport in the schools and colleges of the country.

Krag Rifles May Be Obtained.
A great impetus was given to rifle training among citizens by the passage of an act by congress last year authorizing the free distribution of Krag rifles and ammunition to rifle clubs and the work of organizing the clubs and carrying on the training was put in the hands of the National Rifle Association by the secretary of war. Since that time over 200 clubs have been organized and to them has been issued 806 Krag rifles and 550,150 rounds of ammunition.

The National Rifle Association has asked the war department to approve a measure for the adoption of a national policy of range construction, claiming that the proposition to train civilians of the country can never amount to anything from a national standpoint until ranges are provided where the citizens can shoot.

Swiss System Favored.
There has been a great demand by writers on military subjects and the press in general for the adoption by this country of a modified Swiss system, but most of these writers overlook the fact that the sine qua non of that system is rifle training, the important feature of a soldier's duties which are greatly neglected in this country. Provision also must be made to furnish government rifle clubs with ammunition and target supplies as well as ranges, and army officers should be detailed as instructors and supervisors of these clubs.

At the present time there are enrolled as members of the National Rifle Association shooting under its rules and regulations, and making annual reports of their work, 500 government rifle clubs, 110 school and 57 college clubs, all training with the military rifle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Everywhere it has received unstinted praise. We confidently believe that it has relieved more pain and suffering and saved the lives of more people than any other one preparation in use. On one or two doses of it is enough to relieve an ordinary attack of colic and diarrhoea. It has been used in many epidemics of dysentery with perfect success. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoeas in children. Every family should keep it at hand as attacks of cholera morbus often result fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

The fall semester of the High School will open Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 8:30. The principal will be in the office every forenoon, beginning Aug. 23, from 9 to 12. All persons expecting to attend the High School for the first time this fall, unless they finished their eighth grade work in this city, will find it to their advantage to call at the office sometime before school opens. 19 3t

WAR SHARES DROP ON ARABIC AFFAIR

New York, Aug. 20.—Over night developments in connection with the sinking of the Arabic, resulted in extreme depression of war shares at the opening of today's stock market. Losses ranging from 3 to 8 points were recorded by crucible steel, New York airbrake, Studebaker, Goodrich, Westinghouse and General motors.

United States steel, in which enormous dealings took place yesterday, opened with a sale of one hundred shares at 73½, followed by 8,000 at 73 to 72½ against yesterday's close of 74½. Representative stocks, including those in the railway group, yielded a point or more and the entire list was thrown into a state of confusion. There was some moderate recovery from the opening prices, but the market continued to show the effects of hurried liquidation, together with short selling.

IN THE CHURCHES

OBSERVE CHILDREN'S DAY.
Woman's Home Missionary Society of Trinity M. E. Hold Annual Event.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of Trinity M. E. church gave its annual children's day at the home of Mrs. William Archer on Wells street, which was attended by over one hundred people. Fifty children took part in the exercises. The principal feature of the program was the various festive days as they are observed in Japan. The feast of flowers when all those present received a flower, the feast of dolls and the feast of flags was very prettily illustrated by the Japanese children. The American spirit of the children was next shown by donning red, white and blue caps and singing "Three Cheers For the Red, White and Blue." Lunch was served and all enjoyed the afternoon's program.

Rather a Chilly Ride.
Because of the cool weather Thursday evening only 200 people were present at the annual trolley ride of the Associated Christian Workers, and those that did take the ride declare it was rather chilly. The cars left the interurban station at 8 o'clock and rode about the city. They were taken to Robison park and on their return went to Lawton park, where a social time was enjoyed by all.

To Assist at Eberhart Funeral.
Rev. C. Claude Travis, pastor of the Wayne street M. E. church left Friday morning for Mishawaka, where he will assist at the funeral of F. G. Eberhart, the millionaire who ended his life on the grave of his son. The local pastor received a telegram from Mrs. Eberhart asking him to be present. Rev. Travis is a close friend of the family.

Social Side in Churches.
The ice cream social to be given by the Epworth league of Wayne street M. E. church at Swinney park, Friday evening, has been postponed. This affair will be given later at the church. The Simpson M. E. Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Foster park Saturday. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

OSBORNE MAKES TRIP OVER CITY

Goes With City Officials to
Situation.

I. S. Osborne, of Toronto, Ontario, Can., spent the day in Fort Wayne in conference with Mayor William J. Hosey, President Bayer and the council committee and the board of public works and late Friday afternoon went on a trip over the city to size up the garbage situation. Engineer Osborne was in the city several years ago and made an address on garbage disposal.

He left early in the evening for Chicago, cago. Mr. Osborne is recognized as one of the United States and Canada, and has solved the problems for many of the large cities of the continent.

TWENTY-FOUR HOUR CLAUSE.

Last Legislature Amended Contagious Disease Burial Law.

That the law governing the burial of contagious disease victims was so badly battered in the several amendments it underwent at the last session of the legislature as to make it practically worthless to the department of public health, is the discovery of the local health officers in the past few days. The old law required the body of such person to be buried within twenty-four hours from the time of death, and this clause has been omitted from the statutes. Now it is legal for the funeral to be held at any time after the death, there being no time limit set. There have been no local cases in which this has occurred, but it has been through the thoughtfulness of the relatives rather than through any legal necessity that this is the case.

BUILDING SLUMPS.

Less Than Half of Amount Started Last Year for Same Week.

Building permits issued in the past week were ten in number, and amounted to $15,750, as compared to seventeen permits, amounting to $37,650, for the same week last year. This makes the loss for the week $21,900 and a loss of seven permits.

WANT PAVILION NOW.

A pavilion of the type planned for Foster park last spring while improvements were under way there, will probably be built there in the not distant future, owing to the state of mind of residents of the section who have repeatedly gone home drenched with rain from the park. Last spring there was considerable opposition to the erection of the pavilion among the property holders of the vicinity but this has entirely died out, according to the park board, and the improvement will become a reality.

PRESIDENT WILSON IN PHILADELPHIA

Makes Trip by Automobile to Consult Oculist in That City.

Washington, Aug. 20.—President Wilson slipped away from the white house early today and started for Philadelphia by motor to visit his oculist. Two automobiles, one carrying the secret service men, were in the party.

LOST IN BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Aug. 20.—President Wilson reached Baltimore on his way to Philadelphia by automobile about 8:30 o'clock. Through his unfamiliarity with the route, the chauffeur traversed the downtown section of the city in search of the Philadelphia road instead of following the direct route from Washington which would have taken him through the northern part of the city. About nine o'clock the party appeared at a drugstore at Fairmount and Ellwood, in East Baltimore, and obtained directions.

RECOGNIZED IN STREETS.

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—President Wilson arrived at the office of his oculist at 1:45 p. m. accompanied by secret service men.

At first Mr. Wilson in his stroll about the city after visiting the oculist was not recognized, but finally people on the streets became aware of his identity and many followed him, exchanging pleasantries with the distinguished visitor. Near the station the driver of a street watering cart tried to push his way ahead of President Wilson but when he saw who the president was he courteously pulled up. Mr. Wilson, however, gave way to the water wagon and waved his hand to the driver who was immensely pleased at the attention he received. President Wilson with his party left for Washington at 8:50 p. m.

TRENCH WARFARE IS FORCING CHANGES

Requires Artillery Having
Short as Well as Long Range.

Dunkirk, Aug. 19.—The trench warfare in France has made two distinct and apparently contradictory demands upon manufacturers of artillery—one for weapons of extraordinary range, and the other for guns which will drop a shell at a shorter range than ever before.

The German gunmakers, who are developing long-range guns capable of carrying a projectile from Calais to Dover, are at the same time showing remarkable ingenuity in making quaint little mortars which will toss missiles containing high explosive about as far as a fair football player can kick goal. The "minnenwerfer" was the first of the short-range weapons to meet the British troops in France, and it was regarded as a very excellent weapon of its class. But the newer German inventions of similar character are a hundred times more effective in deadliness and power.

The so-called "rum-jar" is perhaps the most feared of the new German

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH

Samose Fills Out the Curves and Makes Thin People Fat.

If you are thin your health is not what it should be. If you are losing weight steadily there is something wrong that should be attended to at once. You cannot be healthy and strong if you are thin.

Perfect health and good, solid, beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh forming food.

Samose is not a drug or a stimulant; it is a scientific flesh forming food that restores thin people to a normal condition of good healthy flesh.

These statements are confirmed by Meyer Bros. Co., who offer to refund the money to anyone buying and using Samose who does not gain in weight as promised. The risk is all Meyer Bros. Co. The thin and scrawny can buy Samose at Druggist Meyer Bros. Co. store with the knowledge that if it is not successful it will cost absolutely nothing.

trench mortars. It is so named by the British soldiers for the resemblance of its missile to the gallon stone jars in which the army rations of rum are carried. The projectile is slightly more than twice the size of the army rum-jar, however. It is generally first sighted when approaching the top of its flight. In descent it turns over and over, its size and slowness of flight enabling the soldier to follow it easily even from some distance. It is exploded either by a time or delayed percussion fuse, and is constructed of a thin steel case filled with tri-nitro-toluol. The damage it causes is due entirely to its detonating quality—it does not rely on metal or bullets for its effect. The explosion seems to be more instantaneous than that of any other projectile, and there is therefore a concentrated fury to the noise of its bursting that distinguishes it from all other projectiles.

The "Sausage" is another variety of missile fired probably from compressed-air guns, inasmuch as the discharge makes so little noise as to be practically inaudible. The "Percy" is a five-inch shell which explodes in the air with an extraordinary "crack," while the less dreaded "pip-squeaks" are missiles of similar kind, but much smaller size. The so-called "whizz-bang" is a bomb exploded by means of a time fuse, but thrown by hand.

LESTER'S LITTLE LAMB STARTS NEW

LESTER STRAIN AND HIS PET LAMB.

Abita Springs, La., Aug. 12.—The very latest here in pets—youngsters—is the lamb.

They've got them here in the ozone belt so they eat out of your hand, and when young are fed on a bottle—the kind regular babies howl for all night long.

Instead of a dog or cat, it's the lamb for the playmate of many a lone girl or boy in a family.

Lester Strain, four years old, has the prize lamb of the town. It follows him wherever he goes, like the lamb Mary had. Lester doesn't go to school now, but it's safe to say that when he starts the lamb will trail along behind him.

Lester's lamb has fleeces as white as snow, except when he gets in the road and rolls around in the dirt. It m-a-a-s for him when he is gone and m-a-a-s a whole lot more when it's time to be fed.

PENAL FARM FOR DRUGGIST.

Indianapolis Apothecary Convicted of Selling Cocaine.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—Lorenzo B. King, a druggist at 350 South Illinois street, was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 180 days on the penal farm yesterday by Judge James E. Deery in city court, on a charge of illegally selling cocaine.

Two affidavits charging a violation of the same law had been filed by the police against King. He was charged with selling cocaine illegally to Fay De Witt, 325 1-2 West Washington street, one of the victims of the alleged cocaine trust which has been working in the city for years.

She has been assisting the police in investigating the illegal sale of drugs and has been instrumental in convicting five men on the charges of the illegal sale of drugs within the last few months. The other affidavits charge that King sold quantities of cocaine to Martin West.

King was found guilty on the testimony of the Ward woman and was bound over to the grand jury in the other affidavit on the same charge.

Splendid for Constipation.

About a year ago I used a couple of bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and found them to be a splendid remedy for indigestion," writes C. S. Colby, Holland, N. Y., "Obtainable everywhere."

Ingenious mechanism in a new German light house that uses electricity, as an illuminant, switches on a new lamp and moves it into focus should the original lamp be extinguished.

A Hint to the Wise is Sufficient.
No one can reasonably hope for good health when his bowels are constipated. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get relief. They are easy to take and pleasant to eat. Obtainable everywhere.

TWO WAYS

There are only two ways for the average man to get ahead and acquire capital.

First way. Spend Less.
Second way. Earn More.

Almost anyone can adopt the first plan. Not everybody can follow the second. If you can combine the two and then get old man interest into the job you will be headed straight on the upward path. Old man interest has his office with our Savings Department and his services may be had for the asking.

He will add 4 per cent. per annum to all that you will save.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

Irvin Brown, Aged 67 Years, Found Dangling From Tree Near Lake Gage—Poor Health Induced Rash Deed.

Angola, Ind., Aug. 20.—Despondent because of continued poor health that had not yielded to either medical treatment or an operation, Irvin Brown, aged 67 years, a well known farmer who resides near Lake Gage a summer resort west of this city, committed suicide by hanging himself. His body was found suspended from a tree and was first seen by passengers on an east bound car of the St. Joseph Valley traction line as it passed the scene of the tragedy. The coroner of this county has pronounced Brown's death a case of suicide. Brown's wife died last January and since that time he had been a victim of despondency, which was further increased by the fact of his poor health. He was in the hospital some months ago for an operation. It is said that he had acted in a peculiar manner and had a hallucination that his neighbors were spying upon his actions.

THE BUSY TOMATO PLANT.

Huntington Man Has One That Is Doing Its Fourth Stunt.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—P. W. Snowden, of Wright street, is now getting the fourth lot of ripe tomatoes from a tomato vine that was first set out in the spring of 1911. Mr. Snowden brought the first one down town for exhibition yesterday. It was about the average size, well formed and smooth. Mr. Snowden says there are fifteen other tomatoes on the vine that are rapidly approaching the stage where they will be edible. The vine from which the tomato was taken was planted a year ago last spring, and produced two crops of tomatoes in 1914, one just before frost in the fall. The plant was then trimmed and transferred to a flower pot and kept in the house. It began blooming again in late January and by February produced ripe tomatoes. This was the third crop. This spring the plant was trimmed again and planted in front of the Snowden home on Wright street. It has been the subject of much attention, especially as Mr. Snowden announced that he would get a fourth crop. Mr. Snowden intends to take care of the vine and if possible keep it through another winter.

BURNS CAUSE CHILD'S DEATH.

Babe of Ten Months Places Hands on Hot Stove Near Huntington.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Burns on the palms of her hands and on one side of the face of Blanche Lucile Brubaker, ten months old, on last Monday morning, resulted in internal congestion and she died yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brubaker, who live south of Brown's Corners, in Rock Creek township. The child, who was just learning to walk, was standing in the door of the kitchen when Mrs. Brubaker stepped into the next room to get a broom. As the mother left the kitchen the little girl turned and started across the room. She could not stand alone, and supported herself by holding to articles of furniture. Reaching the stove, she put out both hands against it, and leaned forward so that her face touched the hot surface. The attending physician said the burns were severe, but were not fatal unless complications set in. The next day Blanche was playing as well as she could with hands swathed in bandages and seemed to be recovering rapidly. Absorption from the burns caused the congestion.

CHURUBUSCO BARBER IN BAD.

Kendallville, Ind., Aug. 20.—Mel Klingerman, of Churubusco, a barber, was arrested early in the morning on an alleged charge of attempted burglary and later was released, there being insufficient evidence to warrant a case. Klingerman was taken into custody by Night Officials George Swogger and G. A. Auer, near the Gilbert home on Diamond street, upon action brought by A. J. Berhalter, who claimed the stranger was endeavoring to break into his home.

SHOT DESTROYS BOY'S EYE.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Earl Wiles, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr.

and Mrs. Charles Wiles, of 1609 East Washington street, was seriously injured Thursday when a shot from a twelve gauge gun glanced off a small rock and struck him in the left eye, destroying the sight. Earl and a brother, Floyd, and a friend from Peru went rabbit hunting Thursday morning. They were east of the line kins when one of the dogs started a rabbit. The rabbit ran into a brush pile. The two dogs ran after the rabbit and succeeded in frightening it out. Floyd, the older brother, shot at the rabbit and killed it. One of the shot glanced off a small rock and pierced the white of Earl's left eye.

ALL WENT INTO RIVER.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 20.—Otto Philpott and family and Charles Percival, of Indianapolis, a guest, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon when a boat in which the party were going down the Tippecanoe river upset, and the occupants plunged into the river at a point where the water was nine feet deep and the current swift. Katherine, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philpott, is an expert swimmer and struck out for shore. Mrs. Philpott sank beneath the water and might have drowned had it not been for the prompt action of her husband in coming to her assistance.

HUNTINGTON FARMER DIES.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—John C. Woodrow, 67 years old, died at his home, south of Huntington, on the Mt. Fina road, when an illness that had afflicted him lightly for more than a year took a sudden turn for the worse. The funeral services were held at the residence this morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Burkett. Burial was in the Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was born April 12, 1848, in Green county, Ohio. He was the son of Samuel and Anna Woodrow. His father brought him to this county in 1864. His marriage to Mary Anna Olinger took place in 1880, to which union there were born three children, who survive their father with the widow.

SEWER WORK IN MARKLE.

Markle, Ind., Aug. 20.—Excavation for the laying of more than 7,000 feet of sewer in Markle began yesterday by a force of men under Thomas McGovern, contractor. From the outlet at the Washburn river the trench will be dug back to business district and as the plans require. Mr. McGovern expects to have the work completed before severe weather. Rapid progress is being made in paving Lee street. Morse street has been completed. Monday 134 feet of concrete was laid on Lee, and yesterday, 105. As the center of the street only is being paved, the sewer will be built in two lines, one on either side of the strip of concrete.

SOME BIG YIELDS OF WHEAT.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—The oats and wheat yield this year is far above the average. Occasionally such an exceptionally large yield is made that it is worthy of mention. Charles Sholl had three and a half acres of wheat four miles east of Hicksville that threshed 174 1-2 bushels. This makes a trifle better than fifty bushels per acre. Arthur E. Lybarger has the record on oats. From a five-acre field he threshed 450 or ninety bushels per acre. Claude Lorys, on the Moss Higgins farm, had out eighteen acres of wheat from which he threshed 550 bushels. This is a trifle over thirty bushels per acre and considering the number of acres in the field it is a fine yield.

BOY SCOUTS TO GO INTO CAMP.

Kendallville, Ind., Aug. 20.—The Kendallville Boy Scouts will start on their annual ten-day camping trip next Wednesday morning, August 25. They will go to their old site on South Twin Lake, two miles west of Howe, and will be gone ten days. Things are shaping up well for the camp and it looks as though a great time is in store for the boys.

WHITLEY COUNTY PIONEERS.

Columbia City, Ind., Aug. 20.—A large crowd attended the twelfth annual reunion of the pioneers of Whitley county in this city yesterday. Ideal weather and an interesting program made the occasion in many ways the most auspicious of any of the reunions yet held by the old settlers of this county. The oldest person registered was Catherine Miller, of Thornecreek township, who was born in Ohio in 1827, came to Whitley county in 1837 and has resided here 78 years. Sol Fairchild, aged 78 years, came here in 1838 and has resided in the county 77 years.

DIES OF PERITONITIS.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 20.—Floyd Krewson, aged 33, a former resident of Bluffton, is dead at Warren after a short illness with peritonitis which developed following a strain of the tissues of the abdominal region. His condition was desperate from the first and the idea of an operation Wednesday was abandoned. Mr. Krewson was born near Prospect and was the son of T. G. and Mary Krewson. He married a lady from the vicinity of Craigville and came with her to Bluffton where he worked for the elevators and for the traction companies.

WELLS COUNTY PAIR ELOPED.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 20.—Word from the southern part of the county tells of the elopement wedding of Miss Mack Mowery, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mowery, who reside west of Ruth, to Edie Smithen, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Will Lockwood, near Petroleum. The young couple got away to Michigan Saturday, deceiving their friends by a ruse, and were married at Hillsdale. They have many friends in that section of the county and all will wish them joy and happiness. Mr. Smithen's father lives in Muncie. His mother is dead.

DIES ON HER BIRTHDAY.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Catherine McMahon died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Moran, 1212 Cherry street, after an illness lasting since Christmas of 1914. Her death occurred on her birthday, as she was 78 years old yesterday. The deceased was born in Logansport, Ind., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kennedy. She removed to this city at an early age and had lived here ever since. She was educated at St. Mary's-of-the-Woods at Terre Haute, being one of the first students of that college. She was a member of the St. Mary's church of this city.

WILL MANAGE DRY CAMPAIGN.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—Charles F. Leason, former editor of the News and candidate for mayor of Hicksville, was selected by the county committee of the Anti-Saloon league to manage the dry campaign in Defiance county this fall. Mr. Leason is an enthusiastic dry man and took an active part in the campaign last year. He is not a novice in directing such movements and under his leadership, Defiance county should put up a tremendous majority for the dries. He will have his office at Defiance and starts his duties Thursday.

THREW DISHES AT HIM.

Auburn, Ind., Aug. 20.—Lewis E. Treesh, of Garrett, filed a complaint in which he asks for a divorce from his wife, Phoebe Treesh. They were married January 18, 1894, and separated August 12, 1915. The bill of particulars on which he bases his application for a legal separation are charges that the woman has an ungovernable temper and frequently threatens to kill herself, that she has secreted a razor in the bed which she threatened to use on herself and the plaintiff, that for a pastime she has thrown dishes and other articles at him.

SENT TO THE PENAL FARM.

Montpelier, Ind., Aug. 20.—George Space, of this city, was arrested by Officer Smith and locked up for being found asleep on a bench in front of the Hart barber shop in an intoxicated condition. He was arraigned and fined $10 and costs and given a sentence of sixty days at the penal farm. This makes a sentence of eighty days unless the fine is paid. Space is well known in this city and his case is a sad one. He has been given chance after chance by the local police force to straighten up.

THE HICKSVILLE FAIR.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—This section has one of the largest crops ever recorded. While there has, in some sections, been considerable trouble in saving it, yet the fact remains that the crops are far above the average. One of the most attractive features of the fair will be the agricultural hall. Owing to the season of the year in which the fair is held, corn will be exhibited on the stalk, and wheat and oats in the sheaves.

PIERCETON'S HOMECOMING.

Piercetown, Ind., Aug. 20.—Though the program committee is hard at work, no carnival company has yet been engaged for home coming week. It has been hoped to set the date for the first week in September, but until a company is engaged it will be necessary to know when they will be able to come. The committee was very anxious to announce this week what the program would be and regrets its inability to do so.

STEUBEN COUNTY SETTLERS.

Angola, Ind., Aug. 20.—The old settlers of Steuben county held their annual reunion here yesterday and the event was made auspicious by the presence of Hon. James E. Watson, Congressman Cyrus Cline and State Senator Otis L. Ballou, of Lagrange, all of whom delivered addresses. Prof. L. W. Fairfield was also one of the speakers. The four oldest settlers registered were George Fisher, 89, John Dreyer, 80, Mrs. Sybilla Mitchell, 88, and Mrs. Martha Morrow, 88.

CAPTURE NEGRO BANDIT.

Farmers Take Armed Outlaw After He Had Been Shot.

Earl Park, Ind., Aug. 20.—An unidentified negro bandit was captured in a corn field five miles west of here last evening by a posse of farmers from this area who had hunted all day for the bandit. He was captured only after a long and hard fight.

A new Suit—a new Skirt—a new Coat—what woman is not interested just now in one or all of them. There is no store that can offer better facilities in every way for their purchase than this. As the season advances we will have an exposition of style such as few stores can equal. The price part is never overlooked here, we try to bring the new and beautiful within the reach of the modest purse. Early arrivals are now on display.

Modes of the Moment

The new Suits never were prettier—the new, graceful lines of the tailored models—the striking effects in the military styles and the charming creations in dressy Suits make selection easy. The materials and colors are new, black, navy and rich, dark shades in brown, green and wine are most popular. Garnitures and motifs in braid and fur add to the attractiveness of many of the Autumn Suits. Keep in touch with our Suit Section, it grows more attractive every day.

New Dresses

Women will find delight in our early showing of charming new Dresses for street, afternoon and evening wear, comprising new styles in serges, taffetas, charmeuse and velvets—some in beautiful combinations with chiffon and Georgette crepe. Prices are as pleasing as the styles.

New Dress Goods

Everything that fashion favors is here, all the new weaves, all the new colors. The demand this season will be for rich, dark shades, in plain cloths and plaids, checks and tweed mixtures in the fancies. The favorite fabrics being serges, gabardines, broadcloths, worsteds, chevots and whipcords. The price range is wide, from 50c to $2.00 a yard.

Black Dress Goods a Splendid Showing

Our display of black dress goods is the best we have ever made. All the popular favorites are here, for this is to be a black season. Unusual values prevail in French serges, storm serges, Henrietta, royal, poplins, Fazzo cloth, Calypso cloth, gabardines and nuns' veiling; the prices start at 50c and up to $2.00 a yard.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the bandit entered the Big Four ticket office here and covered V. H. Turner, the agent, with a revolver, demanded that Turner hand over the cash. Turner complied with the request and gave the negro $28.50, all that was in the cash drawer, and a revolver. After the negro was captured, the revolver was found on his person. He was brought here and placed in jail. His condition is quite serious and he refuses to divulge his identity. No member of the posse was injured although the negro fired many shots at his pursuers.

ATTENDS CONVENTION.

Helen May Irwin Participates in Meeting of Catholic Editors.

Helen May Irwin, of this city, has gone to Toledo, to attend the fifteenth annual convention of the Catholic Press association. In Wednesday's issue of the Toledo Blade is a splendid picture of Miss Irwin together with the following comment: "Prominently active in the work of both conventions is Miss Helen May Irwin, of the Indiana Record, Indianapolis. Miss Irwin looks after the forty-two counties of the Fort Wayne, Ind., diocese for her paper."

JAPAN STRIKES AT GERMANY.

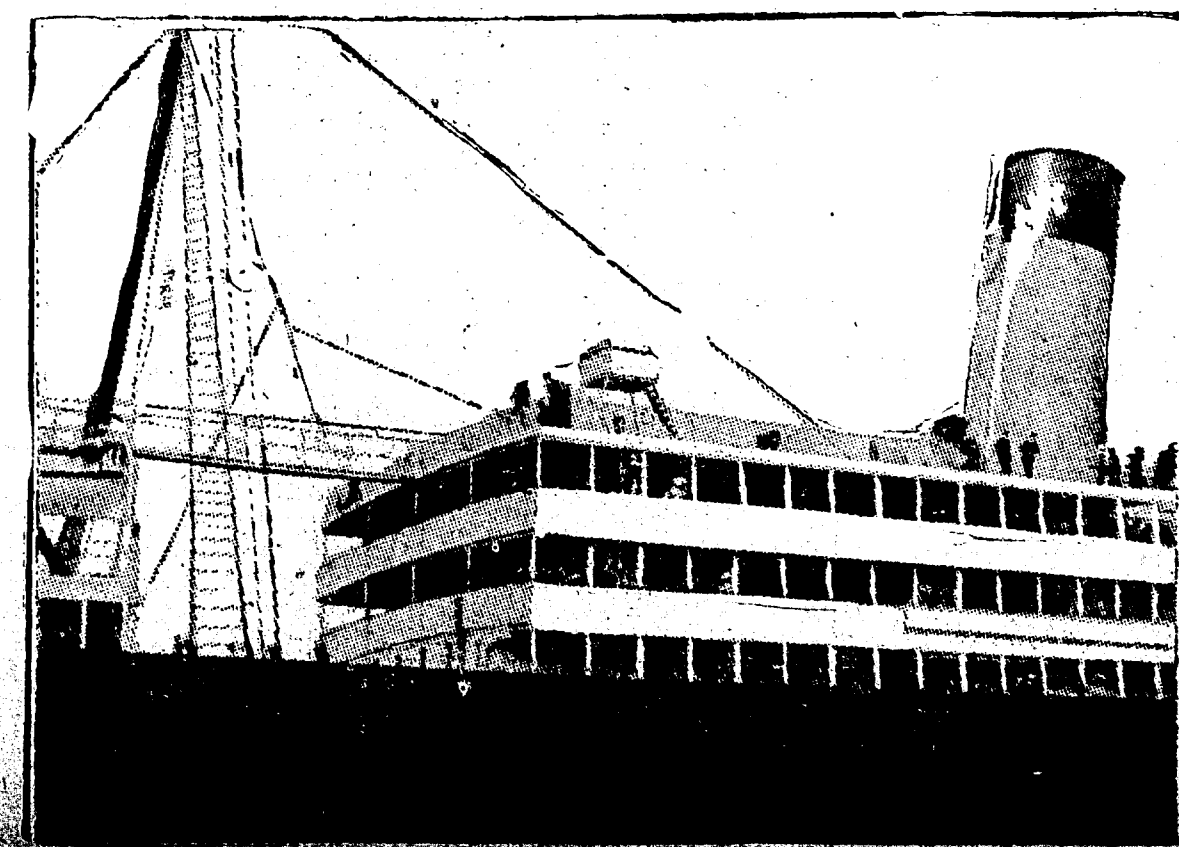

Tokio, Aug. 20.—Japan has requested her various steamship companies to discontinue handling German and Austrian goods to and from China or along the Chinese coast. Great Britain has been anxious to have Japan's support in a move to cease all trading with the Germans and Austrians in China. At first Japan decided against the project, but has now fallen in with the plan.

THIS WOMAN IS A PREACHER OF JOY

Feminine Non-Denominational Pastor Who Rejects Brimstone Belief.

New York, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Mabel Q. Stevens is, as far as she knows, the only inter or non-denominational woman evangelist in the country. She is a southerner, her home being in St. Petersburg, Fla., where her husband, Dr. E. L. Stevens, is president of the Pan-American College for Women, and where she herself is dean of the Bible school connected therewith. And when she is not teaching or going around on evangelistic tours she takes parties to Palestine to travel through the Holy Land. She is enthusiastic over these various departments of her life, to which must be added what she considers the most fascinating business of all—making a home for her husband and son.

She is slender, of medium height, is this woman evangelist, with wavy brown hair and brown eyes. She has the soft southern voice which one naturally expects, combined with a vivid manner of speech. She is not of the Billy Sunday type. Yet as she warms to her theme she moves about on the platform and gesticulates freely—talks with her hands and arms, her whole being. She wears a pretty, demure, high collared gown of black silk and chiffon and lace, lightened by a touch of white net. And she usually has a flower of some sort, preferably a red rose.

"How did it happen to become an evangelist?" Mrs. Stevens meditated a moment.

Studied to Be a Doctor.
"Ever since I can remember I've wanted to do some real work in the world, something for time and eternity. Years ago I decided I'd be a doctor and began to study medicine at Northwestern university in Chicago. There was a girl beside me in the chemical laboratory who was going as a medical missionary to foreign fields. She told me how great a need there was for missionaries and asked why I didn't consider that for a life work rather than ordinary practice.

"The more I thought of that the more it appealed to me—I had been converted in college. I entered that large Bible school in Chicago and studied hard; then I was sent out to make speeches and preach.

"Oh, yes, of course, I've encountered more or less opposition, but it is growing less all the time I notice. When I first started out preaching I was young—in my early twenties—and the older women I met all considered it their duty to instruct me as to how I should dress and act and speak.

A Gospel of Joy.

"I shall never forget how disappointed one old lady who had promised to entertain me was when I arrived at her western home. It hadn't occurred to her that I might be young and she was sure that I was the wrong person at first. When she found I wasn't she could hardly conceal her annoyance and proceeded to try to bring me up according to her ideas.

"For one thing I had never taken coffee, so she determined that she would make me. It was quite unpleasant for a time and I longed to give up and go home to my mother. Just suppose the meeting should not be a success! How I prayed, O Lord, give me a good meeting! My prayer was answered; we had a fine meeting and when it was over and people were crowding up around me that same old lady who had been so displeased with me came up, took my hand, put her arm around my shoulders and remarked complacently, 'This young lady is staying with me.'

Somehow one feels, talking with and listening to Mrs. Stevens, that here is an evangelist preaching a gospel of joy and happiness and common sense, rather than the once popular hell fire, brimstone and long-tailed, cloven hoofed devils.

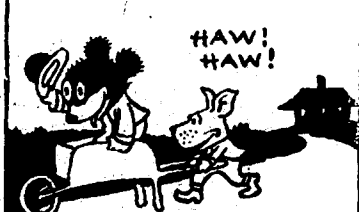

She Loves Bright Colors.

"So many people have told me that I ought to wear sober colors," she continued, "but I don't like to. We southern women, you know, are fond of colors of the soft delicate shades of the rainbow and sky and birds. But now, with this terrible war going on, I don't mind black and white; I really prefer it."

Men and women and children poured quietly into the big Tent Evangel for the service. Under their arms they carried Billy Sunday hymn books. One after another of those songs heard recently in Philadelphia and Paterson they sang, particularly that favorite of the Rev. Billy, "Brighten the Corner Where You Are." There was a prayer; the notices were read, then appeared the familiar dispens, and the modest collection was taken. There was no appeal for large sums; Tent Evangel

WOMEN IN BANK OF ENGLAND.

Ancient Seat of Ultra-Conservatism Invaded by the Sex.

London, Aug. 20.—The very sanctum of British conservatism, the Bank of England, has been invaded by women clerks. Over 200 of them are now employed in the bank in various forms of clerical work. While it is the war that gave women the opportunity of replacing men of military age, it is also war that created additional work at the bank through the war loan business.

Women have been employed in the bank of England in the humble note-sorting capacity since 1895, but they had never before done clerical work. They often put in as much as twelve hours a day.

Other banks, it is stated, now contemplate following the lead of the Bank of England, which, despite its former prejudice against women, has been historically known as the Old Lady of Threadneedle street.

MARRIAGE BY PROXY POPULAR.

Paris, Aug. 20.—Since the new law of April of this year authorizing military marriages by proxy came into force, over 700 such marriages have been performed. The law provided that two months must elapse between the application for authorization and the performance of the ceremony. One result of this delay is that in several cases the bridegroom has been killed on the battlefield by the time the proxy marriage took place.

THE CLANSMAN OF 1915.

Thomas Dixon, in his book, "The Clansman," built a story around the legend of the "Klu Klux Klan," composed of men who banded together, edged themselves to secrecy, and trucked to thousands by nocturnal rides in the south during the reconstruction period following the civil war.

The Clansman of that time wore a robe of white which covered his body, was ornamented by a bright red cross at the breast and topped by a pointed helmet. The fiery cross was the insignia of the band, which traveled by horseback in the silence of the night and bore its victims to death.

Dixon was severely criticized on the charge that he misrepresented the spirit of the "K. K. K." But the intent, purpose and end of the south, and his story, dramatized, was barred from many cities. But if Dixon were to rewrite his story, following the lynching of Leo M. Frank, he would have to make only small changes in detail.

The Clansman of 1915 used no disguise and traveled by automobile. There was no note of warning, couched in half mysterious phantology and signed by a name.

GERMANY AND ALLIES HAVE HARD QUESTION

Tariff Matters Vex Austria, Hungary and Germany.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Correspondence of the Associated Press. Few questions raised by the war are more momentous to Germany, Austria and Hungary than the future industrial relations among these three nations.

For close to a century, or ever since Prussia as an independent state of Germany, took the initiative, the problem of customs duties among them has been a most question on which they do not agree today.

The original and varying objections to a proposed "customs association" or agreement among the original independent states of Germany, Austria and Hungary eventually were swept away almost forcibly, and a union was introduced that almost immediately produced results. The varied developments of the three nations during the course of years, however, brought constant disagreement as to what the tariff conditions should be—disagreements which it is felt in many circles must be settled during the present war if at all.

Hungary at one time or another has been a persistent contender for a high protective tariff against the invasion of the articles which the well-developed industry of Germany has supplied, and in consequence of which the Hungarian industry is still in its infancy. Not longer ago than late in July, Hungary once more formally protested at a meeting of the German-Austrian Economic league against the lowering of tariffs, and pleaded even for higher customs duties than exist at present.

Some for Free Trade.

Not all Hungary, however, holds this view, as a very recent meeting of Hungarians in Berlin attested. The men, more than a score of them, comprised the Hungarian Economic league, which with the German-Austrian organization comprises the Central European league. In spite of opposition that was at times determined, a majority of the members, comprising some of Hungary's most prominent agricultural, industrial and political figures, finally voted in record as in favor of taking down the tariff bars among the three countries.

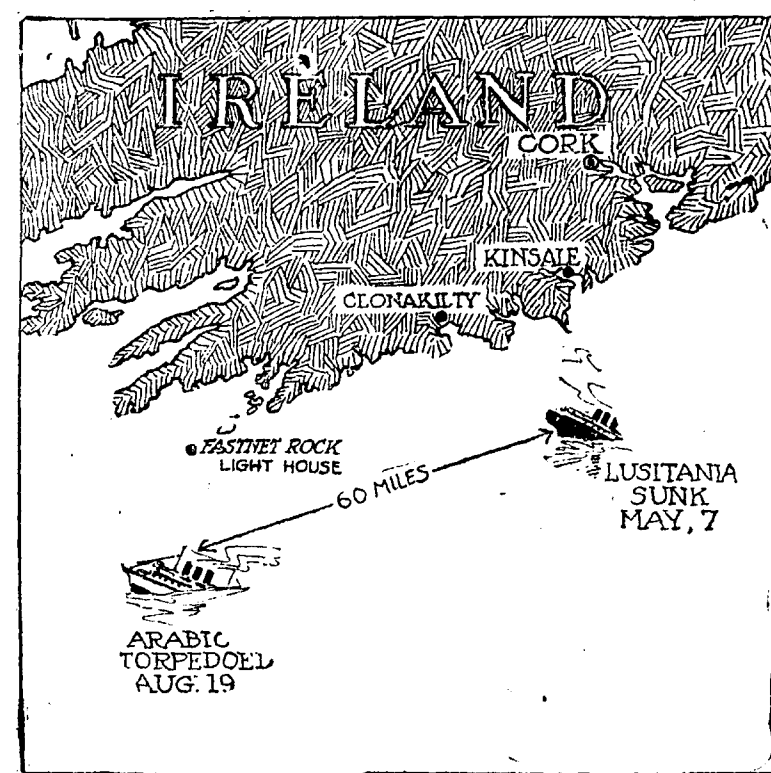

One of the chief arguments brought forward was that Germany and Hungary do not manufacture the same things, and that both will be benefited rather than hindered by the admission of articles that do not compete with home production.

This Hungary is a producer of agricultural machinery—to supply its own large needs, and even without any harm to German industry introduce its product in the latter empire. Germany on the other hand makes quantities of other kinds of machinery and a thousand things that are not produced in Hungary, which can be introduced at a lower tariff into that country without competing dangerously with Hungarian industry.

Want It Settled Now.

The argument that an understanding and agreement must be reached during rather than after the war is advanced by many, who believe that after hostilities have ceased the nations will be too busy with their renovation and rebuilding and too jealous of each other industrially ever to be able to arrive at an understanding.

Prominent Hungarians in the league, notably Mr. Lanczy, member of the Hungarian house of magnates, hold the opposite view, however, and insist that the present time is inopportune, and that efforts to bring about a tariff reform now are premature. This branch is steadily opposed by those who maintain that all the three countries at the present time need every advantage that can be derived from lower tariffs.

Austria, because of its half-industrial, half-agrarian nature, has always stood midway between Germany and Hungary, with a general slight leaning for the former. Such industries as she has are in the main in good condition and unlikely to be injured by a lowering of tariff walls that would permit of a German industrial invasion.

RED OVERALLS MAY TAKE PLACE OF BLUE

With Dyes Out Of Substitute Color Must Be Found.

New York, Aug. 20.—White, yellow, green or red may be the colors in overalls next year. It's fairly sure they will not be blue or blue striped, unless peace is restored in Europe or chemists in the United States bestir themselves.

Blue of various shades has been the standard color in work clothes for so long that those who use them insist on that color.

But Germany has had a monopoly in the manufacture of fast blue dyes. Because of the low price at which they were produced there, this country has never made any effort to compete in that field.

It is the uncertainty in the situation that makes a venture into dye manufacturing in this country such a big risk. The concerns that could make dyes say they would just get started, the war would cease and then Germany would be in a position to undersell them.

Last week a dye company was formed in New York with one million dollars capital, and three large cloth manufacturing houses contracted to buy dyes from it for a period of years.

The dye situation is worrying Kansas City wholesale dealers and distributors, especially those who handle work clothes. In this line Kansas City is the foremost market of the country.

The goods are brought here in bulk and made into garments. Several million yards of coarse cloth are used yearly in Kansas City for such clothes.

One wholesale dealer in work clothes says that Palm Beach color, or absence of color, may become popular under necessity. Other dealers have suggested white or yellow as blue's most probable successor.

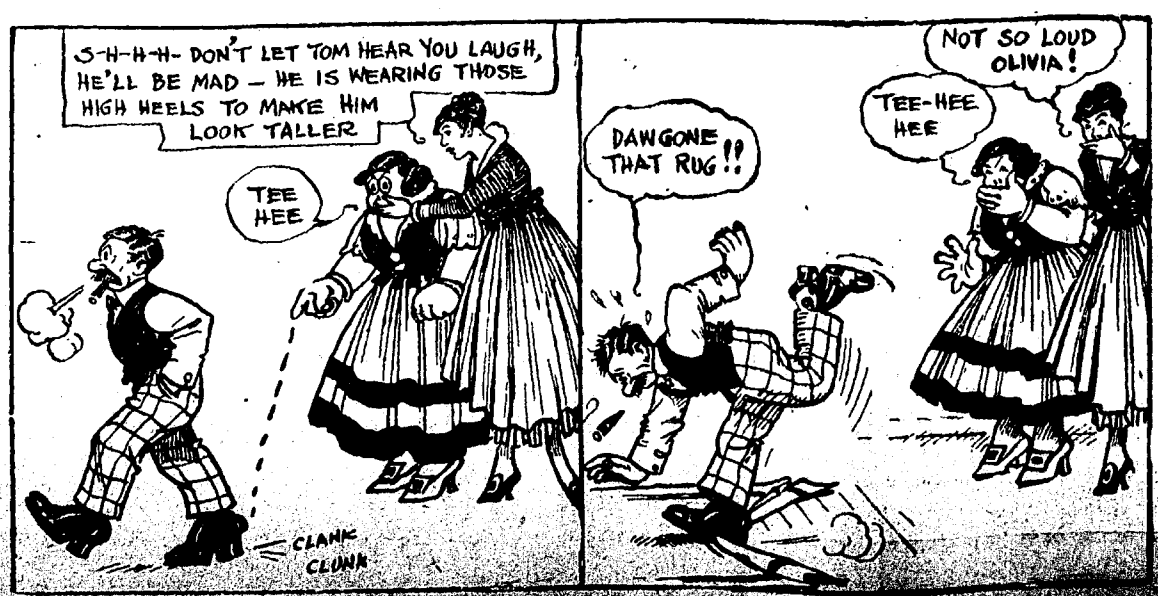

But the country merchant shakes his head and says, "Give us the colors we are used to."

WILLIAM G. BATES
MAY RETURN HERE

Said to Have Accepted Office in Reorganized Wabash Police.

A rumor which has not been confirmed by the official notice, but which is believed to be founded on facts, is that Capt. William G. Bates, of Richmond, Va., is to become a resident of Fort Wayne again. As mentioned in a previous issue of The Sentinel, the police department of the Wabash is to be expanded and strengthened and this work has been placed in the hands of Col. G. S. Ward, recently appointed chief special agent, with headquarters in St.

WILLIAM G. BATES.

Louis, Colonel Ward formerly held a similar office with the Seaboard Air Line railway, on which Captain Bates has been a special agent for about a year. Now it is said Captain Bates is to come to the Wabash under the title of division special agent with headquarters in Fort Wayne and territory extending from Peru to Toledo. He was in Peru yesterday, presumably on business connected with the alleged change, and will come here tonight to join Mrs. Bates, who has been visiting in Fort Wayne and Chicago for some weeks. Captain Bates has had a great deal of experience in railway police work. He was a member of Captain Stoll's force, on the Pennsylvania, about twelve years. His latter service being in the capacity of lieutenant. When Colonel Ward began the reorganization of the police department on the Seaboard Air Line railway, he called to his assistance Lieutenant W. G. Bates and Lieutenant J. M. Newfor, two men who rank among the best of railway policemen, and made them division special agents, or captains, assigning Mr. Bates to Richmond. The change was a distinct promotion for Lieut. Bates, but it is said that he and Mrs. Bates were not pleased with their new home and have never seemed to wish for an opportunity to return to Fort Wayne.

WILL SING AT LEO.

The Blacksmiths' quartette, organized during the Lyon meetings last winter and maintained since, will sing at an entertainment at Leo next Tuesday night, given by the Sunday school class of Mrs. Charles Schlatter. The quartette is composed of J. C. Traxler, F. H. Gaylord, C. B. Watterson and S. E. Claudy, each a blacksmith at the Pennsylvania shops.

A JOLLY FISHING PARTY.

A. D. Hunter, J. A. Mooney and L. F. Schele, Pennsylvania yard engineers, have taken a two weeks' leave of absence for the purpose of going to Rome City for an outing. They are provided with every kind of fishing tackle and bait and expect to have good luck fishing.

WHISKY RUN ON AGAIN.

The "whisky run" on the Nickel Plate, which was taken from service a couple of months ago, was again placed in service this week. Conductor W. V. Harper will have charge of the train, the assignment of engineers being open for bid. This run operates daily, except Sunday, between Fostoria and Bellevue, carrying rush merchandise from a connecting line at the former city billed to New York.

TURNED OUT TEN ENGINES.

The output of engines receiving general repairs at the Pennsylvania shops during the week ending today was as follows: Nos. 9402, 7465, 7144, 7520, 9035, 9242, 9241, 7522, 7475 and 9044.

A. Valda, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, will go to South Bend tomorrow to spend the Sabbath.

Tomorrow Paul Meyers, an apprentice in the Pennsylvania toolroom, will leave for Detroit to spend a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Greck will be guests of friends in Grand Rapids over Sunday. He is employed in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop.

Agent H. M. Quicksell, of the Star Union line, is taking a vacation and left yesterday for Atlantic City to spend a part of it.

Power Director George McClintic, of the Pennsylvania, who has been east on a vacation trip two weeks, will resume work tomorrow.

The Pennsylvania train No. 57 had a special coach and baggage car today for the accommodation of the "Girls From Joy Land."

After a week's visit with his folks in Ohio, P. C. Sharp, a pipefitter, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Arnold Hitzeman leaves tomorrow for Twin lakes for a two weeks' outing. He is a draftsman at the Pennsylvania shops.

L. F. Mason, helper at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, failed to show up there for duty today on account of sickness.

W. H. Seibert, a Pennsylvania car-builder, is sick and off duty. H. S. Wass, of the car machine shop, is also off duty on account of sickness.

Pennsylvania Dispatcher W. R. Richardson, who has been on a two weeks' vacation, will resume his duties tomorrow.

T. W. Demarest, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania, is in Pittsburgh on business for the department.

Chief Clerk W. L. Wilt, of the Pennsylvania motive power office, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

The board of management of the Y. M. C. A. held a meeting last night, at which only routine business was handled.

General Yardmaster J. L. Gogarty, of the Wabash, has returned from a visit with relatives and friends at Decatur, Illinois.

J. H. Carver, Pennsylvania yard fireman at Lima, has taken a two weeks' lay-off which he will spend in northern Michigan. His family will accompany him.

Passenger Conductor and Mrs. T. P. McArdle, the former of the Pennsylvania, have completed a visit with friends at Toledo and other places in that vicinity.

A special train of five cars over the Pennsylvania will pass through Fort Wayne next Tuesday, carrying the Kentucky state infantry, eighty-five people, on their return from the Pacific coast.

C. H. Berghoff, for some time firing a switch engine in the Pennsylvania yards at Lima, was summoned home last night on account of the illness of his wife.

Ed Diekmeyer failed to show up at his desk in the office at the Bass foundry this morning. His sister was married yesterday, as mentioned elsewhere, and he was the "best man."

The gang foreman at the Pennsylvania shops, at their picnic at Germania park Saturday afternoon, will have as guests many of the department heads and will have a crowd of about sixty.

A. Boecher, general foreman of the passenger department of the Pennsylvania shops at Chicago, was in the city today on business with the company's shop officials.

F. J. Thieme, of the Wayne Knitting Mills, and his son Robert are making an automobile trip. They went to Indianapolis yesterday and on their return will go to Detroit and Ann Arbor.

James Bell, Wabash road foreman of engines, of Montpelier, was in the city yesterday. Motive Power Inspector James McCone, of Decatur, was also here yesterday.

Tomorrow Pennsylvania Dispatcher T. J. Costello, sr., and son, T. J. Costello, jr., will leave for New York City, Washington, Baltimore and other eastern cities for a two weeks' stay. Mr. Costello is taking his annual vacation.

The bridge inspection party on the Pennsylvania, which started from Clarke Junction on an inspection trip yesterday morning, arrived here last evening and this morning left for Crestline. Supt. Otto Schroll joined the party here.

E. M. Stokes, jr., is spending a week in the city with his father, E. M. Stokes, sr., the G. R. & L. engineer, who lives in Grand Rapids, but runs in and out of Fort Wayne and is well known here.

Machinist F. R. Schilling, who had been sick and reported at the Pennsylvania round house yesterday for duty, suffered a relapse last night and was unable to report for work today. His condition, it is said, is not serious.

The G. A. R. men who start from Fort Wayne to attend the encampment at Washington, September 24, 25 and 26, will have to put up $24.65 for the round trip. This rate has been granted by the Central Passenger Association.

Oscar E. Shaffer, a foreman at the Pennsylvania east car shop, has returned from a two weeks' sojourn in Wisconsin and will resume work Monday. Mr. Shaffer was accompanied by Mrs. Shaffer and their daughter.

H. W. Crawford, of Chicago, district passenger agent of the Canada Steamship Lines, was a caller at the Fort Wayne ticket offices today. Mr. Crawford says the business of his company is good, notwithstanding the war and other adverse conditions.

Foreman Chris Kees, of the Pennsylvania freight house, was taken ill at the warehouse shortly after arriving there to take up his usual duties this morning. He was unable to walk and a taxicab was called to take him home, where he soon revived.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, of the Pennsylvania, is preparing for a vacation trip in the east. He may leave tomorrow. Returning from the east he will spend some days with Mr. and Mrs. Adam LaMar and children at Chicago. Mrs. Graham will accompany her husband.

Machinist and Mrs. John Casey, the former of the Wabash shops, are entertaining their niece, Mrs. J. R. Wilcox, of Princeton, Ind., whose husband is engaged in the wholesale grocery business. Mrs. Wilcox was formerly Miss Goldie Telington, of East Lewis street, this city.

A. C. Woodward underwent an operation for an injured knee at the St. Joseph hospital Wednesday. He is a G. R. and L. brakeman and the injury was sustained while out on his run. It is said the operation was successful and the injured knee would soon be restored to normal condition.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drayer and daughter, Miss Hilda Drayer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wartenbee and daughter will go to Chicago tomorrow and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kautler will go to Cincinnati to spend the week-end with friends. The gentlemen named are Pennsylvania blacksmiths.

Although he is supposed to be on a vacation, B. Shipley, division storekeeper of the Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Wellsburg, is attending the meeting of the division storekeepers and taking an active part in the proceedings. Later he will take an automobile trip through parts of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Raymond Miller, engine dispatcher at the Pennsylvania round house, left at noon today on a western trip that will consume two or three weeks. He will spend a portion of the time with friends at Denver and Salt Lake City and will visit other points of interest in Colorado and Utah. During Mr. Miller's absence P. V. Johann will serve as engine dispatcher.

Ottawa county, which first produced Elberta peaches, is just commencing to send out its crop. It is said there will be over 2,000 car loads of peaches shipped from that county from now until the 10th of September and the grovers and shippers are worried lest they may not be able to get cars enough. The Ottawa crop of peaches is the best in history and prices are likely to be low.

Italians are passing through Fort Wayne in great numbers, bound for their native country to take a hand in the war against Austria. The Nickel Plate has received the bulk of the business so far, though the Pennsylvania and the Wabash has handled quite a number of the foreigners. The Nickel Plate gets a great many of the Italians from the southwest, they being brought to that line by the Clover Leaf, which crosses the Nickel Plate at Continental.

Press Comment on the Arabic

Indianapolis News: The question is not whether American lives were lost—though that would aggravate the offense—but whether they were "put in jeopardy" by the sinking of the Arabic.

The questions to be determined are whether the Arabic was torpedoed without warning and whether the Arabic herself received a summons to stop and refused to heed it.

Indianapolis Star: Judgment will have to be withheld until the full details of the sinking of the Arabic become known, but there is no question that a grave crisis confronts the United States, if American citizens lost their lives on the ill-fated vessel.

Chicago Journal: The sinking of the Arabic is exactly the same sort of piracy as the sinking of the Lusitania, with the added aggravation of being needless. The Journal can see no use in arguing about neutral rights and humane duties with the Hohenzollern court.

Cincinnati Times-Star: If the Arabic was sunk without warning Germany evidently has decided upon a distinct ignoring of the humanitarian rules of international law notwithstanding the just protest of the United States.

Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune: The sinking of the Arabic with American passengers aboard adds little or nothing to the seriousness of the situation which already has reached a point where either this country or Germany perforce must retire from the position taken or else resort to more strenuous methods.

Washington Herald: The gravity of the situation that has been forced upon us cannot be magnified. There is no virtue in further forbearance. Whatever its results, the quarrel is of Germany's seeking.

Washington Times: The sinking of the liner with the loss of two American lives appears to be the last answer to the last American note. The country will stand back of the president in whatever action he may take.

Richmond News-Leader: The most ominous feature of the sinking is the lack of excitement among the American people. If there is no rupture over the Arabic there will be a new provocation.

Kansas City Star: The sinking of the Arabic looks like the deliberately unfriendly aim against which President Wilson gave his timely and friendly warning.

KOHLMAN.
Mrs. Mary Kohlman, one of the oldest women residents of Fort Wayne, died Thursday evening at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frank Henkenius, 435 East Jefferson street, following an illness due to infirmities of age. Death came at the advanced age of 89 years. Born in Germany, February 23, 1826, she came to America in 1849. She moved directly to Fort Wayne and four years later was united in marriage to Jacob Kohlman, who died twenty-five years ago. Mrs. Kohlman had been a member of St. Mary's Catholic church for the past sixty-five years and was also a member of the Rosary and Altar societies of the same congregation.

Surviving she leaves two children—Mrs. Frank Henkenius and Mrs. Joseph Voigt, both of this city, eleven grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren. Four children preceded her in death.

Funeral services Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church; interment at the Catholic cemetery.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Becker. Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Magdalene Becker will be held Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the residence and at 9 o'clock at St. Paul's Catholic church; interment at the Catholic cemetery.

Draker. Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Draker will be held Saturday morning at the residence and at 9 o'clock at Precious Blood Catholic church; interment at Lindenwood.

Allendorf. Funeral services for Carl Ernest Allendorf will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence and will be private. Interment at Lindenwood.

French Lick, Ind., Aug. 20.—This is practically the last day of the encampment of the uniformed rank Knights of Pythias of Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky. Tomorrow morning, early, camp will be broken. A heavy rain began falling at midnight and at 8 o'clock this morning inspection of the companies competing for prizes was called. The parade ground was covered with six inches of water. The inspection was therefore held on the side veranda of the hotel.

WILL TRY MUNCIE CASES.

Muncie, Ind., Aug. 20.—Judge Luther Pence, of the Madison circuit court, was today selected to preside at the trial of the libel suit brought by Wilbur Ryman against Gene Williams, deputy prosecuting attorney. Ralph Gregory, city judge, and others. The suit arose out of allegations made against Ryman by the defendants in connection with the so-called graft cases, in which Ryman acted as special prosecutor.

BULLETIN.

London, Aug. 20.—The Exchange Telegraph company today received the following dispatch dated Berlin, via Amsterdam:

"News of the sinking of the Arabic caused great nervousness, the foreign office fearing it would lead to serious difficulties with Washington. "Details were withheld from the newspapers which are prohibited from making comment."

BULLETIN.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—A report was circulated here today that the White Star liner Lapland had been sunk. There was no confirmation of this report and it is considered probable that the Lapland was confused with the British steamer New York City, torpedoed yesterday, whose crew was landed here today.

PLAN TO FINANCE BIG BRITISH LOAN

New York, Aug. 20.—Negotiations looking to the financing here of a $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 British loan to pay for American supplies bought abroad continued today unaffected, it was said, by the sinking of the Arabic or international complications which may result. No official announcement concerning progress was made but the foreign exchange markets, apparently buoyed by the belief that the loan soon would be floated, took on a stronger tone.

Sterling was quoted at three-quarters of a cent higher than its closing quotation of 4.67 1/4 yesterday, while many large banking houses declined to quote continental exchange at all.

BRITISH SUBMARINE GROUNDED; MEN LOST

London, Aug. 20.—4:45 p. m.—Official announcement was made today that a British submarine had grounded in the sound. Fifteen members of the crew were saved.

The official announcement follows: "A British submarine, the E-13, Lieut. Commander Layton, on its way to the Baltic, grounded yesterday morning on the Danish island of Saltholm, in the sound."

"Fifteen officers and men are reported to have been saved while fifteen are missing. Full details will be made known as soon as they are received."

WANTS DECATUR MAN DECLARED BANKRUPT

Petition Filed by First National Bank Against Julius Haugk.

A petition was filed in the federal court Friday afternoon by the First National bank asking that Julius Haugk, of Decatur, be declared a bankrupt. The petition sets forth that Haugk is indebted to the First National bank in the sum of $500. The bank alleges that it loaned money to the Carwell Lumber company and to the Allison Real Estate company, Rufus K. Allison executing his bond guaranteeing payment of all sums owing by the two corporations upon which bond Julius Haugk and Henry Hite became securities. The petitioner has exhausted all the property of Allison and the corporations and there still remains due upon the bond a sum exceeding $10,000. The petition sets forth that Haugk is not a wage-earner or engaged chiefly in farming and tillage of the soil, but is at the present time subject to be adjudged a bankrupt.

PURDUE PROFESSOR SAVED FROM ARABIC

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 20.—A cablegram received here today from Queenstown stated that Prof. Alfred Still, of Purdue university, was aboard the Arabic. He left for Europe early this summer to install a testing plant at Lancaster, England. Prof. Still was instrumental in saving the life of his maid, Miss Hyde, also a passenger.

Mrs. Still and her children are spending the summer at Lake James, and have made a great many Fort Wayne friends among the visitors at the lake. The Sentinel Friday afternoon gave Mrs. Still her first information on the safety of her husband, the message being sent to her by Mrs. W. D. and Carrithers Calvin, following dispatch dated Berlin, via Amsterdam.

SIGNS WILL DIRECT WHICH ROAD TO TAKE

NEWPORT TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 20.—R. Norris Williams, second, of Philadelphia, the national champion, and Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, the former title holder, won their matches in the semi-finals of the singles tennis tournament at the Casino today. Williams disposed of C. J. Griffin, of San Francisco, in straight sets and McLoughlin defeated N. W. Niles, of Boston, three sets to one. The winners will meet tomorrow in the final round of the Casino cup competition.

ST LOUIS IN THROES OF MIGHTY FLOOD

Heavy and Persistent Rain
Has Called Out the Lifeboats.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—By the middle of the afternoon every automobile road and street car line leading from St. Louis to the surrounding suburban towns had been closed because of high water. Firemen were rescuing inhabitants of several suburbs from second story windows in boats.

The first regiment armory and the coliseum will be open tonight to house thousands of suburbanites who cannot get home.

Four feet of water entered the subway of the Union station, the underground passage through which baggage and mail is handled.

Street car service to suburbs was discontinued on many lines.

In many parts of the city cars were stalled and transportation was completely cut off from many points within the St. Louis limits.

Shortly before noon, Mayor Kiel ordered street department trucks to take life boats from the city harbor to Maplewood to help in the work of rescue.

At noon one fire engine company in the extreme southern part of St. Louis, had taken 115 persons from their homes. A Wabash train from Omaha was stalled north of Delmar station, which is about six miles northwest of the union station. Most of the passengers left the train before the water got too high for them to get out. In the 16 1/2 hours ending at 11:40 a. m., the rainfall in St. Louis was 5.2 inches, the heaviest rainfall here since the government records have been kept.

MATINEE SATURDAY.

But Three More Performances of "The Penalty" at the Temple.

"The Penalty" will be presented at a matinee performance Saturday, by the Payson Players at the Temple theater. This intense drama, harrowing possibly to some minds, but of tense interest to the majority of people, has proved an admirable matinee vehicle as the commingling of laughter, tears, smiles and heart throbbing moments, make it a play of parts, a play that retains one's interest in every scene.

DOING LAND OFFICE
BUSINESS IN WHEELS

Detective W. F. Pappert arrested Isaac Falewger of 1123 Hayden street, Friday afternoon for stealing and selling bicycles. Falewger, who is a foreigner, has been doing a land office business in bicycles for over a year and was doing it so smoothly that he was not suspected until a few days ago. His plan of operation was to steal three or four wheels, tear them apart and use parts from each one in rebuilding them. Then the wheel was painted so that all parts would correspond in color. Leo Kratzmann, of Weiser Park avenue, had a bicycle stolen from his barn over a year ago and no trace of it could be found. Detective Pappert found one of the wheels he had stolen and when he scraped the paint from the frame he found the number D24532P, the number which Kratzmann had given the police when his disappeared. Falewger states that he found the wheel in an alley.

Indiana and Ohio
Traction

Chicago and New York capitalists associated in new company to take over and electrify 56 miles steam railroad, north-eastern Indiana, insist part of new securities and majority directors and officials reside in Indiana.

Road well built. Connects three county seats and ten smaller places. Locality served has 13% greater population than other roads. Cost one million, five hundred thousand dollars to build and equip.

Present value of private right-of-way, road bed, buildings, terminals, shops, cars, locomotives and other equipment appraised June 22, 1915 by J. G. White Engineering Company, of N. Y., at $901,964.

Entire property, franchises, etc., purchased at judicial sale for $357,000. Title clear. Properties came to present company free of liabilities.

Average earning of Interurbans in Indiana is $7.69 per capita of population served. Figuring on population reported by J. G. White Engineering Corp. gives this road a potential earning of $269,319 a year, when electrified.

Operating expenses should be 66% of gross receipts. This leaves the company a net earning of $100,748 with which to pay interest, taxes and other fixed charges.

Present issue 6% Gold Debenture Bonds limited to $150,000. Certified by The Chicago Title & Trust Co. Securities on same basis as farm mortgages, with 26% fully paid, non-assessable preferred stock as a bonus.

These Debenture Bonds in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. Interest payable Aug. 1st and Feby. 1st. The company reserves privilege of redemption on any interest day, after one year at par plus a premium equal to 1% per annum for the unexpired term of the bond.

Two steam roads and two interurbans running out of Fort Wayne intercept this line. Only an hour's ride to make personal investigation.

Better and safer investment in your own front yard, so to speak, than can be found elsewhere. Full information cheerfully given.

ANOTHER QUIET DAY RECORDED ON MARKET

A very quiet day was recorded on the local markets Friday, with receipts very light and bidding light and inactive. Twenty-two loads of hay and grain were received at the city scales and prices remained the same as Thursday. New hay brought from $10 to $12 a ton while corn prices ranged from 85c to 90c a bushel. One load of new oats brought 45c, while one load of old oats appeared and was quickly sold at 60c a bushel. Grain dealers and millers are on the lookout for the old grain but are rather leary about purchasing new as the quality is nothing extraordinary.

Commission and produce circles are very quiet and have been the entire week with the exception that there is a large demand for peaches. The shipments average large and the quality is excellent and grocers are finding it not at all difficult to dispose of them. The Michigan Abertons are arriving. The fruit is retailing at the moderate price of $1.35 per bushel.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Although wheat showed some tendency to decline today the depression soon wore off. Misgivings in regard to possible complications from the sinking of the Arabic led to a good deal of selling at the start. Opening quotations, which ranged from 34c to 1 1/2c lower, with September at $1.05 to $1.05 1/2, and December at $1.02 1/2 to $1.04, were followed by a decided generally rally that carried September well above yesterday's close.

The close was steady at 1c to 1 1/2c net decline, with September at $1.04 1/2 and December at $1.02 1/2.

Cool weather hindering growth had a bullish effect on corn. After opening a shade off to 3/4c up, with September at 75 1/2c to 76c, and December at 64 1/2c to 64 3/4c, the market scored a moderate advance all around.

The close was steady but 1/4c to 1/2c net lower, with September at 75 1/2c to 75 3/4c, and December at 63 1/2c to 63 3/4c.

Continued delays to harvest made oats firm from the outset.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Arabic incident caused extreme weakness in war specialties at the opening of today's market, losses in that group ranging from three to eight points. General Motors, New York Airbrake, Studebaker, Goodrich, Westinghouse, American Can and Crucible Steel led the decline, which probably was assisted by heavy short selling. U. S. Steel was heaviest of the favorites, a lot of 8,000 shares being offered at 73 to 72, a mass rumormongering of 2 1/2 points. In the main railway shares were relatively steady, recessions in that part of the list being limited to a point or less. Railroads of two to four points in the specialties caused before the expiration of the first half hour.

Sales of the first hour exceeded 350,000 shares, steel supplying one-fifth of the whole. It yielded one-half of its two point recovery but made partial improvement from that level. Similar irregularity was shown by other industrial and specialties. Railroads became heavier later. Hartman and Hill issues, together with Reading, falling under yesterday's minimum quotations. Bonds were lower. Further gains in specialties were made in the final hour and the more substantial stocks also were stronger. The closing was steady.

THE MONEY MARKET.

RESOLUTION AFFIRMED.

The resolution for the widening of Alexander street, from Pontiac street to Huestis and Taylor's subdivision, lot No. 97, was confirmed by the board of public works at its meeting Thursday night, as were all the other improvement assessment rolls. It was the third time the matter has been brought up and both other times it was defeated.

BIG STORM AT EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 20.—The rain and wind storm which local weather bureau officials say is the result of the Texas tornado's progress over this section, struck this city Thursday night and Friday, flattening corn and doing extensive damage to the fruit crop. The rainfall for the last 24 hours was 1.4 inches.

CORONER INQUIRES INTO TOT'S SUICIDE

Suspicion Raised Against Step-mother of Girl at Montpelier.

Hartford City, Ind., Aug. 20.—A sensation similar to that in the Krauss case in this city ten years ago, when pretty Crystal Krauss, 16 years old, was poisoned by her stepmother, who is serving a life sentence in prison, has been caused by the announcement of a rigid investigation of the supposed suicide of 9-year-old Dena Baker at Montpelier Wednesday. Coroner Rutledge, of this city, said he would proceed cautiously with the investigation, which was started by Deputy Prosecutor James Sturges.

Mrs. A. C. Baker, stepmother of the child, who declared the girl committed suicide because of a longing "to be an angel," is expected to be a witness before the coroner. The stepmother formerly was a school teacher at Carmel, Ind.

Mrs. Baker asserted that the girl climbed up to a cupboard, took down a bottle of poison and drank three teaspoonfuls, corked the bottle and replaced it and then stood for some time, denying to her stepmother that she had touched the acid.

It is said that neighbors told the deputy prosecutor that the child had been subjected to gross mistreatment.

Two neighbors, Mrs. Greenville Baxter and Mrs. V. B. Yount, who laid out the body following the girl's death, testified yesterday that there were welts on the body.

Coroner Rutledge announced late yesterday that he would hold a post-mortem. Link Cook, a traveling grocery salesman, who calls regularly on A. C. Baker, the father of the dead girl, was subpoenaed. Cook informed the coroner it is said that he had a conversation with the father while in his store recently regarding Mrs. Baker's treatment of the child. On one occasion Cook told the coroner the stepmother stripped the child of her clothing and beat her with a razor strap. Dena told her father and the stepmother is said to have threatened to kill her, according to Cook.

Merchandise and treasure to the value of $65,500,000 moved between Alaska and the United States in 1914, an increase of $4,000,000 over 1913.

KILLEN CITED TO APPEAR IN COURT

Must Show Cause Why He Has Not Obeyed the Judge's Orders.

George Killen, proprietor of a moving picture theater on South Calhoun street, was cited Friday to appear in court on affidavit of his divorced wife, Carrie L. Killen, and show cause why he has not contributed toward her support as ordered in the decree.

According to Mrs. Killen's affidavit her husband was ordered to pay $30 a month on the 5th of each month until modified by the court. She alleges that he has failed to make such payments and a total of $60 is now due, although he is well able to pay. Killen has since remarried.

Two other citations were issued in the superior court Friday afternoon. Ernest C. Bauermeister is ordered to appear in court on August 24 and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for failure to obey the order of the court. The citation was issued at the request of his divorced wife, Frieda Bauermeister.

Vern Pollock is ordered to appear in court on August 25, complaint being made against him by his divorced wife, Iva Pollock, who alleges that he has failed to abide by the order of court. Killen is ordered to appear on August 26.

Suit for Divorce.

Charging extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and failure to provide, Rosa A. Fry, through her attorneys, Breen and Morris, filed suit in the superior court Friday afternoon asking for a divorce from Charles E. Fry. Mr. and Mrs. Fry were married on July 5, 1905, and separated August 15, 1915. She also is asking for the custody of their five children and alimony in the sum of $2,000. Mr. and Mrs. Fry are the joint owners of a farm in Jackson township.

Hears Divorce Case.

When Peter Ledig started to work one morning his wife kissed him good bye, following him to the door, where they again embraced. At 5 o'clock that same evening, when he returned home from work he found the doors locked and a neighbor told him that she had departed, taking her belongings. A week later he found a note written by her telling him she was going away to never return. Such was the testimony he gave in the superior court Friday afternoon at the hearing on a cross complaint, which he filed in the suit originally brought by his wife, Minnie Ledig.

WILL OPEN NEW BRIDGE.

The new concrete bridge on the Lincoln highway just west of New Haven, will be thrown open to the public Saturday. The bridge was inspected by the county commissioners Friday afternoon.

William Tonkel, superintendent of roads, stated Friday that road work is again being resumed in Allen county now that the farmers are not so busy and it is possible to get the necessary help. Work was started this week repairing the Leo and Goshen roads.

George Courter was found to be of unsound mind, Thursday, in the court of Justice of the Peace August C. Niemman by a commission composed of Drs. Macbeth, Schneider and Van Sweringen. The record of the inquest was filed with the county clerk Friday.

Fishing Licenses.

Since the first of August a total of 250 hunting and fishing licenses have been issued at the county clerk's office. During the month of July over 900 licenses were issued and it is not likely that this number will be reached this month, which is now more than half gone.

Allen County Gets $1,177.87. Allen county will get $1,177.87 of the $500,327.79 to be distributed by the state of Indiana to the twenty-two counties from funds which have accumulated during the last six months from automobile licenses. Allen county gets more than any other county with the exception of Marion county. St. Joseph county is third.

Wants Partnership Dissolved. Suit to dissolve partnership and for the appointment of a receiver has been filed in the superior court by John Gruen against John Steltzer. Gruen and Steltzer are owners of a blacksmith shop and truck farm four miles west of Fort Wayne on the Yellow river road. Gruen alleges that the defendant took possession of the place on March 20 and that he refuses to permit him to have access to the books so he can ascertain the amount of business that is being done. Gruen is represented by Attorneys Harper and Fuchler.

BREAK WITH GERMANY IS AGAIN NEAR

Washington Gravely Ponders the Arabic Affair, But Awaits Official Details.

President and Advisers Await Decisive Proof That Lives of Americans Were Lost.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The official details upon which President Wilson will decide whether the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic was an act deliberately unfriendly to the United States, were still lacking today and meanwhile the president and all other administration officials while realizing fully the gravity of the new situation between the United States and Germany, were keeping their minds open.

Situation is Critical.

There is no attempt in official quarters to minimize the situation confronting the president if investigation develops a violation of American rights in defiance of the last note to Germany which gave notice in final terms that another sinking like that of the Lusitania would be considered an act "deliberately unfriendly."

The prospect of severance of diplomatic relations with Germany again came forward, but it was understood that if such a course should be decided upon, it would not be immediately announced. Certain arrangements to transfer to some other neutral the humanitarian trusts in the war zone which the United States has undertaken for the world would first be necessary.

Developments Are Awaited.

Officials awaited developments hourly without a trace of agitation but with evidences of sober earnestness which portrayed the concern for a situation which admittedly never has been more grave.

President Wilson left the White House early to motor to Philadelphia to visit his onlist and motor back to the capital this evening. When he has a deep problem in his mind, it is the president's habit to seek seclusion, often riding through the countryside.

No officials here doubted that he was giving hours of thought to the Arabic case. Only two of the dispatches had been received and they gave the fruits of no independent investigation merely transmitting the reports of the White Star line.

The United States will decide its course upon the reports of its own officials.

Ambassador Page forwarded a White Star report that the ship was torpedoed without warning and Vice Consul Thompson, at Queenstown, made a similar report. Neither accounted for Mrs. Josephine S. Brugniere nor Dr. Edmund Woods, the two Americans still missing.

Some Salient Points.

While officials here are keeping their minds open during the hours which will be required for assembling the official

DEATH LIST IS GROWING

But List of Missing in the Gulf Storm is Much Decreased.

THE KNOWN DEAD NOW NUMBER 116
Food Supplies Are Going Into Galveston and Other Places.

Houston, Texas, Aug. 20.—The death list from the Texas coast storm increased slightly today and the missing list decreased considerably. The known death list was 116 today, including 13 known dead in Galveston.

Some other bodies were found about Galveston but they were supposed to be mostly from the mainland.

The dead probably will be increased by a dozen or more when the Virginia Point hotel collapse is cleared up.

Twenty persons are listed as missing in this collapse and up to today no trace of them has been reported here.

Reports indicated that the thirty persons yesterday listed as missing at Bolivar, had been found. Outside of these thirty the only other single large missing list was fifty hands on the dredge Houston.

The fact that nearly all hands on a dozen other dredges working in the same vicinity near Galveston had turned up alive after two or three days' search for them, relieved worry over the Houston crew.

A conservative estimate of the missing today was less than 100. Reports from Galveston were optimistic for rapid recovery of the city's routes for food supplies and for early establishment of wire connections.

GETTING INTO SOME ORDER.

LYNCHING TREE IS TO BE PRESERVED

Marquette, Ga., Aug. 20.—Watchmen today were guarding the big oak tree, two miles from here, on which the lifeless body of Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, was found dangling last Tuesday morning, to prevent souvenir hunters or others from molesting it. The tree soon is to be surrounded with a concrete wall, it is announced, and thus preserved by the owner, W. J. Frey, to mark the death place of the alleged slayer of the Phagan girl. Meanwhile the tree is being guarded night and day. It was said that Mr. Frey had declined an offer of $200 for the tree and in doing so the plan to build a wall about the tree became known.

DIDN'T WANT FATHER TO KNOW HE JOINED

F. M. Howard, 19 years old, a well known young man residing in Decatur, was accepted for enlistment in Uncle Sam's navy, Thursday at Indianapolis. He made application at the Fort Wayne recruiting station and having passed the examination here was sent to Indianapolis for a final test. Before leaving Fort Wayne Howard was very anxious that nothing be said of his enlistment until after he had passed the final examination for the reason that he did not want his father to know until after he had been accepted. He was afraid that his father might object, and after he had been accepted he knew it would then be too late.

SISTERS MAKE CHASTLY FIND

Discover Body of Mrs. Ella Mulford in Cellar of Vacant House.

A TRAGIC DEATH IN VACANT HOUSE

Lay All Night Unconscious Following Plunge Down Dark Stairway.

Following an all-night search for their sister, Mrs. Ella Mulford, 336 Madison street, who disappeared Thursday evening, Mrs. Ida Thomas and Mrs.

Mrs. Ella Mulford, who was found dead in cellar of vacant house.

Alla Hammond, went into a vacant house at 824 Lafayette street, at eight thirty Friday morning, and by the light of a match held at the top of a steep cellar stairway, discovered the blood-spattered body of the missing woman huddled on the stone floor at the bottom. The body was still warm, and death had occurred but a short time before the horrible discovery.

Mrs. Mulford had contemplated moving into a new house, and had left home at four o'clock Thursday afternoon to look over prospective rental properties. She applied at the door of Mrs. A. Quince, who occupies the other half of the double dwelling, for a key to No. 824. That was the last that was seen of her. Mrs. Quince sent her son into the house at dusk to see why the key had not been returned, but he reported that he could find no trace of the woman.

Occupants of the other half of the building heard no scream, no thud and no sound in the night, and it was not until the sisters of the dead woman came upon her body that the neighbors realized that a tragedy had occurred under their roof.

That the woman had been dead but a short time was evident from the condition of the body when it was found, and she probably lay in an unconscious condition through the entire night. The

REPORT SHOWS 13,414 STUDENTS ENROLLED

According to the statistical report of D. O. McComb, county superintendent, Allen county had enrolled in her schools during the school year of 1914-15 a total of 13,414 pupils, including the city schools.

The average daily attendance in the grade schools of the county for the year was 8,890, and for the high school pupils 976. The number of pupils in each grade of the common and high schools was as follows: First year, 1,584; second year, 1,557; third year, 1,490; fourth year, 1,552; fifth year, 1,544; sixth year, 1,348; seventh year, 1,102; eighth year, 887. High school—First year, 487; second year, 301; third year, 264, and fourth year, 288.

There was a total of 6,010 pupils enrolled in the private and parochial schools of the county, 3,233 males and 2,777 females. During the year there were 378 teachers of elementary subjects, 51 teachers of regular high school subjects, 17 principals of elementary schools, 6 high school principals, 13 supervisors and special teachers and 1 superintendent, making a total of 406.

BUT TWO AMERICANS IN LIST OF MISSING

These Are Believed to be Among Those Whose Lives Were Lost When the Arabic Was Torpedoed.

London, Aug. 20.—(1:23 p. m.)—It has now been definitely established, the White Star line announced this afternoon, that only two Americans on the Arabic are unaccounted for.

These are Dr. Edmund F. Woods and either Mrs. Josephine Brugniere or Louis Brugniere. The name of Louis Brugniere appears on the American embassy's list of the saved.

It is understood that the Arabic carried between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 worth of American securities for New York. These all were insured but the underwriters at Lloyd's and the various financial institutions were busy this morning looking up the details and arranging claims. One firm alone had $1,250,000 worth of securities on the sunken vessel. It is understood that some stocks are being purchased in America to cover these.

BUT EIGHT PASSENGERS MISSED.

White Star Company Says All Others Are Accounted For.

London, Aug. 20.—The best information now available indicates that a score or more persons lost their lives in the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic by a German submarine yesterday morning off the south coast of Ireland. Thus far it has not been determined definitely whether any Americans are among the dead. Dr. Edmund F. Woods, of Janesville, Wis., and Mrs. Josephine L. Brugniere, an American who had lived in Europe for some years, are missing.

Eight Passengers Missing.

The White Star line announced this morning that all but eight of the passengers had been landed at Queenstown. Four of these were said to be Americans. According to information cabled to Washington by Lewis C. Thompson, American consul at Queenstown, however, Dr. Woods and Mrs. Brugniere are the only missing Americans. The other two—James Houlihan of Philadelphia, and Thomas Elmore, of New York—were reported by Mr. Thompson to have been saved. In all, about 400 of the 423 persons on board the Arabic have been accounted for. The fate of the others is still in doubt, but as the hours lengthen since the Arabic met with swift destruction, hopes that the others may have been saved are fading.

Most of Dead Are Sailors.

The announcement that all but eight of the passengers were saved bore out earlier reports that the great majority of the missing were members of the crew. Captain William Finch, of the Arabic, gave testimony to the heroism of his engineers and firemen, several of

NEW YORK IS SAVED FROM FLOATING MINE

Fort Totten Squad Rowed Out and Captured the Bomb.

New York, Aug. 20.—There was much excitement the other day at Fort Totten. For two days the rumor had been circulating that an escaped mine was floating through the sound trying to sneak past the fort, and—who knows?—eventually reach the battery and blow the whole city. It was finally decided the mine must be captured at all costs.

It was a dangerous mission, so the sergeant who was given the task of capture called for volunteers. Three men responded. For two hours they rowed around in hot sun.

"There she is," finally yelled the sergeant, who can sing, "Tipperary" better than anyone else at the fort because he hails from there. Sure enough, she was, bobbing up and down in the water—up and down. Cautiously they closed in.

"I know it," yelled the sergeant. "They even had the nerve to label it."

Across the face of the bobbing thing was a green stamp, which read: "Edn halbes fass."

The excitement was intense as the sergeant gently pushed it over on its side with an oar.

The whole plot was unearthed. The "bomb" was a beer keg, and—empty.

WILL WRITE WAR OPERA.

WAR GIVES ZIONIST MOVEMENT IMPETUS

New York, Aug. 20.—Advocates of the plan to hold a Jewish congress to unite those who favor the abolition of Jewish disabilities in Russia and the establishment of a Zionist state in Palestine at the close of the war, were encouraged today by the approval of many Jews of this city expressed at a mass meeting held in Cooper Union.

Practically everybody who attended the meeting last night voted in favor of holding the congress. The hall was crowded and hundreds were unable to gain admission. Speakers suggested that the American delegates to the proposed congress should be chosen by vote and denounced the idea of holding the congress behind closed doors.

German Submarines In Fierce Campaign In British Waters

New York, Aug. 20.—Advisers received here today bring the report that the White Star liner Bovic had been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine.

The Bovic has been employed in the Australian service. She was a vessel of 3,600 tons.

The local offices of the White Star line were without direct news of the sinking of the Bovic, although they had heard the report, which came, it was said, from London.

The Bovic, it was said by the officials, was a freighter and on her last trip sailed on August 8 from New York for Manchester, England. The Bovic is a slow boat, having a speed of about ten knots an hour and according to the officials, should just about be in the war zone today.

The Bovic, when she sailed from here was loaded to capacity with a general cargo, including, it is said, a large quantity of war munitions. The Bovic carried no passengers.

The entire crew was signed up in England and there were believed to be no Americans among the number. The crew consisted of about sixty men.

FOUR OTHERS SENT DOWN.

London, Aug. 20.—Two small British steamers, the Restormel and the Baron Erskine, have been sunk by German submarines. Both crews were saved.

The Restormel, 1,349 tons, was built at Greenock in 1901 and owned by J. Cory & Sons, limited, of Cardiff. The Baron Erskine, 3,550 tons, was built at Dumbarton in 1911. Her owner was

MAY REMOVE GOVERNMENT TO MOSCOW

Russians Alarmed by Advance of Germans Toward Petrograd Looks to Old Capital.

Fortress of Novogeorgievsk is Captured With 20,000 Men and Immense Stores.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Twenty or more persons are believed to have lost their lives when the liner Arabic was sunk by a German submarine yesterday. Among the eight passengers missing are two Americans.

The other missing members of the crew. The government in Washington is withholding comment until definite official information is received as to whether American lives were lost.

Novogeorgievsk, the strong Russian fortress northwest of Warsaw, which the Russians continued to hold after they abandoned the Polish capital, has been taken by the Germans. More than 20,000 men were captured with the fortress and an enormous stock of war material, Berlin announces. Emperor William has left for Novogeorgievsk personally to thank Gen. von Beseler and his troops who took the stronghold.

The Teutonic armies pursuing the Russians eastward, are closing in fast on the fortress of Brest-Litovsk and making progress in nearly all other sectors of the front according to German army headquarters.

In the vicinity of Augustowo and Grodno, however, the Russians stopped their retreat and gave battle to the Germans.

A Norwegian mail ship, the Irma, was stopped by a German submarine in Norwegian territorial waters but was driven off by a Norwegian torpedo boat, a dispatch from Christiania states.

Further progress by the British left wing on the Gallipoli peninsula is reported through the French war office.

Paris declares the German losses in the recent fighting in the Vosges were very heavy. Berlin concedes the loss to the French of a small section of German first line positions at Scharzhannle and announces the recapture of the trenches taken by the French between Angres and Souchez.

German submarines have sunk the Spanish steamer Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg. London also has received a report that the British steamer New York City, of 2,790 tons, has been sunk.

London, Aug. 20.—As the Austrians and Germans press on to the last of the outlying fortresses standing between the Russian capital and the invaders, Petrograd is discussing the advisability of removing the government to its ancient seat at Moscow, always considered the heart of the nation. Kovno is now definitely in the hands of the Germans. The banking movement of Field Marshal von Mackensen grows more threatening hourly and it would not be surprising if Grand Duke Nicholas should abandon all efforts to form a new line with Brest-Litovsk as the pivot.

From Brest-Litovsk to Ossowetz, which seems to be withstanding the assaults of the heavy German guns better than any other fortress, fierce fighting continues with the advantage in favor of the invaders. Petrograd states that the Russian warships protecting the gulf of Riga were compelled to draw in closer, owing to the superiority of the German squadron.

The landing of British troops at Suvla bay, Gallipoli peninsula, is regarded here as a partial disappointment. The Turks had concentrated their forces in the Anzoe zone, a little to the south, but were able to send troops north in time to prevent any important advance of the landing forces. It is believed here that no formal movement of consequence is likely unless the English are reinforced considerably.

Italy and Turkey appear to be on the brink of a open rupture. The Italian

BODY OF MOB VICTIM BURIED

Remains of Leo M. Frank Are Laid to Rest in Brooklyn.

PERFECT ORDER MARKS THE EVENT

Widow Bears Up Well Until After Burial and She Then Collapses.

New York, Aug. 20.—The body of Leo M. Frank, who was lynched at Marietta, Ga., was buried today in Mount Carmel cemetery, Brooklyn.

The automobile hearse and the car carrying the immediate relatives of the dead man traveled at a high rate of speed over the six-mile route from the home of Frank's parents to the cemetery in a vain attempt to elude newspaper men and photographers.

Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Frank, the widow and Frank's sister, Mrs. Otto Stern, and her husband occupied the automobile that followed the hearse.

A dozen other relatives and friends occupied three additional automobiles. About forty curious persons were in the cemetery when Frank's body arrived and they crowded close to the grave during the service. Perfect order was maintained both at the Frank home and at the cemetery and the police on hand at both places found nothing to do.

Mrs. Lucille Frank, the widow, appeared calm and restrained until the burial service had concluded. Then she collapsed and was carried to an automobile. The services were conducted by Rabbi Alexander Lyons, of Brooklyn, and Rabbi David Marx, of Atlanta.

Further progress by the British left wing on the Gallipoli peninsula is reported through the French war office.

Paris declares the German losses in the recent fighting in the Vosges were very heavy. Berlin concedes the loss to the French of a small section of German first line positions at Scharzhannle and announces the recapture of the trenches taken by the French between Angres and Souchez.

German submarines have sunk the Spanish steamer Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg. London also has received a report that the British steamer New York City, of 2,790 tons, has been sunk.

FORT WAYNE OFFICER ON COURT MARTIAL

Major Clyde Dreisbach to
Be on Board to Try Member of Guard.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20. The fifteen officers who are to form the military court to try Edwin C. Ball, a member of the Indiana National Guard who shot Walter Howell, another guardsman, in July, 1913, were named yesterday. The trial was set for September 7 and will be held in the state house.

Ball was doing provost duty in the national guard camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison when the shooting occurred. He arrested Howell because it was alleged Howell tried to smuggle liquor into camp. Howell tried to escape while being taken to camp and Ball shot and fatally wounded him. Ball was arrested and indicted for murder, but it was decided that the civil authorities had no jurisdiction in the case. The names of the fourteen men to comprise the military court were contained in an order convening a general court-martial issued by Adjutant General Frank L. Bridges upon order of Governor Ralston. The officers who are to form the court are as follows:

Col. Henri T. Conde, of Indianapolis, commander of the Second regiment; Lieut. Col. Thomas R. Condon, Vincennes; Maj. Spurgeon N. Markley, Columbus City; Maj. Emmett F. Branch, Martinsville; Maj. Clyde F. Dreisbach, Fort Wayne; Maj. George H. Healey, Kennesaw; Capt. Edward F. Otto, Crawfordsville; Capt. William P. Carpenter, Indianapolis; Capt. Albert C. Linn, Terre Haute; Capt. Ernest E. Luchow, Auburn; Capt. Laurant A. Douglas, Jeffersonville; Capt. Alexander W. Osborn, Evansville; Maj. Gideon W. Blain, Indianapolis, judge-advocate.

44TH INDIANA TO MEET AT ORLAND

Regiment Reside in
Allen County.

Great preparations are being made for the annual reunion of the Forty-fourth Indiana voluntary infantry of the civil war, to be held at Orland, Ind., on the St. Joe valley line between Lagrange and Angola, on Thursday, August 26.

Several survivors of the regiment reside in this city and vicinity, among them being: Lieutenant Colonel Philip Grund, John N. Kress, Company C; Alexander Ormison, Company C; Jasper Edsall, Company C; Charles Thomas, Company K; W. A. Kelsey, Company E, and Alfred Daugherty. The last named lost his leg at Shiloh.

The Forty-fourth Indiana volunteers were organized in September, 1861, the date of muster into the United States service following shortly after in Fort Wayne. The regiment represented the counties of Whitley, Kosciusko, Allen, Steuben, Elkhart and Lagrange. Colonel Hugh B. Reed was the first commanding officer.

RABBIT'S FOOT BAD LUCK FOR WILLIE

Old Saying Was Topped
When Johnson is Placed
Under Arrest.

Charleston, S. C. Aug. 20.—The old saying that a rabbit's foot is lucky was torpedoed by the night office force at the police station and one Willie Johnson suffered when a rabbit's foot was heaved into the waste basket. Johnson was arrested on a charge of larceny from a trunk and a suit case and when searched a rabbit's foot was found in his possession.

When Officer Tumbleton brought the rabbit's foot from Johnson's pocket the prisoner's face lit up, and in a tone that could be heard throughout the lobby he said: "Throw dat ting away; dat's what got me in yuh now." The police, also, are not much on the luck stuff, and, taking instructions from the prisoner, threw the rabbit's foot into the basket.

Johnson admitted the charge made against him and will go before Recorder Jervey minus the rabbit foot and take his chance with the recorder. He is held for having entered a trunk and a suit case and taking a pistol, a razor, a stickpin and several other articles belonging to E. O'Brien. He was engaged in moving Mr. O'Brien's belongings from Hanover street to Bertha street, when the theft was made.

PICKETT WILL BE HERE.

Poultry Judge at San Francisco Exposition Engaged for Local Show.

The announcement from San Francisco that H. A. Pickett, of Mattoon, Ill., has been chosen to act as judge of the American class of poultry at the Panama-Pacific exposition is especially pleasing to the fanciers of northeastern Indiana and the adjacent portions of Ohio and Michigan because of the fact that Mr. Pickett is coming to Fort Wayne in January to assist in making the local show the biggest thing yet known in poultry circles hereabouts.

Other judges who have been engaged for the Fort Wayne show are A. E. Hamlin, of Angola, Ind., and George H. Northrup, of Granville, N. Y.

Evidences are already appearing to encourage the claim that the forthcoming show will outshine all previous efforts.

New C. Schiefer Shoe Co. Brings Buster Brown Here

Buster Brown and his dog Tige will appear at the Majestic theater Saturday morning, September 4, at 10 a. m., when he will give a free exhibition and distribute souvenirs to the children attending. Also each child will be given one chance on twenty-four prizes which Buster will award.

The children of Fort Wayne will remember him as an old friend who has appeared here on several occasions for their amusement, and as a demonstrator of the wonderful Buster Brown shoe, which is sold exclusively by the New C. Schiefer Shoe store, 233 West Leary street, Gauntt building.

Buster Brown shoes are without exception the most universally known child's shoe in the United States, and have always given unrivaled wear at a reasonable price. They also have style plus being made over the Buster Brown shaping lasts, which fit the foot along scientific lines and will prove effective against foot trouble in later years. This foot trouble is caused by wearing shoes that are not made to fit the child during the forming period.

All are invited to attend the show and can obtain tickets free of charge by applying in person at the New C. Schiefer Shoe store, commencing today.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By O. E. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 22

ASA'S GOOD REIGN.

LESSON TEXT—II Chron. 18:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—Draw nigh to God and he will draw nigh to you. James 4:8.

Skeptics who formerly laughed at the record of II Chron. 14:9 or at the reputed size of Xerxes' army are painfully silent in the face of the present European struggle where armies are reckoned by the millions. Abijah, Rehoboam's successor, easily defeated Jeroboam (ch. 13:18-20) because he "relied upon the Lord," and "Asa his son reigned in his stead."

1. Righteousness Exhorted, vv. 1-7. Returning from his wonderful victory over Zerah the Ethiopian, Asa is met by the spirit-anointed prophet, Azariah (v. 1). This man was taken possession of by the spirit of God (II Pet. 1:21; Num. 24:2; Judges 3:10; II Tim. 3:16). Thus it was that he commands even the king, "Hear ye me" (v. 2). His first words were encouraging ones, "Jehovah is with you," and the proof of his word was the victory Asa had just won, (ch. 12:8; Rom. 8:31; Deut. 20:1). That victory was a demonstration, it involved an obligation and had a lesson for the king as well, viz., that if he and his people would seek Jehovah they would find him, but if they forsake him "he will forsake you." The words recorded in verse three were a fearful indictment ("without the true God," Eph. 2:12) and they are a suggestive picture of this age that is so sadly in need of a "teaching priest" and is so constantly acting as though "without law" or else is a law unto itself. But God was merciful (Ps. 103:8; 117:2), and in that time of testing was working his good will. Thus it came that "in their great trouble" (v. 4) they sought Jehovah and "he was found of them," and "great vexations" also (Isa. 48:22). Our Lord has prophesied even greater calamities in the last days of Israel's apostasy (Matt. 24:6, 7) and the present upheaval in Europe can be largely traced to apostasy and to the treatment of God's people Israel.

2. The People's Part, vv. 8-15. (1) The King's Part, vv. 8, 9. Asa ad shown himself worthy of this special revelation from God: (a) his conduct (14:2, 3, 5); (b) his words of command and exhortation (14:4); (c) his care for and service in behalf of others (14:6); (d) his reliance upon and zeal of God (14:11). Verse eight is suggestive of the way he received this revelation; (a) he "took courage"—a word of commendation will revive any weary heart. (b) He "put away the abominations," most thoroughly, which his great-grandfather Solomon had brought into Israel, and in accordance with the word of God (Deut. 7:5). There are many strange altars in our land today, forms of religion that stand not the test of God's word and which not alone deceive the very elect but are sweeping into their vortex the sons and daughters of the saints of God. Anything, no matter how ethical or morally elevating or professedly religious, that measures not according to this word, should be torn down. (c) But Asa was constructive as well as destructive for he built again "the altar of Jehovah."

3. The People's Part, vv. 10-15. (a) They obeyed and gathered together at Jerusalem, at the proper time and place. (b) They "offered sacrifice unto the Lord." Heretofore their offerings had been to their selfishness or to strange gods. Their gift was a costly one and the Lord's treasury is always a standard whereby to measure the work of grace in the hearts of his people. (c) They made another covenant "to seek the Lord." (Ps. 105:3, 4; Amos 5:4, 6). Those who seek him find him (Ps. 14:2). To seek him is pleasing to him, but it must be as theirs, "with all their soul." We find God in Christ (John 14:6; I John 5:20). Whoever sought him not were punished, even so will those be who now turn from him (John 16:3, 9; Matt. 25). (d) They gave public testimony of their determination (v. 14). Loud protestations are not always permanent.

Conclusion. Though Asa had a parental handicap (I Kings 15:13) and lived in a corrupt court still he yielded to the teaching of God's word and therefore wrought a great reformation.

Recognizing the source of power in his own life Asa taught the people the word of God, to seek God and to keep his commandments.

Asa's reformation was in reality a religious revival and such is the only kind that has any permanency.

In the time of testing Asa (1) went to God for help; (2) pleaded the cause of God and the honor of his name; (3) went out to fight, trusting in God.

Revival heights and experiences bless us evermore, a new light shines in our daily life, the level of life is higher and the ideals of men and of communities are more noble and exalted.

No one can work his best without enthusiasm, and revivals provide both inspiration and enthusiasm.

Asa was freed from invasions for twenty years after this experience.

GERMAN AUTHORS ISSUE WAR PAPER

Camp Sheet is Full of Interest and Novelty to Everybody.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Of the numerous "war newspapers" that have made their appearance in camps, barracks and headquarters on the various battle fronts, none has been more successful than the "Lillem Kriegszeitung," published in Lille, France, the headquarters of the Sixth Army under command of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria. Success is due largely to the personality of its editors, Capt. Paul Oskar Hoecker and Baron von Ompteda, two well known German authors.

After forty weeks of publication, the editors have selected the best from the forty issues and have put it out in book form.

The little book is jammed with poetry and prose, with clever illustrations and sketches and excellent photographs.

rough jest nor by anything unworthy in picture or words.

"Remember the peace in thy soul, that this confidence may inspire thee when you serve the present and destroy its fearful works. For the future is as a feast day of thy people, an asylum of industry, and joy, for thee and thine, for all who endeavor, even for the stranger who dwells within the gates."

"Honor thy father and mother, by guarding the home and the ground they rest in."

"Thou shalt kill—for the sake of your life, which emanates from destruction."

"Thou shalt let nothing be stolen that belongs to thy people."

"Thou shalt honor Germany's women: they bear sacrifices and suffering without complaint."

"Thou shalt not tolerate false witness against thy people."

"Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's customs, good and bad, manner of speech and dress, nor anything else made for foreigners. But let German spirit in future go out to the world, strong through development, powerful in understanding, to gather the best of all peoples for use at home."

And in the same issue appeared one of the favorite acrostics headed by the question:

What has England and what have her allies to expect from their opponents!

The answer is:
T-u-rkei
O-esterreich
D-eutschland.

The three initial letters, T. O. D., make the German word "death."

The second German war loan of 9,000,000,000 marks was so large as to be incomprehensible to the average soldier, so one of them proceeded to make it intelligible by translating it into glasses of beer. Even then the sum was staggering.

Estimating each glass at 20 pfennigs, or one-fifth of a mark, the industrious figure achieved 45,000,000,000 glasses of beer. A war strength company of 250 men, drinking a glass of beer apiece each quarter of an hour day and night, would have to keep up drinking beer for 1,887,500 days, or 5,171 years, 85 days, in order to drink up the war loan.

For Summer Complaints.

"I cannot speak too highly of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it has been used by myself and husband for the past fifteen years and has never failed to give prompt relief," writes Mrs. Carrie Turner, Zanesville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Society

Miss Lois Thom, of Appleton, Wis., who is visiting Miss Pauline Saylor, is receiving considerable social attention and has been honored at a number of parties of which the latest was given by Misses Mildred and Marian Cutting, of West Wayne street, on Friday afternoon. There were but sixteen young girls present and they chatted over their sewing and later enjoyed the lunch with as much zest as if it had been the first entertainment in a month.

Misses Edith and Pearl Banta, of 113 West DeWahl street, entertained on Thursday afternoon for their guests, Miss Louise Inks and Miss Max Long-decker, of Ligonier, in a delightful manner. A color plan in the flowers, place cards and refreshments was carried out in pink and white in the dining room and in the living room the decoration was red. Covers were laid for fourteen at the luncheon.

Mrs. A. Wertheimer, of Ligonier, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Wolf, and Mrs. Nathan of Indianapolis, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. E. Meyer, met a few old friends this afternoon in a most informal way at the home of Mrs. Joseph Lohman.

Miss Italia Evans has issued invitations to a dancing party she will give at the Country club on Monday evening in honor of Miss Mary Randall and her fiancé, Mr. Charles F. Williams. On Monday afternoon Mrs. George Randall will entertain at her home on the north side for the same honor guests. Saturday evening Miss Linda McKinnis will give a dinner party for the bridal party at the Country club to honor Miss Randall and Mr. Williams.

Mrs. J. W. Cartwright has gone to Dayton, O., for a week's time to visit her son.

Mrs. H. O. Bruggeman has returned from a visit with her brother and his family in Chicago.

Miss Virginia Meyer, of Chicago, is visiting her aunts, the Misses Meyer of Harrison street.

There will be a reunion of the Vaughn family held at Swinney park next Sunday.

Miss Agnes Overman, of Covington, Ky., is visiting Miss Valette Lageman, of East Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paddy and Miss Paddy have come from an outing of a week at Tri-Lakes.

Miss Henrietta Schloss, of Ligonier, is visiting her cousins, Misses Anita and Helen Aderson, of West Wayne street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Duncan, of Des Moines, Ia., are to be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Tyler and family.

Mrs. E. T. Williams, of Clinton street, has returned from a few weeks' visit at Leland, Mich., with Mrs. J. W. Hayden.

Mrs. Charles Tyger and Miss Louise Tyger are at home from Rome City for a ten days' stay. They will then return to the lake to remain until time for school to open.

Miss Gertrude and Lucila Lankenau left Thursday for Decatur, to visit with their aunt, Mrs. Louis Koenemann.

Misses Elizabeth, Katherine and Minnie Goldstein are to leave on Sunday for a two weeks' visit in Chicago with relatives and friends.

Miss Carrie Moffatt returned Friday to her home in Madison after a visit of several weeks with Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Moffatt.

Mrs. H. F. Briscoe, Miss Martha and Harry Briscoe, of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Agne, of Lakeside.

Mrs. W. D. Kelly and son, of Cleveland, are here visiting her father and sister, H. A. Kephling and Miss Constance Kephling.

Miss Jane Wulle, of Chicago, and Miss Winnie Schaefer, of Brookville, are visiting Misses Dorothy and Margaret Underhill, of Park avenue.

Mrs. Catherine Summers and the Misses Nellie, of Douglas avenue, are entertaining Michael Nelligan, of Chicago, who is a near relative.

Mrs. George Hallmark and Mrs. George Jacobs have returned from Highland Park, Mich., where they accompanied their father, W. E. Mossman, who also came home with them.

Mrs. James MacMillen, three sons and daughter, Miss Marie, of Forest Park, boulevard, left Thursday afternoon for Washington, D. C., and from that point will go to Atlantic City and New York for visits.

Sister Pauline, from Davenport, Iowa, and a cousin of Mrs. Mary Muller and Messrs. S. and A. C. Aurenz, has returned home after a few days' visit at the Aurenz home in Forest Park boulevard.

Mrs. U. W. Ford, who had been visiting for a few days in Chicago, has returned here to continue her visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Greene, of West Berry street. Mrs. Ford's home is in Highlandtown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martz and daughter Dorothy will return Friday evening from Edwardsville, Ind., and will reside at 724 Cottage avenue. Mrs. Martz and her daughter have been at Edwardsville for the summer and Mr. Martz went there to accompany them home.

An indoor picnic was the way Miss Carrie Stiefel characterized an informal but none the less agreeable social affair on Thursday for Mrs. Edward Ginsberg and Miss Lois Thom, both visitors in the city. Miss Ruth Levy assisted the hostess in serving refreshing things to eat and drink.

The B. O. B. girls gave a "weenie" roast at Foster park Monday evening. These who enjoyed the good time were the Misses Ruth Foster, Lucila Jahn, Helen Wilkens, Adeline Agne, Emily Fenningroth, Mrs. Ralph Cassidy and the Messrs. George Dornte, William Jahn, Elmer Grieser and Howard Orr. Ralph Cassidy and Harry Briscoe, of Louisville, Ky., were guests of the party.

Mrs. Emil Verweire Williams entertained a few friends in a most agreeable manner, on Thursday afternoon, the guests being friends of Miss Maude Sites, a librarian in Washington, D. C., who is visiting her parents in West Crighton avenue. Miss Lucille Cunningham, of Oklahoma, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. R. Stahl, of Washington boulevard west, was another honor guest.

Miss Clara Ross gave a shower party on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Noll who is a prospective bride. Many pretty gifts were bestowed upon Miss Noll and the evening was spent pleasantly in visiting, with music and games. The guests were Flora Weigman, Margaret Ramp, Anna Stewart, Louise Johnson, Laura Minsner, Ruth, Esther and Marie Noll, Carrie Schroeder, Louise Brown, Lillian Huntington, Edith Miller, Ella Westerman, Elizabeth Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. William Stauch.

A merry party that consisted of Misses Gladys Allway, Lillian Lankenau, Anna Huebner, Lucila, Gertrude and Irma Lankenau, who were accompanied by Mrs. C. Lankenau, have just returned from an outing at Sylvan lake. The young women also entertained friends from Kendallville, South Milford and South Bend at house parties. Mrs. D. Lindemann, Miss Dora Beckenfen and Ora and Louis Saylor were guests the time of the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne entertained the members of a Sunday school class at their home at 1802 Hale avenue, on Thursday evening, in honor of their son, David Payne, who was celebrating his fourteenth birthday anniversary. A merry evening was spent and the guests had a fine time. They were E. E. Englehart, Herbert Black, Ralph Englehart, Victor Mischo, Charles and Melvin Wiebke, Edward Wasson, Ralph Hobbs, John Vetter and Eva Payne. Mrs. John Spoltman invited a number of friends into their new home Thursday evening as a surprise on Mr. Spoltman and in honor of his birthday anniversary. Cards and music furnished the entertainment for the evening. The guests were Mrs. Frank Spoltman, Mrs. Fred Geiser, Mrs. A. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Klotz, Mrs. Edward Rauner, Miss Nora Klotz, Miss Vivian Dutcher, John Christen, Charles Hoosier, H. Telser, R. H. McClellan, O. Wolkovich and W. E. Tierney.

The San Francisco papers gave the following complimentary notices of the singing of Miss Florence I. Lang, of this city, for her programs in the Indiana building at the Panama-Pacific exposition during the month of July. The Examiner says: "Miss Lang has a dramatic soprano voice of unusual range and clarity, and gave each number an artistic interpretation which added a special charm to the music." The Chronicle gave a similar notice and the San Francisco Bulletin commented in this wise: "Miss Lang has a clear soprano voice of unusual range and volume, is artistic in her interpretation and has a charming personality."

Children to Exhibit Work.
The work done by boys and girls who attended the industrial school conducted at the James H. Smart school playground this summer under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher club of that school, is to be exhibited soon at the public library. The work was financed by the parent-teacher club and the children were taught by Miss Suter, Mrs. Mary Edson and Miss Olive Marks. The exhibit will consist mainly of baskets, though the girls were also taught crocheting. The exhibit will open on August 30 and will be in the library for two weeks. Some of the mothers of the children grew so interested in the work that they went to the home of Mrs. Edson to take individual lessons.

A Country Party.
A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, two miles north of New Haven, by their daughter, Miss Alma Miller, to honor two birth anniversaries in the family. Mrs. Miller and son George were the ones whose birthday anniversaries were noted by the surprise. The entire company spent a pleasant time with games of various kinds. A fine dinner had been prepared by Miss Miller and everything passed off splendidly. Those present were Mrs. A. Haezel, of New Haven; Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald and granddaughter, Ellen Wolfe and Alice Luley, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haezel and children, of Leo; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Heath and daughter Erma and granddaughter, of Thurman; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Miller and daughter Virginia, of Chamberlain; Mr. and Mrs. Max Vandewater and daughter Alma, of Gogebin; Messrs. Herbert Devaux, of Thurman; Lloyd Miller, of Chamberlain; Clarence, Calvin, George, Willie, Clyde and Jesse Miller, all of Gogebin.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"The Charming Widows" Starting Tonight.

The big production, "The Charming Widows," which is a merry mixture of musical comedy, burlesque, extravaganza and vaudeville, and which is presented by some of the best known players in these fields of dramatic endeavor, will come to the Majestic theater on Friday. The engagement is for two nights, with matinee Saturday. The show is resplendent in new scenery, costumes and electrical effects, and the company numbers thirty-five people, twenty of whom being in the chorus. Eddie Dale, the popular German comedian; Sam Carlton, Broadway comedian; Pauline Palmer, Helen Stanley, Jimmy Cooper, Ada Lum, Harry Peterson and Hugh Skelly have the leading roles. Enjoyable singing and dancing numbers and vaudeville acts will be introduced. "Sita," a Hindu dramatic divertissement, in which Mlle. Simone De Boryl is featured in a thrilling, sensational dance, is an added attraction.

SIX MONTHS ALIVE AND NOTHING DOING

Federal Trade Commission
Merely a Listening and Dining Body.

(By Gilson Gardner.)

Washington, Aug. 20.—The federal trade commission has been in existence six months without having entered a single order for the correction of any unfair business practice. Which indicates one of two things. Either business is much more virtuous than it used to be, or the federal trade commission is doing something different from what was expected by its promoters.

The trade commission's purpose, according to law, is to inquire into price discriminations, monopolistic combinations, tying contracts, interlocking directorates, spying, or any form of economic bludgeoning by one firm or individual against another. When such practices are discovered the commission has the power under the law to order them discontinued, and if the order is not obeyed at once to institute a suit in the circuit court to compel obedience. The commission is theoretically an instrument to make effective all the provisions of the anti-trust law and its amendment, the Clayton bill, which amendment, by the way, has added a valuable set of teeth to the old Sherman act.

Hundreds of Complaints.

The mails have brought the trade commission hundreds of complaints, but so far the commission has done nothing with them but to file and sort them. Many are put aside as communications from cranks; others are discarded as showing difficulties in business inherent in bad business practices, and others are regarded as complaints which have no legal remedy under any act, while others are filed for future reference.

The headquarters of the commission here in Washington have been left to a small clerical force, while the commission itself is juggling over the country accepting the hospitality of many chambers of commerce in many cities. Beginning many weeks ago, the commission started on a see-America-tour, including the following cities: Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Spokane, North Yakima, Seattle, Tacoma, San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles.

Holds Many Hearings.

At various places the commission has conducted what it termed "hearings." At these certain invited business men representing large interests, present arguments and pleas for permission to do certain things. Generally these things are what in the past have been regarded as bordering closely on violations of the Sherman law. The law, for instance, to combine and maintain prices on the plea that such combination will assist them in securing foreign trade. The lumber men of Chicago presented pleas of this sort and some arguments to the effect that they are not a trust, as has been intimated by the bureau of corporations in the three-volume report of that body.

Listening and Dining.

Up to date the commission has been merely a listening and a dining body. It has not acted on the pleas of these prominent business men, neither refusing nor permitting them to do what they want to do. Under the law it is

Thin Folks Who Would In- crease Weight

SIMPLE DIRECTIONS EASY TO FOLLOW.

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

If every way you've tried to put on weight has failed try these simple directions. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note your weight. Sargol does not add itself but mix with your food the digestive organs turn the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe, producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepare it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. A great deal of this nourishment now passes from thin people's bodies as waste. Sargol is designed to stop the waste and make the fat-producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is non-injurious, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Myers Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, Family Drug Store and other leading druggists are authorized to sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Tomorrow 3rd Anniversary

In accordance with my annual custom I make ANNIVERSARY DAY the occasion for my OPENING DISPLAY of FALL APPAREL.

EVERY MAN In Fort Wayne is invited TOMORROW to my formal FALL OPENING of MEN'S and YOUNG MEN'S "JUST RIGHT" SUITS and OVERCOATS at $10, $15 and $20.

When I opened this store three years ago I knew I had a hard fight ahead of me. Fort Wayne wasn't waiting for me. This city had plenty of clothing stores. So to establish a following and win the confidence of the buying public I decided to sell the BEST CLOTHES ever offered at $10, $15 and $20. I nailed these three prices to my standard and season in and season out, whether the whole town is filled with sales you'll find the BEST CLOTHES IN FORT WAYNE at THEODORE J. ISRAEL'S for $10, $15 and $20. You pay the SAME PRICE as your Neighbor because your money is just as good to me as is his, and he pays NOT A CENT MORE than you do because I like his money just as well as yours.

I have the SINGLE STANDARD of MORAL DEALING—I don't juggle prices—I hold no sales—I make it my business to offer UNUSUAL VALUES at ALL TIMES and what you get at an occasional "SALE" elsewhere you can get here AT ANY TIME.

I believe Fort Wayne wants this kind of a clothing store. And if you want to spend your money with a merchant who won't take it unless he can give you your money's worth, give me a chance to make you my customer.

Blessings on thee, Mary Ann.—

BY CHARLES B. DRISCOLL.

—Summer Girl with cheeks of tan! Gobs of powder on thy nose, flaming stripes around thy hose, and thy hair all out of curl, blessings on thee, Summer Girl! Still, thy skirts have shorter grown, more and more thy grace is shown, shorter grow thy sleeves each year, lower still thy neck, I fear. Summer furs and rakish lid, shoes that make thee slide and skid, mermaid loose and waistband tight, thou art still a daisy right! Though thy clothes eccentric be, Summer Girl, we fall for thee! Take thy walk upon the strand, touting suitcases in thy hand, all thy native beauty shows, spite of those outlandish clothes, and the idlers on the beach cannot help but sigh, "The peach!"

WHERE GERMANY STOOD STRONG.

Chinese Took Notion From Name That Deutschland Means Virtue.

Peking, Aug. 20.—Britishers in China, whose interest have been seriously affected by the publicity campaign of their German adversaries here, are endeavoring to counteract the effect. The Rev. W. E. Southill, formerly the head of the Tai Yuan Fu university, has written a paper in the Chinese language (in which he has a reputation as a scholar) explaining the way from the British point of view.

In the document, which is being circulated throughout China, he says that hitherto Germany has possessed a distinct advantage here because of the Chinese name for that country—"Ta Te Kuo" or Great Virtue Nation. The name conveys the idea to the ordinary man, the writer states, that Germany is distinguished above all other nations for its Te (virtue). The names applying to England and France are respectively Ta Ying Kuo (Great Brave Nation) and Ta Fa Kuo (Great Law Nation); and it is interesting to note that applying to America is Ta Mei Kuo (Great Beautiful Nation).

In Yellowstone park, the brown bears retreat hastily from the hotel garbage piles when black bears leave in sight, and the latter, in turn, promptly get themselves gone at the approach of the silvertips. It is an interesting little social system, established on the primordial basis of fear.

BANK CLERKS HAVE SPORT FIELD IN AIR

Oakland, Cal., Bank Has a Roof Garden for Benefit of Its Men.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 20.—To add vigor properly, a man must eat properly.

The ideal bank clerk must mix recreation with his statistics.

Baseball, in moderation, is first aid to calculation of interest.

An hour on a roof garden makes several hours of more efficient service.

These are facts discovered by officers of the Oakland Bank of Savings. They constitute the reason for Oakland's aerial playground.

Oakland has a roof garden and athletic field several hundred feet in the air and right in the heart of the city.

It can't be seen from below—the battlements of a high back building hide it—and one can't even hear, from the rumbling streets, the sounds of merriment that accompany baseball games or target practice high in the air.

Only a few bank clerks know of the aerial playground—for it's theirs, and no outsiders are allowed to participate in their sports on the roof. They dine there, a little cafe being situated at one of the corners of the playground, and a long shooting gallery is another attraction. Overhead baseball is another feature of the place.

The novel aerial playground is situated in the top of the Oakland Bank of Savings building. It is owned and supported by a bank clerks' club.

When the noon hour comes the clerks and officers take the elevator, rise nine floors and climb a short flight of stairs—and Oakland has disappeared. They are no longer in the city. All they can see is the blue sky. Dimly they can hear the crash of the streets—but all they see is four walls like garden walls, their rustic cafe, and the galleries and baseball diamond.

They usually enjoy a ball game or a little target practice and when the noon hour is over return to their duties refreshed and with increased efficiency.

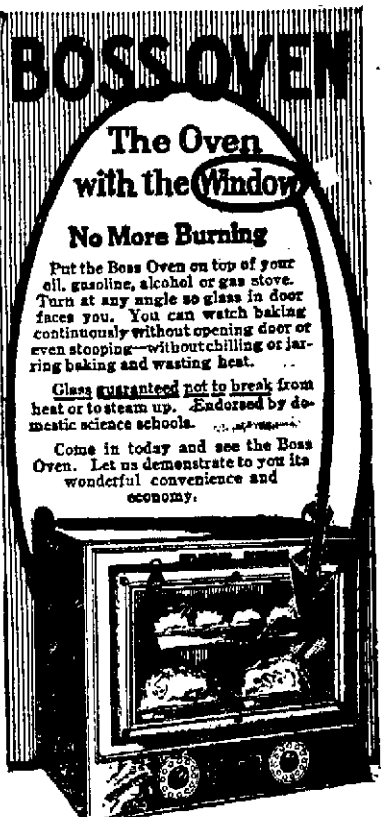

CUBA FEELS UNIVERSAL FEVER.
Island Republic Wants National Militia as Second Line of Defense.

Havana, Cuba, Aug. 20.—Tentative plans are in process of formation by Colonel Jose Marti, chief of the general staff of the Cuban army, for the creation of a national militia as a second line of defense in the event of war.

All Cuban citizens of military age, of good repute and capable of passing the regular medical examination, are eligible for enlistment and the organization equipment and arming of the force will be uniform with the regular army. Officers and men will be required to attend drills twice a week and their arms will be kept in the barracks of the regulars to be issued only for drills or when the militia is called into active service. No estimate has been made as to the probable strength of the force that can be raised. No limitation is placed on the enlistment and it is believed that the service will prove very popular in Havana and the other principal cities.

Lumber which is pickled a few days in a 1-to-100 solution of corrosive sublimate is greatly strengthened in resistance to decay. The process is known as kyanizing, the invention in 1832 of John Kyan, of England.

The department of agriculture recently announced that it had been demonstrated that fiber flax equal to the best European can be successfully grown in the United States.

THE SENTINEL'S LIVE SPORTS CRISP RELIABLE

CUBS AND TERRIERS IN EVEN BREAK

Second Has a Great Finish When Ostermeyer and Osborne Hit in Scores.

It's the funniest thing in the world that every time Red Hart gets into the box Fort Wayne's Cubs look like a gang of back yard beginners behind him. He gets absolutely no support, and is up against a proposition that our own hopefuls can't get together with Hart in the box, and the result is that he has to plug through the stuff alone. The same was the case in yesterday's first game, while in the second the boys got together and played clock-work ball behind reliable Red Hart, and by winning yesterday's game the plaid-haired peach establishes himself firmly as leading pitcher of the Central league.

The first game was more or less of a farce, for both Hart and Gilbert were hit hard and often, although the Terriers were under nearly everything that was lofted from Hart's delivery. The Cubs pulled down a greater number of hits than did their opponents, but the winners were not correctly grouped. In only one inning, the seventh, did the Terrier boss loosen up, and then the locals grabbed off three runs. Beyer doubled and came home when Hart and Osborne singled, Hart following with a single that loaded the bases. Hart nipped out and Brant and Sheehan singled in another pair.

In the second game Fort Wayne fans saw one of the best little exhibitions ever pulled off here, with a finish of a kind that rarely exists except on winter nights around the stove.

The game went fifteen innings, when the Terriers got one and the next one came in the sixth when Gilbert doubled with two runs and was brought home on O'Day's double. In the final inning when a looked mighty blue, Brant drew a walk, and when Brant and Beyer went out easily the crowd began to move toward the exits. Ostermeyer went into pinch hit, and it was right here the chorus of "Hallelujahs" commenced. He shipped out a hit to the right field fence, it coming so close to the top that O'Day nearly gave it up. O'Day might have made it to third but he was wise and remained out on second. For the score had been tied when Brant came all the way home from first on hit. Then Arch Osborne got in with the stick and singled Ostermeyer home.

Ostermeyer earned that game yesterday, and his little turn before the lights in that last inning should help him to big things next season. Score:

LITTLE GIRL MAKES NEW TANK RECORD—SENTINEL READERS KNOW HER.

Mabel Donaldson, Who Has Splashed Into Champion Swimming Class. Evanston, Ill., Aug. 20.—The west has a new tank record.

Annexed Kellerman has a new rival. And it's Mabel Donaldson, the little girl who posed for swimming lessons last summer to girl and boy readers of The Sentinel, who has captured the record for the forty-yard dash with breast stroke.

Mabel is only 11, and not very big at that, made the 40 yards in 39 1-5, clipping four-fifths of a second from the best previous western woman's record.

The record breaking race was one of the events in the Northwestern university summer swimming class exhibition. One hundred boys and girls, all under 15, took part.

Mabel also won the diving and fancy stroke event, and she made a good showing in the girls' and boys' relay race, which was won by the girls.

The little water "champion" is said to be one of the best swimmers of her age in the country. She's expert in all the small known strokes. She's strong for so well a girl and she's fearless in the water.

The swimming lessons she posed for last summer taught hundreds of girls and boys to swim. Mabel is the daughter of James W. Donaldson, of Evanston, Ill., a former champion swimmer in Scotland.

FINIS. Baseball ends the Central league season here, and in addition to the field meet that will precede the game, it will be Bader Myers' special day. Get together, fellows, and show Bader you're with him; turn out, fans, and give the Central one last good kick-off in Fort Wayne.

PLACE OF PICNIC CHANGED. Inasmuch as J. Herman Bueker has leased his grove, the annual picnic of the Buffaloes will not be held there as previously announced. Another place will be selected later.

FIFTY CANDIDATES. A class of fifty candidates will be initiated Friday evening at the meeting of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen to be held in the Odd Fellows' hall at Wayne and Calhoun streets. William E. Davy, of Des Moines, Iowa, will be present and assist with the work which will be given by the degree team from Homestead No. 378.

THIEF ALS OA FORGER. Harry Ferguson, who was arrested with John Ferguson for the theft of a 1904 automobile from the police station, was also wanted by the police of that city on a charge of check forgery. The two men were taken back to their city Wednesday evening. It is said that Quick's father is one of the prominent bankers in Indianapolis.

HAS HORSE STOLEN. Clyde H. Kramer, a rural route carrier of Geneva, called the police station Thursday evening and notified them that they should hold a horse which was stolen from him and which he was sure was in Fort Wayne. He gave a description of the animal and the police are on the lookout.

FOUND GUILTY OF DASTARDLY CRIME

William Imel Bound Over to Circuit Court on Serious Charge.

William Imel, aged forty years, proprietor of a grocery store on Parand avenue, was found guilty in the city court Friday morning on the evidence submitted on a charge of assault and battery on eleven-year-old Irene Shuler, daughter of Henry Shuler, 2509 Parnell avenue. Judge Herr bound him over to the Allen county circuit court under a $1,000 bond.

The assault is said to have been committed nearly a month ago when the little girl was sent to the store for a spoon of thread. Chief of Police Charles Lenz and Detective Sergeant Walter Immel testified that Imel had confessed the crime to them. According to his own story the girl asked him to weigh her, which he did. While she was standing on the scales he put one arm about her and kissed her. He then carried her back to the counter where he committed the felonious act.

Other City Court Cases. Lizzie Guebard, of South Barr street, who has been in police court before, was picked up Thursday afternoon drunk. She begged the judge to leave her go, stating that she would never touch a drop of whiskey again. Her case was continued indefinitely.

John Steiner and Albert James, Pollocks, who could not speak or understand English, appeared in the court on charges of riding their bicycles without lights. Through the interpreter they were told to equip their wheels with lights and then were allowed to go.

A. P. Coffey, who has had everybody guessing around the police station and in the county jail as to whether he is deaf, dumb and blind, or whether he is in the county jail was brought before the judge and his case was continued until September 9, the bond remaining at $1,000.

Abel Blouin was allowed to go, as were Harry J. Gore and Harry Refsitt.

THIEF ALS OA FORGER. Harry Ferguson, who was arrested with John Ferguson for the theft of a 1904 automobile from the police station, was also wanted by the police of that city on a charge of check forgery. The two men were taken back to their city Wednesday evening. It is said that Quick's father is one of the prominent bankers in Indianapolis.

FORT WAYNE CUBS A HOSPITAL SQUAD

The Fort Wayne team is a hospital gang for sure. The following is the list of injured up to whom remained at their posts to the last to insure the safety of the passengers and probably sacrificed their lives. Other survivors say that the torpedo which rent the Arabic's hull killed out-right several men in the boiler room.

Friday, August 20, 1915.

BUT TWO AMERICANS IN LIST OF MISSING

The torpedo struck on the starboard side, about one hundred feet from the stern, near the location of the boiler rooms.

England Deeply Stirred.
The torpedoing of the Arabic has stirred England from end to end, although on account of the comparatively small loss of life public feeling does not show signs of running as high as in the days following the sinking of the Lusitania. That such a large proportion of the passengers and crew should have been saved in the short time available for the work of rescue is regarded as better fortune than might have been expected under the circumstances.

Apparently it was due to the coolness and courage of the officers and crew, from Captain Finch, who remained at his post until just before the Arabic took her final plunge, down to the firemen, who faced certain death to perform their duty. Fine weather and a calm sea also contributed to the outcome.

Survivors Well Cared For.
In Queenstown everything possible was done today to assist the survivors, many of whom were without clothing or money.

As in the case of the Lusitania disaster, the citizens of Queenstown came to the assistance of the survivors and none went without clothing, food and shelter.

A number of the survivors are suffering from minor injuries, but so far as known none is in a serious condition. With the main facts of the disaster established, the English public turned its attention to the possible effect upon relations between the United States and Germany.

Definite word whether American lives had been lost was awaited with more eagerness than any other detail of the Arabic's story yet to be told.

DETAILS OF THE SINKING.
Captain Finch of the Arabic Tells How His Ship Was Destroyed.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—Captain Finch of the Arabic gave the Associated Press a detailed account of the loss of the liner.

"We were forty-seven miles south of Gullhead at 9:30 o'clock this morning," he said, "when I perceived the steamer Dunsley in difficulty. Going towards her I observed a torpedo coming for my ship, but could not discern a submarine. The torpedo struck one hundred feet from the stern, making terrible havoc of the hull. The vessel began to settle immediately and sank in about eight minutes."

"My order from the bridge about getting the boats launched was promptly obeyed. Two boats capsized. We had taken every precaution while in the danger zone. There were plenty of life-belts on deck and the boats were ready for immediate launching. The officers and crew all behaved excellently and did everything possible in the circumstances, getting people into the boats and picking up those in the sea."

"I was the last to leave, making the plunge into the sea as the ship was going down. After being in the water some time I got aboard a raft to which I also assisted two men and women."

Captain Finch paid special tribute to the heroic conduct of several engineers and firemen who remained at their posts to the last and sacrificed their lives to execute orders from the bridge, thus insuring the safety of the passengers.

Among those lost was the captain's nephew.

The Arabic's commander spoke appreciatively of the passengers and crew aboard the rescuing vessels and likewise of the arrangements made for their comfort at Queenstown. His chief regret was that he was not able to save the lives of everyone on board.

"If I had been given a little more time by the submarine," he said regretfully, "I am satisfied I could have saved everybody."

SHOWS TWENTY MISSING.
List is Given Out by the White Star Officers in New York.

New York, Aug. 20.—The White Star line today gave out a list of twenty Arabic passengers who had not been accounted for in advices received at the line's local office. The list was made up from names received late last night, as no direct word from England had been received by the local office between 1:30 a. m. and noon today. The last press dispatches from London today, received several hours after the White Star advices, stated that all but eight of the Arabic's passengers had been landed at Queenstown. The list given out by the White Star line here included the names of James Houlihan and Thomas Elmore, Americans, who, according to state department advices received at Washington, are among the saved.

The White Star list follows:
Bruguiere, Mrs. Josephine L.
Houlihan, James.
Wood, Edward L.
Bollivar, Wm.
English, Miss Mary.
Fitzgerald, Patrick.
Semmler, L.
Melia, Miss Ellen.
Mills, Miss Maria.
Neave, Mrs.
Randall, Mrs.
Tattersall, Mrs.
Tatterstall, Miss Irene.
Third class:
Huerne, Thomas.
Hermans, Mrs. L.
Harrington, Mary.
McMahon, Thomas.
Riddington, Mary.
Sullivan, Cornelius.
Thomas, Florence.

It was reported at the White Star line office that relatives of Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere had received a cablegram from her son, Louis Bruguiere, saying his mother had been saved. Mr. Bruguiere was accompanying his mother and all lists so far published report him saved. Officials at the office, however, said they had heard nothing definite regarding the reported message.

public expects war, which would give their army and navy an opportunity to co-operate with the allies in the Dardanelles movement.

On the western front the French now hold the cross roads between Lens and Arras, which, when in possession of the Germans, formed a wedge in the allied line.

GERMANS TAKE NOVOGORIEVSK.
Great Fortress Falls and 20,000 Prisoners Are Taken.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Official announcement was made here today of the capture of the important Russian fortress of Novogorievsk with more than 20,000 men.

The statement follows:
"The fortress of Novogorievsk, the enemy's last bulwark in Poland, has been captured after stubborn resistance. The entire garrison, including 20,000 men and an enormous amount of war material, fell into our hands."

The emperor left for Novogorievsk in order to give the thanks of himself and the fatherland to the leader of the attack, Gen. von Beseler, and his troops. Capture is foreseen.

The capture of Novogorievsk had been foreseen since the fall of Warsaw. When the general Russian retreat was made from the Warsaw salient Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, elected to leave a garrison in the fortress rather than evacuate this position, as it was recognized that the only question was how long the defenders would be able to hold out.

The grand duke's decision apparently was due to the strategic position of the fortress. So long as the Russians retained it they were able to stop communication on the Vistula river. Novogorievsk is nineteen miles northwest of Warsaw, and is situated at the junction of the Vistula, Narew and Wkra rivers. On account of its position it was described by an Associated Press representative, who visited it yesterday, as a second Vicksburg.

For nearly two weeks the fortress had been completely invested by the Germans, and several of the outlying forts were captured earlier this week. Novogorievsk was strongly defended and was said to have been equipped with sufficient ammunition and food supplies for a long period. Its speedy capture doubtless represents another triumph for the great German and Austrian siege guns. Pieces of the heaviest calibre were brought up for the heaviest calibre was how long the defenders would be able to hold out.

The usual daily statement from German army headquarters which was issued today several hours after the special bulletin announcing the fall of Novogorievsk says that the complete garrison at that fortress consisted of 25,000 men. Of course, the statement adds, more than 20,000 were captured in yesterday's battle alone.

The earlier bulletin stated that the entire garrison was captured by the Germans. It is not clear, however, whether a considerable part of the total of 25,000 escaped.

FRENCH REPORT OF OPERATIONS.
Paris, Aug. 20.—The French war office gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads:

"There has been continued activity on the part of our artillery along the banks of the Oise, to the north of the Aisne, in the Champagne district and along the front at La Seille."

"In the Argonne there has been fighting with mines in the region of Vienne-le-Chateau and fighting at close range with bombs and hand grenades in the sector of St. Hubert and near Marie Therese."

"On the heights of the Ligne and of Schatzmannelle, the German losses have been very heavy. We found a large number of dead German soldiers in the trenches, 250 yards long, which we occupied."

The French war office today gave out a report on the situation in the Dardanelles which reads: "In the southern zone there is nothing to report, with the exception of engagements between patrols and artillery exchanges."

"In the northern zone, the British left wing has made some progress in the plain of Anafarta."

AWFUL MISERY IN POLAND.
Berlin, Aug. 19. (Via London, Aug. 20.)—The continued advance of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops in the 14th in the movement to encircle Brest-Litovsk is described by the correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung at Austrian press headquarters. The desperate resistance of the Russians was broken at many points and they were forced to retire to prepared defenses in the immediate vicinity of the fortress.

The Russian retreat from Poland is reported to be attended by unprecedented and indescribable misery among the civil population. German officers returning to headquarters report thousands upon thousands of Poles returning in utter want to destroyed villages. Thousands of wagons and refugees block the roads from the Vistula to the Bug, mothers with children vainly seeking food.

WHAT BULGARIA IS OFFERED.
Rome, Aug. 19. (Via Paris, Aug. 20.)—The entente powers, according to a positive statement made by the Sofia correspondent of the Giornale d'Italia, have offered to Bulgaria that part of Macedonia given to her by the Serbo-Bulgarian treaty of 1912, with the right of immediate occupation. The controversy over the part of Macedonia contested by Serbia and the cause of the second Balkan war will be settled after the present war ends.

Proportionate compensation is to be given to Serbia including the city of Kavalas with the districts of Kavalas and Seres, with the right of immediate occupation. Bulgaria on her side renounces forever pretensions to Saloniki, Videna and Uskub. She promises also to declare war immediately upon Turkey aided by funds of the four allies. Bulgaria, the correspondent declares, will receive further territorial concessions in Turkey.

It is believed that Serbia and Greece will give way under pressure by the entente powers, but negotiations will be lengthened by the reluctance of the king of Greece to consent to any cession of territory.

POSITIVELY MISSING.
Queenstown, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere and Dr. Edmund P. Wood are the two American passengers on the Arabic definitely ascertained to be missing. Tugs are at the scene of the disaster searching for the bodies of victims.

bode lay as it had fallen, the skull fractured and the neck broken, the head jammed against the lower step and the feet extending into the cellar.

Was An Accident.
The police responded to the call within a few minutes after the body was discovered, and found absolutely no evidence of foul play.

Mrs. Mulford had been suffering from a slight paralytic affection for nearly a month, and it is probable that she was overcome at the top of the step. However, she may have stepped into the stair way in the dark, believing that she was in a pantry. The cellar is dark, and even in the light of morning the steps were not distinguishable without artificial light.

Had Sum of Money.
In a pocketbook beside the body the police discovered what at first appeared to be only about six dollars, but a further search of the little handbag disclosed a carefully concealed portion in which nearly one hundred dollars in bills was secreted.

The pocketbook had not been opened, and this with other circumstances connected with the finding indicate to the police that there was no foul play.

Coroner Kruse ordered the body removed to the Schenemann undertaking establishment and an inquest will be held Friday afternoon.

Was Long Search.
Shortly before midnight, when Mrs. Mulford had not returned to her home, relatives notified the police and said that she was looking for a house on Fairfield avenue and asked that they aid in a search. There are many vacant houses on the street and the police went through them hunting a trace of her until daylight. Mrs. Thomas, 129 East Washington street, and Mrs. Hammond, 2425 South Webster street, started at daylight to look for houses in other sections of the city. They found several places where the woman had been early in the afternoon, but it was not until they asked at the Quince house that they received information that led to the finding.

Mrs. Quince in discussing the case said that Mrs. Mulford, whom she did not know, had asked her for, he key to the house at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening, and that she thought no more of it until after 6 o'clock when the key was not returned. She then sent her son to see whether the prospective renter still was in the building, and he returned saying that he had not found her. The accident probably had occurred but a moment before he entered the house. Had the woman been conscious the young man undoubtedly would have heard her.

A Syrian woman who lives but a short distance away says that she heard a scream a short time before the police arrived Friday morning, but it is thought that it probably was one of the sisters of the dead woman when she discovered the body.

Mrs. Mulford was 58 years old and resided in the latter house at 339 Madison street. Three sons—Ray, of Duluth; Walter, of Tippecanoe, and Harold, of this city, and one daughter, Hazel, of Duluth, survive. The children from Duluth are here now on a visit.

The Swansea Leader reports that the British steamship, New York City, has been sunk. The crew of the vessel has been saved.

The Spanish steamer Perla Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sverresborg have been sunk by a submarine. Three members of the crew of the Perla Castillo were saved. The fate of the others on that craft and of those on the Sverresborg is unknown.

TWO MORE ARE SUNK.
London, Aug. 20.—The British steamships Samarra, of Glasgow, and Gladator, of Liverpool, have been sunk.

CREW IS LANDED.
Queenstown, Aug. 20.—The captain and crew of fifty-three of the steamship New York City were landed here today. The vessel was sunk by a torpedo yesterday.

CHASED U-BOAT AWAY.
Christiana, Norway, Aug. 20.—A German submarine stopped the Norwegian mail steamer Irma within Norwegian territory yesterday, but the timely appearance of a Norwegian torpedo boat prevented further interference with the mail ship.

The Irma was on her way from Newcastle, England to Stavanger, Norway. When a little to the north of Jaegersroef the submarine hailed her with shots across her bow. The Irma's skipper swung out his boats, but the Norwegian torpedo craft, attracted by the shots, steamed quickly to the spot, warned the submarine that she was in Norwegian waters and ordered her to leave. The submarine thereupon retired.

review, they are thinking about these points:

Whether any Americans have been lost and whether the Arabic actually was torpedoed without warning.

Whether the Arabic, by having been conveyed on the beginning of her voyage under international law, partaken of the character of her conveyance and waived her rights as a non-combatant.

Whether by proceeding to the vicinity of the steamer Dunsley, which had just previously been torpedoed, the Arabic commander introduced any qualifying circumstances by violating the rule of the British admiralty, which forbids one ship to risk itself by attempting to assist another that has been torpedoed.

A view prevailed that an attempt by the Arabic to succor those on another torpedoed ship was justified and was not affected by the British admiralty rule, which was made as a matter of

ASSISTS AT EBERHART FUNERAL.
Rev. C. Claude Travis goes to Mishawaka on Sad Mission.

Girl Carried Sixty Miles.
A girl of 16, found on Galveston beach unconscious, when revived said she was at Velasco, nearly sixty miles distant, when the hurricane struck. She became unconscious again before giving any other information.

Gen. J. J. Franklin Bell, commanding the second division of the United States army at Texas City, has written to Mayor Ben Campbell, of Houston, urging that travel of persons from Houston to Texas City and Galveston be prohibited unless they are concerned in the welfare of relatives in either city.

Gen. Bell told the mayor that Galveston authorities were refusing to let persons from the mainland enter the city unless they had a good excuse for landing. Texas City, the general said, is utterly without dock facilities to handle the crowds of curiosity seekers.

The burning of bodies of dead animals has begun in the county outside Houston and in other districts along the coast.

TWO VESSELS AGROUND.
Galveston, Texas, Aug. 20.—Two British steamships, the Harlesdon and the Eaton Hall, are aground at Swan Lake, on the mainland, southwest of Texas City. It is said the Eaton Hall is in a serious condition.

ST. LOUIS HAS A FLOOD.
St. Louis, Aug. 20.—The southwestern part of St. Louis was under water today as a result of a continuous down-pour of rain that began about 1 o'clock this morning and followed a steady drizzle that lasted nearly all day Thursday. At 9 o'clock this morning four inches of rain had fallen. The storm was accompanied by a high wind.

PREFERS WHEEL IN PLACE OF A HORSE
Robert J. Smith is Arrested Here When He Tried to Dispose of Bicycle.

Robert John Smith, who tells the police that he resides in Danville, Ill., prefers to ride and own a bicycle in place of a horse. He stole a horse from a mail carrier near Geneva, Ind., Adams county, Wednesday evening, and took the animal to Bluffton where he put it in a livery barn, and stole a bicycle and rode to Fort Wayne. He was arrested Friday morning by Detective Sergeant Humel while he was trying to dispose of it at a second-hand store on East Main street.

He was taken to police headquarters where he was searched. He carried a .38-caliber revolver and shells besides a .32 and .22-caliber gun. He also had a woman's "rat" which had been bared so that he could use it as a beard and disguise. He is being held here on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Smith stole the wheel in Bluffton Thursday evening and started out to ride to this city. He was forced to walk several miles on account of the roads being bad and he spent part of the night sleeping in a fence corner. The young thief, who appears to be 19 years of age, acts suspiciously and seems to be slightly demented.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature. Those wishing further advice, free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or netitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Misses" writes: "I have been a worn out man for the past few months. My physical and mental forces are much impaired. I do not seem to be able to think clearly. I am much depressed all the time and my usual amneral and energy seem to have died. I have headache and pains in my back."

Answer: Your condition is identical to thousands of others brought to my attention yearly. Yes, your physical and mental forces are, as you say, much impaired, but you need not be alarmed over your condition. The use of three grain carbbolone tablets should put you back in normal condition and fit to combat any troubles. Cultivate regular habits of living.

"Miss" asks: "I seem to be shrinking in size. I am very pale and thin. I do not feel sick, but I'm very weak. I want to increase my weight."

Answer: You are anemic and the food you eat does not properly nourish your system; three grain hypo-phosphate tablets cause proper food assimilation and increase weight and strength. Take them with your meals. Sold in sealed packages.

"Mrs. Ella M." writes: "Please prescribe for me again. This time for my kidneys. I have chills and fever, look bad, have puffs under my eyes and my urine is dark in color and of bad odor. Sometimes my back hurts."

Answer: You should get almost instant relief and permanent benefit from the use of carbbolone tablets. I have prescribed these in numerous cases of kidney trouble and they have given excellent results. Most drug stores carry these tablets and they come in sealed tubes with proper directions.

"Corrupt" asks: "What will overcome my compulsion? I am so fat as to be in my own way. I'm short of breath and cannot stand exercise."

Answer: To reduce safely, use five grain carbbolone tablets. They are the most reliable reducers I could prescribe. Many are pleased with results from carbbolone.

SHE WAS RESOURCEFUL.

Dog Fight. Started in Auto. Ended By Woman With Water.

Valparaiso, Ind., Aug. 19. The battleground of two bulldogs here was the automobile of J. H. McGill, which was occupied by Mrs. McGill and several children. As though envious of the high position which the McGill pet held in the automobile, a common, ordinary street bulldog leaped in, grappled with the other, and the fight began fast and furious, to and fro, across the woman's lap. She pushed the struggling animals out in the street. Men and boys ran from every direction. They applied lighted matches to the dogs' noses without effect. Then Mrs. McGill acted. She ran into a store, brought a pail of water, dashed it over growling, gripping bulldogs and peace reigned again. Down the walk ran the street dog, shedding water like a thunder cloud. Into the automobile bounded the McGill dog. Mrs. McGill sat down, pale and trembling, but she had succeeded where men had failed.

BIG CONFERENCE ON NATIONAL DEFENSE

National Rifle Association

Will Take Part in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—Announcement today that the National Rifle Association of America will participate in the conference on national defense, which is to be held in Washington, October 1-7, immediately following the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, will be of great interest to the veterans who will attend the encampment and the conference.

In the union armies of the civil war were hundreds of thousands of good shots and thousands of expert marksmen and sharpshooters. Many of these "good shots" will attend the Washington encampment and will pay particular attention to that section of the national defense conference which will consider the training of the citizenry of this country in the use of the military rifle.

Commends Rifle Practice.

Col. John McElroy, past senior vice commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, says that training in the use of the rifle is one of the most important subjects to be considered at the conference.

"Good riflemen among the citizens are the best nucleus for our volunteer armies," declared Colonel McElroy today.

The National Rifle Association of America claims to be the oldest and most practical peace society in this country. It was organized in 1871 for the purpose of teaching the citizens of the country how to efficiently handle the army rifle, thus making its citizens capable of becoming efficient volunteers to defend their country in time of need. Officers of the association claim that if we had in this country a million citizens trained in the use of the service arm that it would be a more potent factor in the maintenance of peace than the armaments of a million peace-at-any-price men.

Gets No Federal Support.

This national association receives no federal support and its work has been maintained by the donations of patriotically inclined citizens through the taking out of life memberships. Among such men may be mentioned ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, ex-Senator Root, former Secretary of State Robert Bacon, former Secretary of the Navy Meyer, former Secretaries of War Dickinson and Wright, Senators Wetmore and Warren and such prominent business leaders as Judge Gary, John Wanamaker, H. C. Frick, George Westinghouse and hundreds of others. Ex-Senator Root says of the work of the N. R. A.:

"The purposes of the National Rifle Association of America are of the greatest importance and the methods by which it proposes to attain them are simple, direct and suited to American life and character."

The association is carrying on a campaign for one thousand life members, the income from the fund to be used for the promotion of rifle shooting as a recognized sport in the schools and colleges of the country.

Krag Rifles May Be Obtained.

A great impetus was given to rifle training among citizens by the passage of an act by congress last year authorizing the free distribution of Krag rifles and ammunition to rifle clubs and the work of organizing the clubs and carrying on the training was put in the hands of the National Rifle Association by the secretary of war. Since that time over 200 clubs have been organized and to them has been issued 806 Krag rifles and 550,150 rounds of ammunition.

The National Rifle association has asked the war department to approve a measure for the adoption of a national policy of range construction, claiming that the proposition to train civilians of the country can never amount to anything from a national standpoint until ranges are provided where the citizens can shoot.

Swiss System Favored.

There has been a great demand by writers on military subjects and the press in general for the adoption by this country of a modified Swiss system, but most of these writers overlook the fact that the sine qua non of the Swiss system is rifle training, the important feature of a soldier's duties which are greatly neglected in this country. Provision also must be made to furnish government rifle clubs with ammunition and target supplies as well as ranges, and army officers should be detailed as instructors and supervisors of these clubs.

At the present time there are enrolled as members of the National Rifle association shooting under its rules and regulations, and making annual reports of their work, 500 government rifle clubs, 110 school and 57 college clubs, all training with the military rifle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Everywhere it has received unstinted praise. We confidently believe that it has relieved more pain and suffering and saved the lives of more people than any other preparation in use. One or two doses of it is enough to relieve an ordinary attack of colic and diarrhoea. It has been used in many epidemics of dysentery with perfect success. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoeas in children. Every family should keep it at hand as attacks of cholera morbus often result fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

The fall semester of the High school will open Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 8:30. The principal will be in the office every forenoon, beginning Aug. 23, from 9 to 12. All persons expecting to attend the High school for the first time this fall, unless they finished their eighth grade work in this city, will find it to their advantage to call at the office sometime before school opens.

OSBORNE MAKES TRIP OVER CITY

Goes With City Officials to Size Up Garbage Situation.

L. S. Osborne, of Toronto, Ontario, Can., spent the day in Fort Wayne in conference with Mayor William J. Hosey, President Bayer and the council committee and the board of public works and late Friday afternoon went on a trip over the city to size up the garbage situation. Engineer Osborne was in the city several years ago and made an address on garbage disposal.

He left early in the evening for Chicago. Mr. Osborne is recognized as one of the United States and Canada, and has solved the problems for many of the large cities of the continent.

TWENTY-FOUR HOUR CLAUSE.

Last Legislature Amended Contagious Disease Burial Law. That the law governing the burial of contagious disease victims was so badly battered in the several amendments it underwent at the last session of the legislature as to make it practically worthless to the department of public health, is the discovery of the local health officers in the past few days. The old law required the body of such person to be buried within twenty-four hours from the time of death, and this clause has been omitted from the statutes. Now it is legal for the funeral to be held at any time after the death, there being no time limit set. There have been no local cases in which this has occurred, but it has been through the thoughtfulness of the relatives rather than through any legal necessity that this is the case.

BUILDING SLUMPS.

Less Than Half of Amount Started Last Year for Same Week.

Building permits issued in the past week were ten in number, and amounted to $15,750, as compared to seventeen permits, amounting to $37,650, for the same week last year. This makes the loss for the week $21,900 and a loss of seven permits.

WANT PAVILION NOW.

A pavilion of the type planned for Foster park last spring while improvements were under way there, will probably be built there in the not distant future, owing to the state of mind of residents of the section who have repeatedly gone home drenched with rain from the park. Last spring there was considerable opposition to the erection of the pavilion among the property holders of the vicinity but this has entirely died out, according to the park board, and the improvement will become a reality.

United States steel, in which enormous dealings took place yesterday, opened with a sale of one hundred shares at 73½, followed by $800 at 73 to 72, against yesterday's close of 74½.

Representative stocks, including those in the railway group, yielded a point or more and the entire list was thrown into a state of confusion. There was some moderate recovery from the opening prices, but the market continued to show the effects of hurried liquidation, together with short selling.

IN THE CHURCHES

OBSERVE CHILDREN'S DAY.

Woman's Home Missionary Society of Trinity M. E. Hold Annual Event.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of Trinity M. E. church gave its annual children's day at the home of Mrs. William Archer on Wells street, which was attended by over one hundred people. Fifty children took part in the exercises. The principal feature of the program was the various festive days as they are observed in Japan.

The feast of flowers when all those present received a flower, the feast of dolls and the feast of flags was very prettily illustrated by the Japanese children. The American spirit of the children was next shown by donning red, white and blue caps and singing "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue." Lunch was served and all enjoyed the afternoon's program.

Rather a Chilly Ride. Because of the cool weather Thursday evening only 200 people were present at the annual trolley ride of the Associated Christian Workers, and those that did take the ride declare it was rather chilly. The cars left the interurban station at 8 o'clock and rode about the city. They were taken to Robison park and on their return went to Lawton park, where a social time was enjoyed by all.

To Assist at Eberhart Funeral. Rev. C. Claude Travis, pastor of the Wayne street M. E. church left Friday morning for Mishawaka, where he will assist at the funeral of F. G. Eberhart, the millionaire who ended his life on the grave of his son. The local pastor received a telegram from Mrs. Eberhart asking him to be present. Rev. Travis is a close friend of the family.

Social Side in Churches. The ice cream social to be given by the Epworth League of Wayne street M. E. church at Swinney park, Friday evening, has been postponed. This affair will be given later at the church.

The Simpson M. E. Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Foster park Saturday. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

LOST IN BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Aug. 20.—President Wilson reached Baltimore on his way to Philadelphia by automobile about 8:30 o'clock. Through his unfamiliarity with the route, the chauffeur traversed the downtown section of the city in search of the Philadelphia road instead of following the direct route from Washington which would have taken him through the northern part of the city. About nine o'clock the party appeared at a drugstore at Fairmount and Ellwood, in East Baltimore, and obtained directions.

RECOGNIZED IN STREETS.

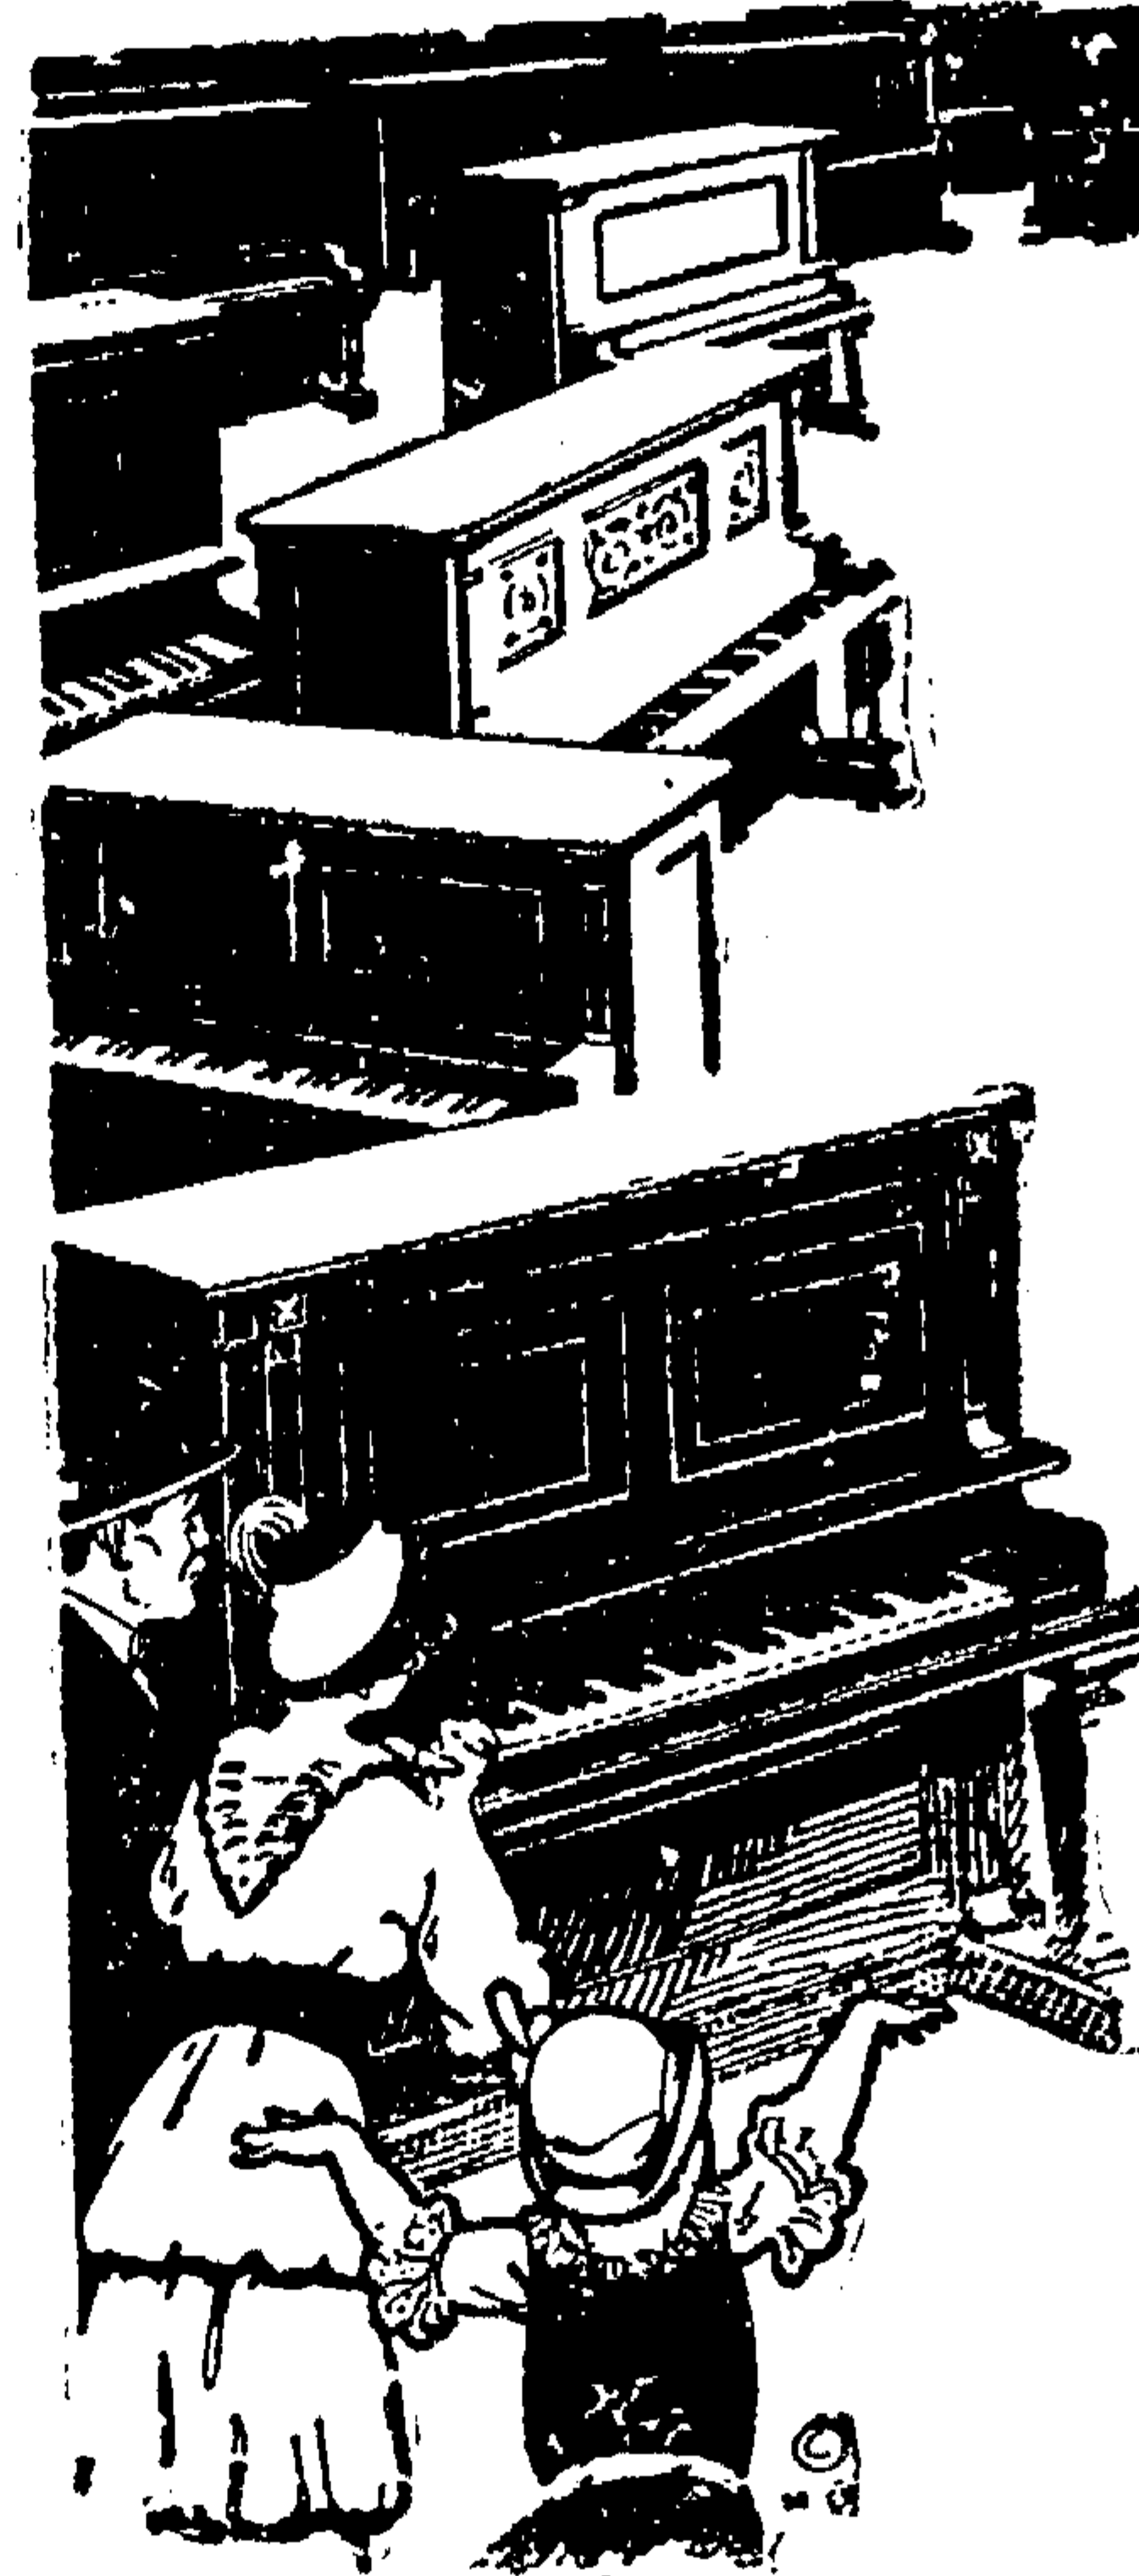

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—President Wilson arrived at the office of his oculist at 1:45 p. m. accompanied by secret service men.

At first Mr. Wilson in his stroll about the city after visiting the oculist was not recognized, but finally people on the streets became aware of his identity and many followed him, exchanging pleasantries with the distinguished visitor. Near the station the driver of a street watering cart tried to push his way ahead of President Wilson but when he saw who the pedestrian was he courteously pulled up his horses and motioned for the president to pass. Mr. Wilson, however, gave way to the water wagon and waved his hand to the driver who was immensely pleased at the attention he received. President Wilson with his party, left for Washington at 3:30 p. m.

In 1914 there were 33,897 marriages and 3,577 divorces in Chicago. In the United States alone $5,000,000,000 worth of luxuries were bought last year.

TRENCH WARFARE IS

Requires Artillery Having
Short as Well as Long Range.

Dunkirk, Aug. 19.—The trench warfare in France has made two distinct and apparently contradictory demands upon manufacturers of artillery—one for weapons of extraordinary range, and the other for guns which will drop a shell at a shorter range than ever before.

The German gunmakers, who are developing long-range guns capable of carrying a projectile from Calais to Dover, are at the same time showing remarkable ingenuity in making quaint little mortars which will toss missiles containing high explosive about as far as a fair football player can kick goal. The "minnewerker" was the first of the short-range weapons to meet the British troops in France, and it was regarded as a very excellent weapon of its class. But the newer German inventions of similar character are a hundred times more effective in deadliness and power.

The so-called "run-in" is perhaps the most feared of the new German trench mortars. It is so named by the British soldiers from the resemblance of its missile to the gallows stone jugs in which the army rations of rum are carried. The projectile is slightly more than twice the size of the army rum-jug, however. It is generally first sighted when approaching the top of its flight. In descent it turns over and over, its size and slowness of flight enabling the soldier to follow it easily even from some distance. It is exploded either by a time or delayed percussion fuse, and is constructed of a thin steel case filled with tri-nitro-toluol. The damage it causes is due entirely to its detonating quality—it does not rely on metal or bullets for its effect. The explosion seems to be more instantaneous than that of any other projectile, and there is therefore a concentrated fury to the noise of its bursting that distinguishes it from all other projectiles.

The "Sausage" is another variety of missile fired from compressed-air guns, inasmuch as the discharge makes so little noise as to be practically inaudible. The "Perry" is a five-inch shell which explodes in the air with an extraordinary "crack," while the less dreaded "pip-squeaks" are missiles of similar kind, but much smaller size. The so-called "whizz-bang" is a bomb exploded by means of a time fuse, but thrown by hand.

LESTER'S LITTLE LAMB STARTS NEW PET FAD.

LESTER STRAIN AND HIS PET LAMB.

Albion Springs, La., Aug. 12.—The very latest here in pets—youngsters—is the lamb.

"They've got them here in the ozone belt so they eat out of your hand, and when young are fed on a bottle—the kind regular babies howl for all night long."

Instead of a dog or cat, it's the lamb for the playmate of many a lone girl or boy in a family.

Lester Strain, four years old, has the prize lamb of the town. It follows him wherever he goes, like the lamb Mary had. Lester doesn't go to school now, but it's safe to say that when he starts the lamb will trail along behind him.

Lester's lamb has fleece as white as snow, except when he gets in the road and rolls around in the dirt. It ma-a-as for him when he is gone and ma-a-as a whole lot more when it's time to be fed.

PENAL FARM FOR DRUGGIST.
Indianapolis Apothecary Convicted of Selling Cocaine.

Indianapolis, Aug. 20.—Lorenzo R. King, a druggist at 350 South Illinois street, was fined $500 and costs and sentenced to 180 days on the penal farm yesterday by Judge James E. Deery in city court, on a charge of illegally selling cocaine.

Two affidavits charging a violation of the same law had been filed by the police against King. He was charged with selling cocaine illegally to Fay DeWitt, 325 1-2 West Washington street, one of the victims of the alleged cocaine trust which has been working in the city for years. She has been assisting the police in investigating the illegal sale of drugs and has been instrumental in convicting five men on the charge of the illegal sale of drugs within the last few months. The other affidavits charges that King sold quantities of cocaine to Myrtle Ward.

King was found guilty on the testimony of the Ward woman and was bound over to the grand jury in the other affidavit on the same charge.

Splendid for Constipation.
About a year ago I used a couple of bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and found them to be a splendid remedy for indigestion," writes C. S. Colby, Holland, N. Y., Obtainable everywhere.

Ingenuous mechanism in a new German lightbulb that uses electricity, as an illuminant, switches on a new lamp and moves it into focus—should the original lamp be extinguished.

A Hint to the Wise is Sufficient.
No one can reasonably hope for good health when his bowels are constipated. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get relief. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

Irvin Brown, Aged 67 Years, Found Dangling From Tree Near Lake Gage—Poor Health Induced Rash Deed.

Angola, Ind., Aug. 20.—Despondent because of continued poor health that had not yielded to either medical treatment or an operation, Irvin Brown, aged 67 years, a well known farmer who resides near Lake Gage, a summer resort west of this city, committed suicide by hanging himself. His body was found suspended from a tree and was first seen by passengers on an east bound car of the St. Joseph Valley traction line as it passed the scene of the tragedy. The corner of this county has pronounced Brown's death a case of suicide. Brown's wife died last January and since that time he had been a victim of despondency, which was further increased by the fact of his poor health. He was in the hospital some months ago for an operation. It is said that he had acted in a peculiar manner and had a hallucination that his neighbors were spying upon his actions.

THE BUSY TOMATO PLANT.

Huntington Man Has One That Is Doing Its Fourth Stunt.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—P. W. Snowden, of Wright street, is now getting the fourth lot of ripe tomatoes from a tomato vine that was first set out in the spring of 1914. Mr. Snowden brought the first one down town for exhibition yesterday. It was about the average size, well formed and smooth. Mr. Snowden says there are fifteen other tomatoes on the vine that are rapidly approaching the stage where they will be edible. The vine from which the tomato was taken was planted a year ago last spring, and produced two crops of tomatoes in 1914, one just before frost in the fall. The plant was then trimmed and transferred to a flower pot and kept in the house. It began blooming again in late January and in February produced ripe tomatoes. This was the third crop. This spring the plant was trimmed again and planted in front of the Snowden home on Wright street. It has been the subject of much attention, especially as Mr. Snowden announced that he would get a fourth crop. Mr. Snowden intends to take care of the vine and if possible keep it through another winter.

BURNS CAUSE CHILD'S DEATH.

Babe of Ten Months Places Hands on Hot Stove Near Huntington.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Burns on the palms of her hands and on one side of the face of Blanche Lucile Brubaker, ten months old, on last Monday morning, resulted in internal congestion and she died yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brubaker, who live south of Brown's Corners, in Rock Creek township. The child, who was just learning to walk, was standing in the door of the kitchen when Mrs. Brubaker stepped into the next room to get a broom. As the mother left the kitchen the little girl turned and started across the room. She could not stand alone, and supported herself by holding to articles of furniture. Reaching the stove, she put out both hands against it, and leaned forward so that her face touched the hot surface. The attending physician said the burns were severe, but were not fatal unless complications set in. The next day Blanche was playing as well as she could with hands swathed in bandages and seemed to be recovering rapidly. Absorption from the burns caused the congestion.

CHURUBUSCO BARBER IN BAD.

Kendallville, Ind., Aug. 20.—Mel Klingerman, of Churubusco, a barber, was arrested early in the morning on an alleged charge of attempted burglary and later was released, there being insufficient evidence to warrant a case. Klingerman was taken into custody by Night Officials George Swager and G. A. Auer, near the Gilbert house on Diamond street, upon action brought by A. J. Berhalter, who claimed the stranger was endeavoring to break into his home.

SHOT DESTROYS BOY'S EYE.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Earl Wiles, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr.

and Mrs. Charles Wiles, of 1600 East Washington street, was seriously injured Thursday when a shot from a twelve gauge gun glanced off a small rock and struck him in the left eye, destroying the sight. Earl and a brother, Floyd, and a friend from Peru were hunting Thursday morning. They were out of the line kites when one of the dogs started a rabbit. The rabbit ran into a brush pile. The two dogs ran after the rabbit and succeeded in frightening it out. Floyd, the older brother, shot at the rabbit and killed it. One of the shot glanced off a small rock and pierced the white of Earl's left eye.

ALL WENT INTO RIVER.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 20.—Otto Philpott and family and Charles Percival, of Indianapolis, a guest, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon when a boat in which the party were going down the Tippecanoe river upset and the occupants plunged into the river at a point where the water was nine feet deep and the current swift. Katherine, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philpott, is an expert swimmer and struck out for shore. Mrs. Philpott sank beneath the water and might have drowned had it not been for the prompt action of her husband in coming to her assistance.

HUNTINGTON FARMER DIES.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—John C. Woodward, 67 years old, died at his home, south of Huntington, on the Mt. Pleasant road, when an illness that had afflicted him lightly for more than a year took a sudden turn for the worse. The funeral services were held at the residence this morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Burket. Burial was in the Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was born April 12, 1848, in Green county, Ohio. He was the son of Samuel and Anna Woodward. His father brought him to this county in 1864. His marriage to Mary Anna Olinger took place in 1880, to which union there were born three children, who survive their father with the widow.

SEWER WORK IN MARKLE.

Markle, Ind., Aug. 20.—Excavation for the laying of more than 7,000 feet of sewer in Markle began yesterday by a force of men under Thomas McGovern, contractor. From the outlet at the Washburn river the trench will be dug back to business district and as the plans require. Mr. McGovern expects to have the work completed before severe weather. Rapid progress is being made in paving Lee street. Morse street has been completed. Monday 124 feet of concrete was laid on Lee and yesterday, 105. As the center of the street only is being paved, the sewer will be built in two lines, one on either side of the strip of concrete.

SOME BIG YIELDS OF WHEAT.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—The oats and wheat yield this year is far above the average. Occasionally such an exceptionally large yield is made that it is worthy of mention. Charles Sholl had three and a half acres of wheat four miles east of Hicksville that threshed 176 1/2 bushels. This makes a trifle better than fifty bushels per acre. Arthur E. Lybarger has the record on oats. From a five-acre field he threshed 450 or ninety bushels per acre. Claude Lorys, on the Mose Higgins farm, had out eighteen acres of wheat, from which he threshed 550 bushels. This is a trifle over thirty bushels per acre and is a fine yield.

BOY SCOUTS TO GO INTO CAMP.

Kendallville, Ind., Aug. 20.—The Kendallville Boy Scouts will start on their annual ten-day camping trip next Wednesday morning, August 25. They will go to their old site on South Twin Lakes, two miles west of Howe, and will be gone ten days. Things are shaping up well for the camp and it looks as though a great time is in store for the boys.

WHITLEY COUNTY PIONEERS.

Columbia City, Ind., Aug. 20.—A large crowd attended the twelfth annual reunion of the pioneers of Whitley county in this city yesterday. Ideal weather and an interesting program made the occasion in many ways the most auspicious of any of the reunions yet held by the old settlers of this county. The oldest person registered was Catherine Miller, of Thorncrest township, who was born in Ohio in 1827, came to Whitley county in 1837 and has resided here 78 years. Sol Fairchild, aged 78 years, came here in 1838 and has resided in the county 77 years.

DIES OF PERITONITIS.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 20.—Floyd Krewson, aged 33, a former resident of Bluffton, is dead at Warren after a short illness with peritonitis which developed following a strain of the tissues of the abdominal region. His condition was desperate from the first and the idea of an operation Wednesday was abandoned. Mr. Krewson was born near Prospect and was the son of T. G. and Mary Krewson. He married a lady from the vicinity of Craigville and came with her to Bluffton where he worked for the elevators and for the traction companies.

WELLS COUNTY PAIR ELOPED.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 20.—Word from the southern part of the county tells of the elopement wedding of Miss Macie Mowery, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mowery, who reside west of Ruth, to Eddie Smithson, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Will Lockwood, near Petrolia. The young couple got away to Michigan Saturday, deceiving their friends by a ruse, and were married at Hillsdale. They have many friends in that section of the county and all will wish them joy and happiness. Mr. Smithson's father lives in Muncie. His mother is dead.

DIES ON HER BIRTHDAY.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Catharine McMahon died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Moran, 1212 Cherry street, after an illness lasting since Christmas of 1914. Her death occurred on her birthday, as she was 78 years old yesterday. The deceased was born in Logansport, Ind., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kennedy. She removed to this city at an early age and lived here ever since. She was educated at St. Mary's-of-the-Woods at Terre Haute, being one of the first students of that college. She was a member of the St. Mary's church of this city.

WILL MANAGE DRY CAMPAIGN.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—Charles F. Lenson, former editor of the News and candidate for mayor of Hicksville, was selected by the county committee of the Anti-Saloon league to manage the dry campaign in Defiance county this fall. Mr. Lenson is an enthusiastic dry man and took an active part in the campaign last year. He is not a novice in directing such movements and under his leadership, Defiance county should pick up a tremendous majority for the dry. He will have his office at Defiance and starts his duties Thursday.

THREW DISHES AT HIM.

Auburn, Ind., Aug. 20.—Lewis E. Treesh, of Garrett, filed a complaint in which he asks for a divorce from his wife, Phoebe Treesh. They were married January 18, 1894, and separated August 12, 1915. The bill of particulars on which he bases his application for a legal separation are charges that the woman has an ungovernable temper and frequently threatens to kill herself, that she has secreted a razor in the bed which she threatened to use on herself and the plaintiff, that for a pastime she has thrown dishes and other articles at him.

SENT TO THE PENAL FARM.

Montpelier, Ind., Aug. 20.—George Speace, of this city, was arrested by Officer Morris and locked up for being found asleep on a bench in front of the Hart barber shop in an intoxicated condition. He was arraigned and fined $10 and costs and given a sentence of sixty days at the penal farm. This makes a sentence of eighty days unless the fine is paid. Speace is well known in this city and his case is a sad one. He has been given chance after chance by the local police force to straighten up.

THE HICKSVILLE FAIR.

Hicksville, O., Aug. 20.—This section has one of the largest crops ever recorded. While there has, in some sections, been considerable trouble in saving it, yet the fact remains that the crops are far above the average. One of the most attractive features of the fair will be the agricultural hall. One of the seasons of the year in which the fair is held, corn will be exhibited on the stalk, and wheat and oats in the sheaves.

PIERCETON'S HOMECOMING.

Piercetown, Ind., Aug. 20.—Though the program committee is hard at work, no carnival company has yet been engaged for home coming week. It has been hoped to set the date for the first week in September, but until a company is engaged it will be necessary to know when they will be able to come. The committee was very anxious to announce this week what the program would be and regrets its inability to do so.

STEUBEN COUNTY SETTLERS.

Angola, Ind., Aug. 20.—The old settlers of Steuben county held their annual reunion here yesterday and the event was made auspicious by the presence of Hon. James E. Watson, Congressman Cyrus Cline and State Senator Otis L. Ballou, all of whom delivered addresses. Prof. L. W. Fairfield was also one of the speakers. The four oldest settlers registered were George Fisher, 80; John Dyer, 80; Mrs. Sylvia Mitchell, 83, and Mrs. Martha Morrow, 86.

CAPTURE NEGRO BANDIT.

Farmers Take Armed Outlaw After He Had Been Shot.

Karl Park, Ind., Aug. 20.—An unidentified negro bandit was captured in a corn field five miles west of here last evening by a posse of farmers from this place who had hunted all day for the desperado. He was captured only after he had been shot by a member of the posse, who carried a shot gun.

Nobby Fall Attire

A new Suit—a new Skirt—a new Coat—what woman is not interested just now in one or all of them. There is no store that can offer better facilities in every way for their purchase than this. As the season advances we will have an exposition of style such as few stores can equal. The price part is never overlooked here, we try to bring the new and beautiful within the reach of the modest purse. Early arrivals are now on display.

Modes of the Moment

The new Suits never were prettier—the new, graceful lines of the tailored models—the striking effects in the military styles and the charming creations in dressy Suits make selection easy. The materials and colors are new, black, navy and rich, dark shades in brown, green and wine are most popular. Garnitures and motifs in braid and fur add to the attractiveness of many of the Autumn Suits. Keep in touch with our Suit Section, it grows more attractive every day.

New Dresses

Women will find delight in our early showing of charming new Dresses for street, afternoon and evening wear, comprising new styles in serges, taffetas, charmeuse and velvets—some in beautiful combinations with chiffon and Georgette crepe. Prices are as pleasing as the styles.

New Dress Goods

Everything that fashion favors is here, all the new weaves, all the new colors. The demand this season will be for rich, dark shades, in plain cloths and plaids, checks and tweed mixtures in the fancies. The favorite fabrics being serges, gabardines, broadcloths, worsteds, chevots and whipcords. The price range is wide, from 50c to $2.00 a yard.

Black Dress Goods a Splendid Showing

Our display of black dress goods is the best we have ever made. All the popular favorites are here, for this is to be a black season. Unusual values prevail in French serges, storm serges, Henrietta, royal, poplins, Fazzo cloth, Calypso cloth, gabardines and nuns' veiling; the prices start at 50c and up to $2.00 a yard.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the bandit entered the Big Four ticket office here and covered V. H. Turner, the agent, with a revolver, demanded that Turner hand over the cash. Turner complied with the request and gave the negro $28.50, all that was in the cash drawer, and a revolver. After the negro was captured, the revolver was found on his person. He was brought here and placed in jail. His condition is quite serious and he refuses to divulge his identity. No member of the posse was injured although the negro fired many shots at his pursuers.

Ohio had 6,384 industrial accidents in June. The most remarkable bargains ever dreamed of in an Athletic Underwear during our Half Price Sale. We have been selling Athletic underwear at 50c that costs you 75c in any other store. Now it goes at 25c and so on up to our $2.50 silk garments that sell at $1.25.

PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

Helen May Irwin Participates in Meeting of Catholic Editors.

Helen May Irwin, of this city, has gone to Toledo, to attend the annual convention of the Catholic Press association. In Wednesday's issue of the Toledo Blade is a splendid picture of Miss Irwin together with the following comment: "Prominently active in the work of both conventions is Miss Helen May Irwin, of the Indiana Record, Indianapolis. Miss Irwin looks after the forty-two counties of the Fort Wayne, Ind., diocese for her paper."

JAPAN STRIKES AT GERMANY.

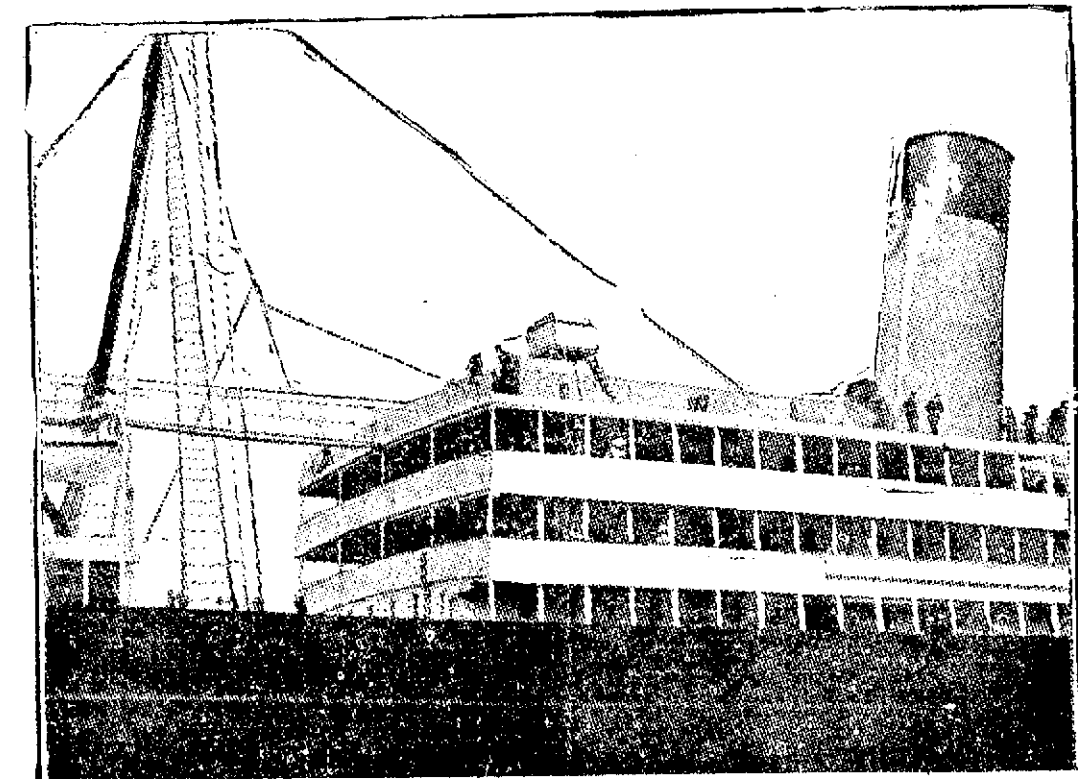

Tokio, Aug. 20.—Japan has requested her various steamship companies to discontinue handling German and Austrian goods to and from China or along the Chinese coast. Great Britain has been anxious to have Japan's support in a move to cease all trading with the Germans and Austrians in China. At first Japan decided against the project, but has now fallen in with the plan.

THIS WOMAN IS A PREACHER OF JOY

Feminine Non-Denominational Pastor Who Rejects Brimstone Belief.

New York, Aug. 20. Mrs. Mabel Q. Stevens is, as far as she knows, the only inter or non-denominational woman evangelist in the country. She is a southerner, her home being in St. Petersburg, Fla., where her husband, Dr. E. L. Stevens, is president of the Pan-American College for Women, and where she herself is dean of the Bible school connected therewith. And when she is not teaching or going around on evangelistic tours she takes parties to Palestine to travel through the Holy Land. She is enthusiastic over these various departments of her life, to which must be added what she considers the most fascinating business of all making a home for her husband and son.

She is slender, of medium height, is this woman evangelist, with wavy brown hair and brown eyes. She has the soft southern voice which one naturally expects, combined with a vivid manner of speech. She is not of the Bible Sunday type. Not as she varies to her theme she moves about on the platform and gesticulates freely, talks with her hands and arms, her whole being. She wears a pretty, demure, high collared gown of black silk and chiffon and lace, lightened by a touch of white. And she usually has a flower of some sort, preferably a red rose.

"How did I happen to become an evangelist?" Mrs. Stevens meditated a moment.

Studied to Be a Doctor.

"Ever since I can remember I've wanted to do some real work in the world, something for time and eternity. Years ago I decided I'd be a doctor and began to study medicine at Northwestern university in Chicago. There was a girl beside me in the chemical laboratory who was going as a medical missionary to foreign fields. She told me how great a need there was for missionaries and asked why I didn't consider that for a life work rather than ordinary practice.

"The more I thought of that, the more it appealed to me. I had been converted in college. I entered that large Bible school in Chicago and studied hard; then I was sent out to make speeches and preach.

"Oh, yes, of course, I've encountered more or less opposition, but it is growing less all the time I notice. When I first started out preaching I was young—in my early twenties—and the older women I met all considered it their duty to instruct me as to how I should dress and act and speak.

A Gospel of Joy.

"I shall never forget how disappointed one old lady who had promised to entertain me was when I arrived at her western home. It hadn't occurred to her that I might be young and she was sure that I was the wrong person at first. When she found I wasn't she could hardly conceal her annoyance and proceeded to try to bring me up according to her ideas.

"For one thing I had never taken coffee, so she determined that she would make me. It was quite unpleasant for a time and I began to give up and go home to my mother. Just suppose the meeting should not be a success! How I prayed, O Lord, give me a good meeting! My prayer was answered; we had a fine meeting and when it was over and people were crowding up around me that same old lady who had been so displeased with me came up, took my hand and put her arm around my shoulders and remarked complacently, 'This young lady is staying with me.'

Somehow one feels, talking with and listening to Mrs. Stevens, that there is an evangelist preaching a gospel of joy and happiness and common sense, rather than the once popular hell fire, brimstone and long-tailed, cloven hoofed devils.

She Loves Bright Colors.

"So many people have told me that I ought to wear sober colors," she continued, "but I don't like to. We southern women, you know, are fond of color, of the soft delicate shades of the rainbow and sky and birds. But now, with this terrible war going on, I don't mind black and white; I really prefer it."

Men and women and children poured eagerly into the big Tent Evangel for the service. Under their arms they carried Billy Sunday hymn books. One after another of those songs heard recently in Philadelphia and Paterson they sang, particularly that favorite of the Rev. Billy, "Brighten the Corner Where You Are." There was a prayer, the notices were read, then appeared the familiar dishpans, and the modest collection was taken. There was no appeal for large sums; Tent Evangel

WOMEN IN BANK OF ENGLAND.
Ancient Seat of Ultra-Conservatism Is Invaded by the Sex.

London, Aug. 20.—The very sanctum of British conservatism, the Bank of England, has been invaded by women clerks. Over 200 of them are now employed in the bank in various forms of clerical work. While it is the war that gave women the opportunity of replacing men of military age, it is also war that created additional work at the bank through the war loan business.

Women have been employed in the Bank of England in the humble note-sorting capacity since 1895, but they had never before done clerical work. They often put in as much as twelve hours a day.

Other banks, it is stated, now contemplate following the lead of the Bank of England, which, despite its former prejudice against women, has been historically known as the Old Lady of Threadneedle street.

MARRIAGE BY PROXY POPULAR.

Paris, Aug. 20.—Since the new law of April of this year authorizing military marriages by proxy came into force, over 700 such marriages have been performed. The law provided that two months must elapse between the application for authorization and the performance of the ceremony. One result of this delay is that in several cases the bridegroom has been killed on the battlefield by the time the proxy marriage took place.

THE CLANSMAN OF 1915.

Thomas Dixon, in his book, "The Clansman," built a story around the operations of the "Klu Klux Klan," composed of men who banded together, pledged themselves to secrecy and struck terror to thousands by nocturnal raids in the south during the reconstruction period following the civil war.

The clansman of that time wore a robe of white which covered his body, was ornamented by a bright red cross at the breast and topped by a pointed helmet. The fiery cross was the insignia of the band, which traveled by horseback in the silence of the night and here its victims to death.

Dixon was severely criticised on the charge that he misrepresented the spirit of the feared "K. K. K."

But the intent, purpose and end at of the south, and his story, dramatized, was barred from many cities. But if Dixon were to rewrite his story, following the teaching of Lew M. Frank, he would have to make only small changes in detail.

The clansman of 1915 used no disguise and traveled by automobile. There was no note of warning, couched in half mysterious phraseology and signed by a tamed was the same.

MRS. CONELLY OLDEST WOMAN AT THE PARK

Hundreds Attend Annual Old Ladies' Day Celebration.

Mrs. Margaret Connelly, 96 years old, residing at 247 Thompson avenue, was the oldest woman in attendance Thursday at the annual old woman's day celebration at Robison park. Mrs. Connelly was born in Glynn, Gloucester county, Ireland, in 1819, and has been a resident of Fort Wayne for about seventy years.

During the program for the aged women present, Mrs. Connelly occupied a place of honor on the platform. The address of welcome was delivered by Manager C. H. Williams.

One of the big features of the day's program was the "Hard Times Parade." Prizes were awarded to the tallest woman, Mrs. William Klepper, 2106 John street, who measured six feet and two inches; the fattest woman, Mrs. Alice Aerie, of Milford, Ind., who weighs 24 pounds.

The following were awarded prizes for the best costumes in the "Hard Times Parade": winners—Mrs. Sophia Oliver, 1223 East Lewis; Mrs. Anthony Juley, 728 East Jefferson; Mrs. Allen Deneil, 430 East Washington; Mrs. Geo. GERMANY AND ALLIES HAVE HARD QUESTION Tariff Matters Vex Austria, Hungary and Germany.

Berlin, Aug. 20.—Correspondence of the Associated Press. Few questions raised by the war are more momentous to Germany, Austria and Hungary than the future industrial relations among these three nations.

For close to a century, or ever since Russia as an independent state of Germany, took the initiative, the problem of customs duties among them has been a most question on which they do not agree today.

The original and varying objections to a proposed "customs association" or agreement among the original independent states of Germany, Austria and Hungary eventually were swept away almost forcibly, and a union was introduced that almost immediately produced results. The varied developments of the three nations during the course of years, however, brought constant disagreement as to what the tariff conditions should be disregarded which it is felt in many circles must be settled during the present war if at all.

Hungary at one time or another has been a persistent contender for a high protective tariff against the invasion of the articles which the well-developed industry of Germany has supplied, and in consequence of which the Hungarian industry is still in its infancy. Not longer ago than late in July, Hungary once more formally protested at a meeting of the German-Austrian Economic league, against the lowering of tariffs, and pleaded even for higher customs duties than exist at present.

Some for Free Trade.

Not all Hungary, however, holds this view, as a very recent meeting of Hungarians in Berlin attested. The men, more than a score of them, comprised the Hungarian Economic league, which with the German-Austrian organization comprises the Central European league. In spite of opposition that was at times determined, a majority of the members, comprising some of Hungary's most prominent agricultural, industrial and political figures, finally went on record as in favor of taking down the tariff bars among the three countries.

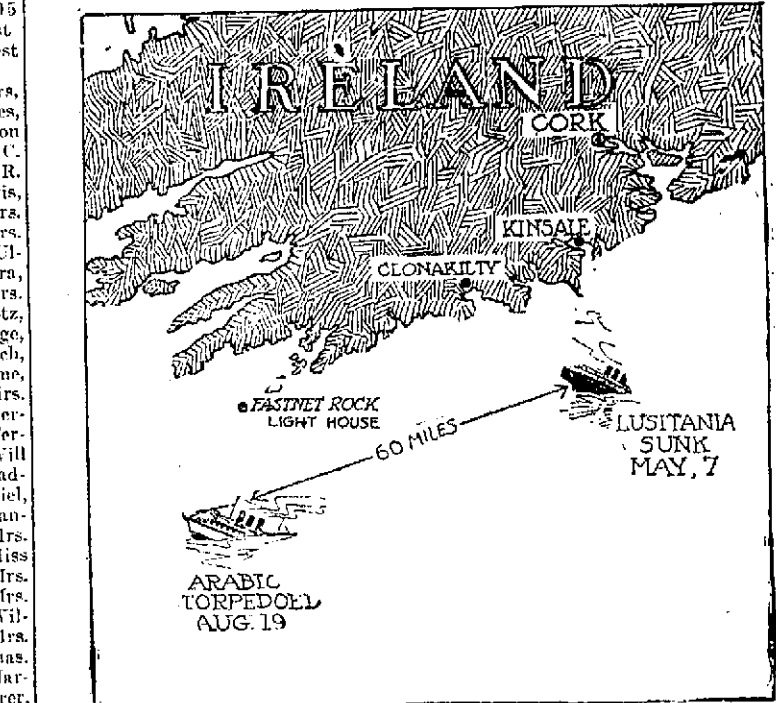

One of the chief arguments brought forward was that Germany and Hungary do not manufacture the same things, and that both will be benefited rather than hindered by the admission of articles that do not compete with home production.

Thus Hungary is a producer of agricultural machinery to supply its own large needs, and can without any harm to German industry introduce its product in the latter empire. Germany on the other hand makes quantities of other kinds of machinery and a thousand things that are not produced in Hungary, which can be introduced at a lower tariff into that country without competing dangerously with Hungarian industry.

Want It Settled Now.

The argument that an understand-

RED OVERALLS MAY TAKE PLACE OF BLUE

With Dyes Cut Off Substitute Color Must Be Found.

New York, Aug. 20.—White, yellow, green or red may be the colors in overalls next year. It's fairly sure they will not be blue or blue striped, unless peace is restored in Europe or chemists in the United States bestir themselves.

Blue of various shades has been the standard color in work clothes for so long that those who use them insist on that color.

But Germany has had a monopoly in the manufacture of fast blue dyes. Because of the low price at which they were produced there, this country has never made any effort to compete in that field.

It is the uncertainty in the situation that makes a venture into dye manufacturing in this country such a big risk. The concerns that could make dyes say they would just get started, the war would cease and then Germany would be in a position to undersell them.

Last week a dye company was formed in New York with one million dollars capital, and three large cloth manufacturing houses contracted to buy dyes from it for a period of years.

The dye situation is worrying Kansas City wholesale dealers and distributors, especially those who handle work clothes. In this line Kansas City is the foremost market of the country.

The goods are brought here in bulk and made into garments. Several million yards of coarse cloth are used yearly in Kansas City for such clothes.

One wholesale dealer in work clothes says that Palm Beach color, or absence of color, may become popular under necessity. Other dealers have suggested white or yellow as blue's most probable successor.

But the country merchant shakes his head and says, "Give us the colors we are used to."

Wabash Police.

A rumor which has not been confirmed by the official notice, but which is believed to be founded on fact, is that Capt. William G. Bates, of Richmond, Va., is to become a resident of Fort Wayne again. As mentioned in a previous issue of The Sentinel, the police department of the Wabash is to be expanded and strengthened and this work has been placed in the hands of Col. T. S. Ward, recently appointed chief special agent, with headquarters in St.

WILLIAM G. BATES.

Louis, Colonel Ward formerly held a similar office with the Seaboard Air Line railway, on which Captain Bates has been a special agent for about a year. Now it is said Captain Bates is to come to the Wabash under the title of division special agent with headquarters in Fort Wayne and territory extending from Fort Wayne to Toledo. He was in Port yesterday, presumably on business connected with the alleged change, and will come here tonight to join Mrs. Bates, who has been visiting in Fort Wayne and Chicago for some weeks. Captain Bates has had a great deal of experience in railway police work, and was a member of Captain Stoll's force, on the Pennsylvania, about twelve years. His latter service being in the capacity of lieutenant. When Colonel Ward began the reorganization of the police department on the Seaboard Air Line and way, he called to his assistance Lieutenant W. G. Bates and Lieutenant J. M. Neff, two men who rank among the best of railway policemen, and made them division special agents, or equivalents, assigning Mr. Bates to Richmond. The change was a distinct promotion for Lieut. Bates, but it is said that he and Mrs. Bates have not been pleased with their new home and have never ceased to wish for an opportunity to return to Fort Wayne.

WILL SING AT LEO.

The Blacksmiths' quartette, organized during the layon meetings last winter and maintained since, will sing at an entertainment at Leo next Tuesday night, given by the Sunday school class of Mrs. Charles J. Schaller. The quartette is composed of J. C. Traxler, E. H. Gaylor, C. B. Watterman and S. E. Claudy, each a blacksmith at the Pennsylvania shops.

A JOOLY FISHING PARTY.

A. D. Hunter, J. A. Mooney and L. F. Schele, Pennsylvania yard engineers, have taken a two weeks' leave of absence for the purpose of going to Rome City for an outing. They are provided with every kind of fishing tackle and bait and expect to have good luck fishing.

WHISKY RUN ON AGAIN.

The "whisky run" on the Nickel Plate, which was taken from service a couple of months ago, was again placed in service this week. Conductor W. W. Harper will have charge of the train. The assignment of engineers being open for bid. This run operates daily, except Sunday, between Fort and Bellevue, carrying rush merchandise from a connecting line at the former city billed to New York.

TURNED OUT TEN ENGINES.

The output of engines receiving general repairs at the Pennsylvania shops during the week ending today was as follows: Nos. 9102, 7463, 7141, 5520, 9935, 9242, 9241, 7322, 7475 and 9046.

Gigantic Compulsory Sale

A DIRECT PERSONAL MESSAGE

TO EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN FORT WAYNE AND THE SURROUNDING TOWNS

Who wishes to buy new Summer and Fall Clothing, Hats, Furnishings of the world's best makes, and who has waited for the final reductions and slaughter "sale," we say to you that the values we give you the balance of this GIGANTIC COMPULSORY SALE will be overwhelming. Loss and profit cut no figure. We must sell this brand new stock at once. THE CLIMAX IN CLOTHING MASSACRES! The apogee in shattered prices! Time is precious! Don't wait! Come at once! The greatest sale! The greatest bargain! Terrific stampedes for terrific bargains! Mortal man or woman never saw the like before at the lowest prices ever named for such dependable merchandise. This big sale has given joy and prosperity to the farmer, toilers and wage-earners. A wonder, and marvelous value-giving, record-breaking CLOTHING SALE that has eclipsed any sale heretofore attempted in this county in the way of clothing selling. The prices quoted for this big sale have untwisted all the regular lines of trade and utterly demoralized competition in Fort Wayne. "Hence we say"—daring feats of underselling to dazzle and delight you; little prices that beggar description and stagger belief will prevail during the balance of this BIG SALE. It's a duty you owe to yourself and family to investigate the offerings. READ! REJOICE! RESPOND!

W. C. Bell and Thomas Gallivan, Nickel Plate conductors, were off duty yesterday on account of sickness.

P. L. Eister, traveling passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, called on local ticket agents yesterday.

Mrs. C. W. Simmers and daughter will spend Sunday with friends at Lima, Ohio.

A. Valda, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shops, will go to South Bend tomorrow to spend the Sabbath.

Tomorrow Paul Meyers, an apprentice in the Pennsylvania foundry, will leave for Detroit to spend a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Creek will be guests of friends in Grand Rapids over Sunday. He is employed in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop.

Agent H. M. Quicksell, of the Star Line, is taking a vacation and left yesterday for Atlantic City to spend a part of it.

Power Director George McClimie, of the Pennsylvania, who has been east on a vacation trip two weeks, will resume work tomorrow.

The Pennsylvania train No. 57 had a special coach and baggage car today for the accommodation of the "Girls from Joy Land."

After a week's visit with his folks in Ohio, P. C. Sharp, a pipefitter, resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Arnold Hutzman leaves tomorrow for Twin Lakes for a two weeks' outing. He is a draftsman at the Pennsylvania shops.

L. E. Mason, helper at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, failed to show up for duty today on account of sickness.

W. H. Seibert, a Pennsylvania car-builder, is sick and off duty. H. S. Wass, of the car machine shop, is also off duty on account of sickness.

Pennsylvania Dispatcher W. R. Richardson, who has been on a two weeks' vacation, will resume his duties tomorrow.

T. W. Demarest, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania, is in Pittsburgh on business for the department.

Chief Clerk W. L. Witt, of the Pennsylvania motive power office, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

The board of management of the Y. M. C. A. held a meeting last night, at which only routine business was handled.

General Yardmaster J. L. Gogarty, of the Wabash, has returned from a visit with relatives and friends at Deatur, Illinois.

J. H. Carver, Pennsylvania yard fireman at Lima, has taken a two weeks' lay-off which he will spend in northern Michigan. His family will accompany him.

Passenger Conductor and Mrs. T. P. McAnick, the former of the Pennsylvania, have completed a visit with friends at Toledo and other places in that vicinity.

A special train of five cars over the Pennsylvania will pass through Fort Wayne next Tuesday, carrying the Keystone state infantry, eighty-five people, on their return from the Pacific coast.

C. H. Berghoff, for some time living a switch engine in the Pennsylvania yards at Lima, was summoned home last night on account of the illness of his wife.

Ed Dickmeyer failed to show up at his desk in the office at the Bass foundry this morning. His sister was married yesterday, as mentioned elsewhere, and he was the "best man."

The gang foremen at the Pennsylvania shops, at their picnic at Germania park Saturday afternoon, will have as guests many of the department heads and will have a crowd of about sixty.

A. Beecher, general foreman of the passenger department of the Pennsylvania shops at Chicago, was in the city today on business with the company's shop officials.

J. J. Thiene, of the Wayne Knitting Mills, and his son Robert are making an automobile trip. They went to Indianapolis yesterday and on their return will go to Detroit and Ann Arbor.

James Bell, Wabash road foreman of engines, of Montpelier, was in the city yesterday. Motive Power Inspector James McClure, of Deatur, was also here yesterday.

Tomorrow Pennsylvania Dispatcher T. J. Costello, sr., and son, T. J. Costello, jr., will leave for New York City, Washington, Baltimore and other eastern cities for a two weeks' stay. Mr. Costello is taking his annual vacation.

The bridge inspection party on the Pennsylvania, which started from Clarke Junction on an inspection trip yesterday morning, arrived here last evening. Supr. Otto Schroll joined the party here.

E. M. Stokes, jr., is spending a week in the city with his father, E. M. Stokes, sr., the G. R. & I. engineer, who lives in Grand Rapids, but runs in and out of Fort Wayne and is well known here.

Machinist F. R. Schilling, who had been sick and reported at the Pennsylvania round house yesterday for duty, suffered a relapse last night and was unable to report for work today. His condition, it is said, is not serious.

The G. A. R. men who start from Fort Wayne to attend the encampment at Washington, September 24, 25 and 26, will have to put up $21.65 for the round trip. This rate has been granted by the Central Passenger association.

Oscar E. Shaffer, a foreman at the Pennsylvania east car shop, has returned from a two weeks' sojourn in Wisconsin and will resume work Monday. Mr. Shaffer was accompanied by Mrs. Shaffer and their daughter.

H. W. Crawford, of Chicago, district passenger agent of the Canada Steamship lines, was a caller at the Fort Wayne ticket office today. Mr. Crawford says the business of his company is good, notwithstanding the war and other adverse conditions.

Foreman Chris Kees, of the Pennsylvania round house, was taken ill at the warehouse shortly after arriving there to take up his usual duties this morning. He was unable to walk and a taxicab was called to take him home, where he soon revived.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham, of the Pennsylvania, is preparing for a vacation trip in the east. He may leave tomorrow. Returning from the east he will spend some days with Mr. and Mrs. Adam LaMar and children at Chicago. Mrs. Graham will accompany her husband.

Machinist and Mrs. John Casey, the former of the Wabash shops, are entertaining their niece, Mrs. T. R. Wilcox, of Princeton, Ind., whose husband is engaged in the wholesale grocery business. Mrs. Wilcox was formerly Miss Goldie Telington, of East Lewis street, this city.

A. C. Woodward underwent an operation for an injured knee at the St. Joseph hospital Wednesday. He is a G. R. and I. brakeman and the injury was sustained while out on his run. It is said the operation was successful and the injured knee would soon be restored to normal condition.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drayer and daughter, Miss Hilda Drayer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wartenebe and daughter will go to Chicago tomorrow and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kadlker will go to Cincinnati to spend the week-end with friends. The gentlemen named are Pennsylvania blacksmiths.

Although he is supposed to be on a vacation, B. Shipley, division storekeeper of the Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Wellsville, is attending the meeting of the division storekeepers and taking an active part in the proceedings. Later he will take an automobile trip through parts of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Raymond Miller, engine dispatcher at the Pennsylvania round house, left at noon today on a western trip that will consume two or three weeks. He will spend a portion of the time with friends at Denver and Salt Lake City and will visit other points of interest in Colorado and Utah. During Mr. Miller's absence P. V. Johann will serve as engine dispatcher.

Ottawa county, which first produced Elberta peaches, is just commencing to send out its crop. It is said there will be over 2,000 car loads of peaches shipped from that county from now until the 10th of September and the growers and shippers are worried lest they may not be able to get cars enough. The Ottawa crop of peaches is the best in history and prices are likely to be low.

William J. Feary, foreman of the boiler department of the Pennsylvania round house, who is about to complete a two weeks' vacation, came down from Rome City this morning to attend to some business. Tomorrow he will make a trip to Defiance and Monday resume work at the shop. Mr. Feary says he never had as pleasant a vacation trip as the one to Rome City now closing.

D. O. McComb, county superintendent of schools, was a visitor in Woodburn Friday, where he will have printed the program for the teachers' institute meeting.

Italians are passing through Fort Wayne in great numbers, bound for their native country to take a hand in the war against Austria. The Nickel Plate has received the bulk of the business so far, though the Pennsylvania and the Wabash has handled quite a number of the foreigners. The Nickel Plate gets a great many of the Italians from the southwest, they being brought to that line by the Clover Leaf, which crosses the Nickel Plate at Continental.

BULLETIN.

London, Aug. 20.—The Exchange Telegraph company today received the following dispatch dated Berlin, via Amsterdam:

News of the sinking of the Arabic caused great nervousness, the foreign office fearing it would lead to serious difficulties with Washington.

"Details are withheld from the newspapers which are prohibited from making comment."

BULLETIN.

Queenstown, Aug. 20.—A report was circulated here today that the White Star liner Lapland had been sunk. There was no confirmation of this report and it is considered probable that the Lapland was confused with the British steamer New York City, torpedoed yesterday, whose crew was landed here today.

PLAN TO FINANCE BIG BRITISH LOAN

New York, Aug. 20.—Negotiations looking to the financing here of a $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 British loan to pay for American supplies bought abroad continued today unaffected, it was said, by the sinking of the Arabic or international complications which may result. No official announcement concerning progress was made but the foreign exchange markets, apparently buoyed by the belief that the loan soon would be floated, took on a stronger tone.

Sterling was quoted at three-quarters of a cent higher than its closing quotation of 4.67 1/2 yesterday, while many large banking houses declined to quote continental exchange at all.

BRITISH SUBMARINE GROUNDS; MEN LOST

London, Aug. 20.—At 4:45 p. m. Official announcement was made today that a British submarine had grounded in the sound. Fifteen members of the crew were saved.

The official announcement follows: "A British submarine, the E-15, Lieut. Commander Layton, on his way to the Baltic, grounded yesterday morning on the Danish island of Saltholm, in the sound. Fifteen officers and men are reported to have been saved while fifteen are missing. Full details will be made known as soon as they are received."

WANTS DECATUR MAN DECLARED BANKRUPT

Petition Filed by First National Bank Against Julius Haugk.

A petition was filed in the federal court Friday afternoon by the First National bank asking that Julius Haugk, of Decatur, be declared a bankrupt. The petition sets forth that Haugk is indebted to the First National bank in the sum of $500. The bank alleges that it loaned money to the Carwell Lumber company and to the Allison Real Estate company, Rufus K. Allison executing his bond guaranteeing payment of all sums owing by the two corporations upon which bond Julius Haugk and Henry Lite became securities. The petitioner has exhausted all the property of Allison and the corporations and there still remains due upon the bond a sum exceeding $10,000. The petition sets forth that Haugk is not a wage-earner or engaged chiefly in farming and tillage of the soil, but is at the present time subject to be adjudged a bankrupt.

PURDUE PROFESSOR SAVED FROM ARABIC

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 20.—A cablegram received here today from Queenstown stated that Prof. Alfred Still, of Purdue university, was aboard the Arabic. He left for Europe early this summer to install a testing plant at Lancaster, England. Prof. Still was instrumental in saving the life of his maid, Miss Hyde, also a passenger.

Mrs. Still and her children are spending the summer at Lake James, and have made a great many Fort Wayne friends among the visitors at the lake. The Sentinel Friday afternoon gave Mrs. Still first information on the safety of her husband, the message being sent to her by Mrs. W. D. and Carothers Calton, following dispatch dated Berlin, via Amsterdam.

SIGNS WILL DIRECT WHICH ROAD TO TAKE

Heavy and Persistent Rain Has Called Out the Lifeboats.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—By the middle of the afternoon every automobile road and street car line leading from St. Louis to the surrounding suburban towns had been closed because of high water. Firemen were rescuing inhabitants of several suburbs from second story windows in boats.

The first regiment armory and the college will be open tonight to house thousands of suburbanites who cannot get home.

Four feet of water entered the subway of the Union station, the underground passage through which baggage and mail is hauled.

Street car service to suburbs was discontinued on many lines.

In many parts of the city cars were stalled and transportation was completely cut off from many points within the St. Louis limits.

Shortly before noon, Mayor Kiel ordered street department trucks to take fire boats from the city harbor to Maplewood to help in the work of rescue.

MATINEE SATURDAY.

But Three More Performances of "The Penalty" at the Temple.

"The Penalty" will be presented at a matinee performance Saturday, by the Payson Players at the Temple theater. This intense drama, harrowing possibly to some minds, but of tense interest to the majority of people, has proved an admirable matinee vehicle as the commingling of laughter, tears, smiles and heart throbbing moments, make it a play of parts, a play that retains one's interest in every scene.

But three performances remain of this drama, this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

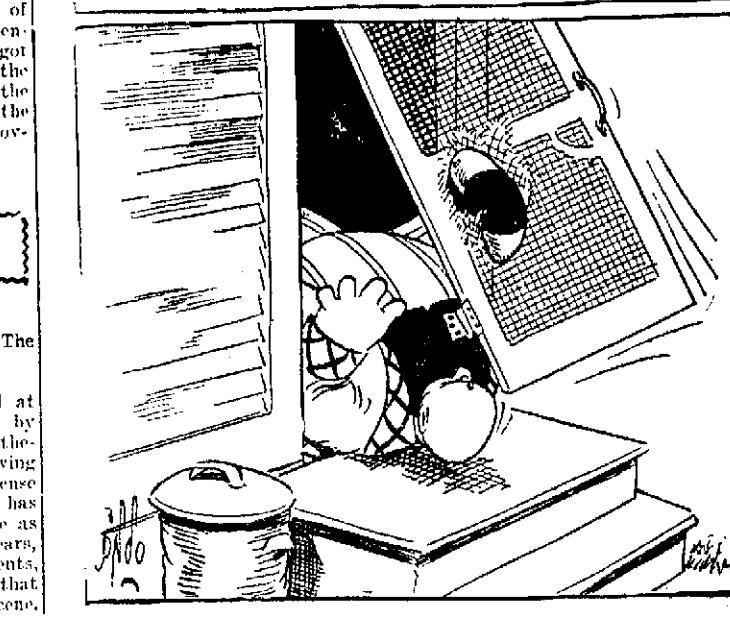

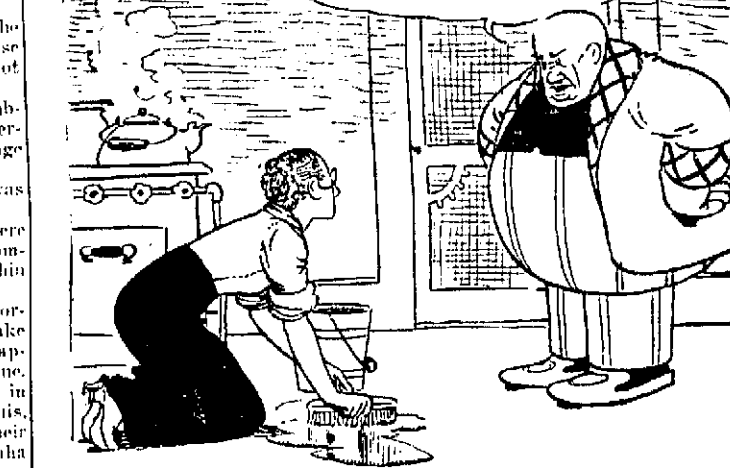

The crack farce comedy, "The Wrong Mr. Wright," a snappy laugh, funnier than "Hello Bill," is the promising bit of fun, the Payson Players will stage all during the coming week.

MORE BLUE GILLS.

Fifty large blue gills have been received at the Commercial club from Secretary Charles L. Biederwolf, who is now at Clear Lake. Up until the fore part of the week Mr. Biederwolf has been at Crooked Lake and after he had caught all the fish there he moved to Clear Lake. He is expected to return to Fort Wayne Monday.

The value of all property in the United States and its possessions is placed at $187,731,400,000.

DOING LAND OFFICE
BUSINESS IN WHEELS

Detective W. F. Pappert arrested Isaac Falwager of 1123 Hayden street, Friday afternoon for stealing and selling bicycles. Falwager, who is a foreigner, has been doing a land office business in bicycles for over a year and was doing it so smoothly that he was not suspected until a few days ago. His plan of operation was to steal three or four wheels, tear them apart and use parts from each one in rebuilding them. Then the wheel was painted so that all parts would correspond in color. Leo Kratzmann, of Weissner Park avenue, had a bicycle stolen from his lawn over a year ago and no trace of it could be found. Detective Pappert found one of the wheels he had stolen and when he scraped the paint from the frame he found the number 1245321, the number which Kratzmann had given the police when his disappeared. Falwager states that he found the wheel in an alley.

Indiana and Ohio
Traction

Chicago and New York capitalists associated in new company to take over and electrify 56 miles steam railroad, north-eastern Indiana, insist part of new securities and majority directors and officials reside in Indiana.

Road well built. Connects three county seats and ten smaller places. Locality served has 13% greater population than other roads. Cost one million, five hundred thousand dollars to build and equip.

Present value of private right-of-way, road bed, buildings, terminals, shops, cars, locomotives and other equipment appraised June 22, 1915 by J. G. White Engineering Company, of N. Y., at $901,964.

Entire property, franchises, etc., purchased at judicial sale for $357,000. Title clear. Properties came to present company free of liabilities.

Average earning of Interurbans in Indiana is $7.69 per capita of population served. Figuring on population reported by J. G. White Engineering Corp. gives this road a potential earning of $269,319 a year, when electrified.

Operating expenses should be 66% of gross receipts. This leaves the company a net earning of $100,748 with which to pay interest, taxes and other fixed charges.

Present issue 6% Gold Debenture Bonds limited to $150,000. Certified by The Chicago Title & Trust Co. Securities on same basis as farm mortgages, with 26% fully paid, non-assessable preferred stock as a bonus.

These Debenture Bonds in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. Interest payable Aug. 1st and Feb. 1st. The company reserves privilege of redemption on any interest day, after one year at par plus a premium equal to 1% per annum for the unexpired term of the bond.

Two steam roads and two interurbans running out of Fort Wayne intercept this line. Only an hour's ride to make personal investigation.

Better and safer investment in your own front yard, so to speak, than can be found elsewhere. Full information cheerfully given.

1. "We was becalmed onct off th' nor' coast o' Africka, an' from where th' ship lay we could see plenty o' giraffs an' ostriches cruisin' round on th' desert, an' it bein' about Thanksgivin' time them big birds looked mighty temptin' t' us. Well, one day we sights th' hull o' an ol' bird wot 'ad been killed durin' th' night, an' that's how th' notion got into our heads t' 'sprise one o' them desert turkeys.

2. "Well, arter a big argment we got th' skipper t' put on th' ostrich skin an' started out t' run down three 'at we sighted inland ways. You'd never thought th' ol' man 'ud a' done it, but he wus afeard t' trust me an' Bill, I reckon, fer fear we'd let 'em git away. Well, sir, th' figger th' ol' man cut in that rig 'ud make you die a' laffin', an' we couldn't hardly hold in til his back 'us turned.

3. "I'd give a purty, fer a picture o' th' skipper tackin' off t' leaward o' them three birds 'ith th' ship's gun stowed away under his wing. I didn't have much faith in th' scheme, an' 'us surprised they did't get suspicious an' set sail, but they didn't, an' arter circlin' 'round th' ol' man fer a spell them three ostriches give a waoop an' bore down on th' cap'in' like a nor'wester.

4. "We wus as much took aback as th' skipper hisse'f, an' dropped down behin' th' sandbank t' wait orders. We could hear th' thump o' footsteps gittin' plainer, an' soon made out they 'us headin' our way, an' sure enough, over the bank comes th' ol' man, f-a-t-h-e-r's an' all, with them three ostriches at his heels, who wusn't no more than natives therselves rigged up 'is' as th' cap'in'.

5. "Well, we 'us captured fair an' square an' no mistake, an' bein' unarmed (th' ol' man havin' thrown his firearms overboard th' first thing t' lighten ballast) they 'us nothin' t' do but face th' music. I don't 'spose you'd believe it if I told you, but you can sink me if they didn't march us right to their boss, who 'us a ex-ployer feller wot I'd met before in my time.

6. "He 'us tickled t' death t' see me, an' nothin' 'ud do but that we all stay an' eat Thanksgivin' mess 'ith him as he 'ad a big ostrich roastin' on th' fire at th' time. We'd started out arter ostrich, but hadn't figgered on findin' him cooked t' a turn. Some folks prefers turkey, but let me state that ostrich is good enough fer me."

RESOLUTION AFFIRMED.

The resolution for the widening of Alexander street, from Pontiac street to Huestis and Taylor's subdivisions, lot No. 97, was confirmed by the board of public works at its meeting Thursday night, as were all the other improvement assessment rolls. It was the third time the matter has been brought up and both other times it was defeated.

BIG STORM AT EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 20. The rain and wind storm which local weather bureau officials say is the result of the Texas tornado's progress over this section, struck this city Thursday night and Friday, flattening corn and doing extensive damage to the fruit crop. The rainfall for the last 24 hours was 1.4 inches.

CORONER INQUIRES INTO TOT'S SUICIDE

Suspicion Raised Against Stepmother of Girl at Montpelier.

Hartford City, Ind., Aug. 20.—A sensation similar to that in the Krauss case in this city ten years ago, when pretty Crystal Krauss, 16 years old, was poisoned by her stepmother, who is serving a life sentence in prison, has been caused by the announcement of a rigid investigation of the supposed suicide of 9-year-old Dena Baker at Montpelier Wednesday. Coroner Rutledge, of this city, said he would proceed cautiously with the investigation, which was started by Deputy Prosecutor James Sturgis.

Mrs. A. C. Baker, stepmother of the child, who declared the girl committed suicide because of a longing "to be an angel," is expected to be a witness before the coroner. The stepmother formerly was a school teacher at Carmel, Ind.

Mrs. Baker asserted that the girl climbed up to a cupboard, took down a bottle of poison and drank three teaspoonfuls, corked the bottle and replaced it and then stood for some time, denying to her stepmother that she had touched the acid.

It is said that neighbors told the deputy prosecutor that the child had been subjected to gross mistreatment. Two neighbors, Mrs. Greenville Baxter and Mrs. V. B. Yount, who laid out the body following the girl's death, testified yesterday that there were welts on the body.

Coroner Rutledge announced late yesterday that he would hold a post-mortem. Link Cook, a traveling grocery salesman, who calls regularly on A. C. Baker, the father of the dead girl, was subpoenaed. Cook informed the coroner, it is said, that he had a conversation with the father while in his store recently regarding Mrs. Baker's treatment of the child. On one occasion Cook told the coroner the stepmother stripped the child of her clothing and beat her with a razor strap. Dena told her father and the stepmother is said to have threatened to kill her, according to Cook.

Merchandise and treasure to the value of $65,500,000 moved between Alaska and the United States in 1914, an increase of $4,000,000 over 1913.

KILLEN CITED TO APPEAR IN COURT

Must Show Cause Why He Has Not Obeyed the Judge's Orders.

George Killen, proprietor of a moving picture theater on South Calhoun street, was cited Friday to appear in court on affidavit of his divorced wife, Carrie L. Killen, and show cause why he has not contributed toward her support as ordered in the decree.

According to Mrs. Killen's affidavit her husband was ordered to pay $30 a month on the 5th of each month until modified by the court. She alleges that he has failed to make such payments and a total of $90 is now due, although he is well able to pay. Killen has since remarried.

Two other citations were issued in the superior court Friday afternoon. Ernest C. Baumermeister is ordered to appear in court on August 24 and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for failure to obey the order of court. The citation was issued at the request of his divorced wife, Frieda Baumermeister.

John Pollock is ordered to appear in court on August 25, complaint being made against him by his divorced wife, Iva Pollock, who alleges that he has failed to abide by the order of court. Killen is ordered to appear on August 26.

Suit for Divorce.

Charging extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness and failure to provide, Rosa A. Fry, through her attorneys, Breen and Morris, filed suit in the superior court Friday afternoon asking for a divorce from Charles E. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Fry were married on July 5, 1905, and separated August 15, 1915. She also is asking for the custody of their five children and alimony in the sum of $2,000. Mr. and Mrs. Fry are the joint owners of a farm in Jackson township.

Hears Divorce Case.

When Peter Ledi started to work one morning his wife kissed him good bye, following him to the door, where they again embraced. At a clock that same evening, when he returned home from work he found the doors locked and a neighbor told him that she had departed, taking her belongings. A week later he found a note written by her telling him she was going away to never return. Such was the testimony he gave in the superior court Friday afternoon at the hearing on a cross complaint, which he filed in the suit originally brought by his wife, Minnie Ledi.

WILL OPEN NEW BRIDGE.

The new concrete bridge on the Lincoln highway just west of New Haven, will be thrown open to the public Saturday. The bridge was inspected by the county commissioners Friday afternoon.

Road Work Resumed.
William Tonkel, superintendent of roads, stated Friday that road work is again being resumed in Allen county now that the farmers are not so busy and it is possible to get the necessary help. Work was started this week repairing the Leo and Goshen roads.

Courier Found Insane.
George Courier was found to be of unsound mind, Thursday, in the court of Justice of the Peace August C. Niemman by a commission composed of Drs. Mackel, Schneider and Van Swearingen. The record of the inquest was filed with the county clerk Friday.

Fishing Licenses.
Since the first of August a total of 350 hunting and fishing licenses have been issued at the county clerk's office. During the month of July over 900 licenses were issued and it is not likely that this number will be reached this month, which is now more than half gone.

Allen County Gets $11,777.87.
Allen county will get $11,777.87 of the $500,327.79 to be distributed by the state of Indiana to the ninety-two counties from funds which have accumulated during the last six months from automobile licenses. Allen county gets more than any other county with the exception of Marion county. St. Joseph county is third.

Wants Partnership Dissolved.

Suit to dissolve partnership and for the appointment of a receiver has been filed in the superior court by John Green against John Steltzer. Green and Steltzer are owners of a blacksmith shop and truck farm four miles west of Fort Wayne on the Yellow river road. Green alleges that the defendant took possession of the place on March 20 and that he refused to permit him to have access to the books so he can ascertain the amount of business that is being done. Green is represented by Attorneys Harper and Fuelber.
